The Invention of Papal History Stefan Bauer, 2020 The Catholic Church is among the oldest most secretive institutions in the world but in the sixteenth century a friar Onofrio Panvinio undertook ground breaking investigations into the Church's history from Christ to the Renaissance This study shows how his writings impacted on church and society but also how he changed historical writing

Inspiration: Bacchus and the Cultural History of a Creation Myth John F. Moffitt, 2005-05-01 The purpose of this book is to reveal the antique pedigree of a now commonplace term Inspiration an essential creation myth now propelling notions of self expression in modern art making Knowledge of the ancient sources of such supposedly modernist fixations will make a significant contribution to historical cultural thinking particularly by showing in detail the facts of an unrecognized evolutionary continuity In order to personify Inspiration this study initially focuses upon Michelangelo's Bacchus of 1496 so revealing now forgotten meanings once typically to be attached in a generic way to any Bacchus Then it demonstrates how these Dionysiac concepts arose in ancient Greece Later developments particularly from the Middle Ages through the Renaissance are traced here for the first time Due to further modifications by Friedrich Nietzsche Dionysiac expressionism eventually became a staple of modern art theory and practice

Mysterium Magnum: Michelangelo's Tondo Doni Regina Stefaniak, 2008-02-28 This study presents the Tondo Doni to the new Florentine republic as a model of the great sacrament of marriage from the New Testament book of Ephesians Following fifteenth century theology Michelangelo portrayed Mary as a humble wife dominated and possessed by a virile guardian Joseph the couple united as if two in one flesh To compensate for their symbolic propinquity the painter cast her as a paragon of virginity a muscular mulier fortis In order to keep this virago in her place Michelangelo coupled the Virgin in spiritual union with Christ maenad Psyche to bacchic Eros attempting to mystify her social subordination into self sacrificing love via Ficinian commentary and Saint Paul Then firing the Doni infant's vehemence with a distinctly violent strain of Christian love the painter turned to Dante's rime petrose to continue the implied action and authorize a new painterly style a sculptural

Rethinking the High Renaissance Jill Burke, 2017-07-05 The perception that the early sixteenth century saw a culmination of the Renaissance classical revival only to degrade into mannerism shortly after Raphael's death in 1520 has been extremely tenacious but many scholars agree that this tidy narrative is deeply problematic Exploring how we can reconceptualize the High Renaissance in a way that reflects how we research and teach today this volume complicates and deepens our understanding of artistic change Focusing on Rome the paradigmatic centre of the High Renaissance narrative each essay presents a case study of a particular aspect of the culture of the city in the early sixteenth century including new analyses of Raphael's stanze Michelangelo's Sistine

Ceiling and the architectural designs of Bramante The contributors question notions of periodization reconsider the Renaissance relationship with classical antiquity and ultimately reconfigure our understanding of high Renaissance style

Locating Renaissance Art Carol M. Richardson, 2007-01-01 Renaissance art history is traditionally identified with Italian centers of production and Florence in particular Instead this book explores the dynamic interchange between European artistic centers and artists and the trade in works of art It also considers the impact of differing locations on art and artists and some of the economic political and cultural factors crucial to the emergence of an artistic center During c 1420 1520 no city or court could succeed in isolation and so artists operated within a network of interests and local and international identities The case studies presented in this book portray the Renaissance as an exciting international phenomenon with cities and courts inextricably bound together in a web of economic and political interests Art and Love in Renaissance Italy Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Kimbell Art Museum, 2008 Many famous artworks of the Italian Renaissance were made to celebrate love marriage and family They were the pinnacles of a tradition dating from early in the era of commemorating betrothals marriages and the birth of children by commissioning extraordinary objects maiolica glassware jewels textiles paintings that were often also exchanged as gifts This volume is the first comprehensive survey of artworks arising from Renaissance rituals of love and marriage and makes a major contribution to our understanding of Renaissance art in its broader cultural context The impressive range of works gathered in these pages extends from birth trays painted in the early fifteenth century to large canvases on mythological themes that Titian painted in the mid 1500s Each work of art would have been recognized by contemporary viewers for its prescribed function within the private domestic domain BOOK JACKET Making & Meaning, the Young Michelangelo Michael Hirst, 1994 The Cabinet of Eros Stephen John Campbell, Stephen L. Zophy, 1999 In an effort to bridge the gap between the often different worlds of professors and students this exploration of Renaissance and Reformation Europe offers an accessible engaging approach that pays sufficient attention to the roles and contributions of women Its conversational tone and concise presentation are examples of an approach that is more representative than comprehensive introducing historical figures and concepts as they flow through the narrative without frequent interruption to include and define technical and foreign terms Rather than a compendium or grand summa the text serves as a brief introduction to some of the major personalities issues events and ideas of the Renaissance and Reformation age
