Their Master's Voice Chris Woodall,2020-11-03 Of the five books that make up the Major Prophets in the Old

Testament three are amongst the largest of the Bible Isaiah Jeremiah and Ezekiel As if to underscore their Major status each one is significantly longer than the Minor Prophets combined Although the specific details of each prophet s contribution differ a more general overarching theme may be discerned in them all to remind their respective target audiences of their covenantal obligations The prevailing human condition throughout the ages ensures that while circumstances cultural development and technological advancements do change with time the underlying sinful disposition of mankind remains constant in every epoch Mercifully God s messages to both victim and perpetrator alike are similarly unchanging In the stream of progressive revelation it would be irresponsible simply to dip into the waters of the Old Testament and translate its lessons to our day without due process That process might include asking certain questions of the texts under consideration Are the lessons provided by these Old Testament saints applicable to us as Christians in the twenty first century Do their words still speak today Only if Christian believers are still prone to such folly as chasing disposable pleasures instead of choosing meaningful pursuits

Major Prophets of To-Day

Edwin Emery Slosson,1916-01-30 Each age has its own prophets men who bring to it distinctive messages and present them in such effective form as to sway the currents of contemporary thought No age perhaps has had more diverse theories of life and the meaning of things presented to it than our own and certainly none has ever given such an opportunity for the original thinker to reach quickly a world wide audience as he can now through the medium of cheap books and free schools This volume originated in my own desire to find out what was being said by certain persons who I had reason to believe were worth attention But unless one is abnormally selfish he always wants to introduce others to an interesting acquaintance It is then simply as introductions that I would wish the following chapters to be taken In one way or another such men are influencing the thought of all of us but since we mostly get their philosophy at second hand or at third fourth or nth hand we fail to recognize its origin and are apt to misconceive its intent Ideas that reach us in fragmentary form and often after multiple translation through minds sometimes alien or hostile are not very useful It is always safer to drink at the source I have endeavored to give some idea of the scope and character of each man s work so that the reader may judge for himself whether it is profitable for him to follow up the acquaintance If he does he will find at the end of the chapter directions how to proceed further

The Two Great Prophets Reverend Elkan V. Kemp,2009-01-19

It was his survival of a near fatal head on collision in 1940 that turned Elkan Kems life around After crossing the threshold of death twice while hospitalized he gained a new perspective on life and on death as well

During his six years in the Air Corps he met his dream girl while at Pearl Harbor and they were married

Elkan Kemp began his college education in 1946 at the University of Iowa There he obtained both a BA and an MA degree with majors in Sociology and Religion

It was during this time that his interests included in depth studies of the Old Testament under Rabbi Judah Goldin

He studied religion under Dr Marcus Bach and Theology under several Jesuit priests

He learned five dialects in Greek and received honors in Phi Eta Sigma Eta Sigma Phi and Phi Beta Kappa

Reverend Kems religious studies at the University of Iowa led him to three years of graduate work at the San Francisco Theological Seminary which included research in Greek and advanced Hebrew

He also went on to earn a divinity degree and a Seminary Fellowship for study at the University of Edinburgh Scotland

His experience at the University of Edinburgh led him to more advanced work in Hebrew and extensive studies of the Muslim religion

With a Ph D thesis entitled Life Death and What Comes After

Elkan Kems education now led him to his lifelong devotion to pastoral work

After teaching from the Bible for more than 60 years

Reverend Kemp became aware of just how many thinking people have been frustrated by the walls of religious myth legend creed and dogma that the churches and synagogues have erected

His decision to write this book came out of a desire to ease those frustrations by helping people to break down those walls

There was a practical side to his effort

He sat with many deeply religious laymen and ministers who came to that event we call death with great anxiety

Reverend Kemp believes that it is evident that the Judaeo Christian religion is not working for those walls require a hand me down religion and this does not work Reverend Kemp states We truly believe only what we know about our God first hand I hope with this book people will be able to find that experience and to have a full life and then come to death with a firm happy confidence not just a vague hope
