The Making of a Mystic in the Twenty-First Century Carol E. Parrish-Harra, 2014-08-06 There are three major ways to follow the spiritual path slow fast and the Bardo Most people are familiar with gradual awakening by using discipline and purification practices to cleanse one's self of emotional and behavioral conditioning Then there are others who awaken suddenly perhaps through a near death or out of body experience and they find themselves seeing and feeling in new ways about everything including their own subconscious the Bardo realm To become a mystic however is a step further as it involves both an inner commitment to spiritual growth in one's daily life as well as a deeper initiation into the mysteries of one's mind The author Carol Parrish Harra is a trusted master in helping train and guide those individuals who seek to grow in their inner life in both the pain and the ecstasy In The Making of a Mystic she shares age old wisdom gleaned from previous generations and adds a wealth of personal experience gained from living a mystical life in our modern world The Making of a Mystic A Twenty first Century Mystic Speaks by Carol E Parrish Harra offers an excellent introduction to the path of mysticism by someone who has not only studied deeply but has had deep mystical experiences herself As she writes Our real heartfelt desire is to be in the Presence This book describes her quest to bring this heartfelt desire to realization It is an inspiring work for travelers on the path Robert Powell PhD co founder of the Sophia Foundation and author of The Sophia Teachings The Most Holy Trinosophia The Mystery Destiny and Biography of Mary Magdalene and other works Carol Parrish Harra is a dynamic spiritual trailblazer and a real visionary Her spiritual path is a living synthesis of multiple strands of living wisdom and her story is a document of great importance As a modern Mystic she is a source of evolutionary inspiration and spiritual renewal and I warmly recommend the book Soren Hauge Spiritual Teacher Counsellor and Author www.sorenhauge.com The Making of a Mystic is what I would like all newcomers to the field of spiritual Esoterics and Mysticism to read Carol Parrish gives easy to read descriptions of some essential Do s and Don ts from her personal experience and warns of several traps that can befall the advanced student A gentle but firm entry into this vast subject Archbishop Frank Bugge Australian Church of Antioch Malibar Rite The Making of a Mystic is the culmination of forty years searching finding and sharing insights into higher reality Carol Parrish has inspired generations of students and her new book written in the straightforward compelling style that is her hallmark is a must read for all on the Path John F Nash PhD author of The Soul and Its Destiny and The Sacramental Church The Making of a Mystic Aelfrida Catharine Wetenhall Tillyard,1917 The Making of a Mystic: My Journey With Mushrooms, My Life as a Pastor, and Why It's Okay for Everyone to Relax Kevin Sweeney,2022-05-31 There is an increasing interest in the mystics contemplative faith and what it feels like in real life We have teachers who can explain the path and help us understand but we need guides who have experienced the path and who can show us how it unfolds This is what The Making of a Mystic is all about The Making of a Mystic \(Classic Reprint\) Aelfrida Tillyard,2017-11-24 Excerpt from The Making of a Mystic In the Lent terms of the years 1915 1916 and 1917 I delivered courses of Lectures at Cambridge on Spiritual Exercises and their Psychological Results The Development of the Religious Consciousness in East and West and The Practice of Mysticism These lectures which were given in the Psychological lecture room were purely academic They brought me into contact however with a number of people whose interest in mysticism and in the spiritual experience and methods of meditation of saints of all religions was not merely that of the scholar I found myself being constantly asked for advice by men and women who wished to become pilgrims on the mystic way and who felt the need for intense religious experience without having any opportunity for practising the austerities of the contemplative life I myself as I had better confess quite frankly am a mystic in so far as I find the world of spiritual experience more real than the material world and look on our union with God as the aim of humanity And though I agree with Dr Rendel Harris that those people who talk of undertaking the guidance of souls are both dangerous and impertinent I could not avoid giving these seekers after truth such help as was within my power which was little enough of course About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Making of a Mystic Paddy Fievet, 2014 Mystic Moderns James H. Thrall, 2020-01-21 Mystic Moderns examines the responses of three British authors Evelyn Underhill 1875 1941 May Sinclair 1863 1946 and Mary Webb 1881 1927 to the emerging modernity of the long early twentieth century moment encompassing the First World War As they explored divergent but overlapping understandings of what mystical experience might be these authors rejected claims that modernity's celebration of the secular and rational left no place for the mystical rather they countered sensitivity to a greater reality could both establish and validate personal agency and was integral to their identities as modern women Their preoccupations with the dynamism of human connection drew on prevailing ideas of vital energy or life force developed by Arthur Schopenhauer and Henri Bergson in ways that channeled modernity's erotic energy of change By using their fiction to describe new self authenticating forms of mysticism separate from either the prevailing orthodoxy of establishment Christianity or the extreme heterodoxy of their era's enthusiasm for paranormal experimentation they also contributed to the rise of a generic concept of spirituality Mystic Moderns thus offers historical perspective on contemporary claims for self constructed non institutional spiritual experience associated with the claim I'm spiritual not religious Working as they did within the shadow of the First World War Underhill Sinclair and Webb were in the end attempting to determine what might be of authentic value for a modern age marked by ubiquitous death While not themselves utopian authors each was touched by her era's complicated hunger for the best of all possible worlds Their constructions of how an individual should be and act in the midst of modernity thus simultaneously projected visions of what that modernity itself should become

Testament of Devotion and Thomas Kelly, Augustinian Quaker Guy Aiken,2021-04-06 Guy Aiken provides a critical appreciation of Quaker mystic Thomas Kelly 1893 1941 and his classic A Testament of Devotion 1941 This examination of Kelly's life and devotional writings is largely viewed through an Augustinian lens Augustine's Confessions was a touchstone for Kelly after his mystical transformation in 1937 38 Aiken argues that Kelly's vision of Quakerism transcended religious and historical boundaries while still speaking directly and prophetically to mid twentieth century liberal Quakerism and Christianity in the United States The volume treats in turn Kelly's melding of liberal and evangelical theology his prophetic call to his contemporaries and his revival of an ancient ethic before concluding with helpful suggestions for further research

A Psychological Interpretation of Mysticism ... Clarence Herbert Hamilton,1916 The Making of a Mystic Evelyn Underhill,2010-01-26 Substantial correspondence from an exceptional writer poet pacifist and mystic MAKING OF A MYSTIC Aelfrida Catharine Wetenhall Tillyard,2016-08-29 My Heart After Esther: A Mystic's Philosophy of Love Collins I. Aki,2017-01-24 My Heart After Esther could be considered a philosophy of love in the skin of a romance novel or a romance novel in the skin of a philosophy of love but it is ultimately a story about love and philosophy in a way that romances the two In this work of literary meta fiction two stories are interwoven into one The first story is about the translator of the second story Gustav Z Itzhahn and his love for the author and his work he is translating the mysterious pseudo philosopher Jorge Manuel Belmarez In the second story we read Itzhahn's presentation of Belmarez's story of love which dares to challenge every idea of love and marriage from the vow till death do we part to the old courtly love edict that marriage is no proper defense against love This new take on philosophical fiction may somehow find itself in the memory of its readers as more than an experiment in story telling but truly an experiment in challenging our deepest ideas and beliefs

Psychedelic Mysticism Morgan Shipley,2015-11-12 Concerned with scholarly popular and religious backdrops that understand the connection between psychedelics and mystical experiences to be devoid of moral concerns and ethical dimensions a position supported empirically by the rise of acid fascism and psychedelic cults by the late 1960s Psychedelic Mysticism Transforming Consciousness Religious Experiences and Voluntary Peasants in Postwar America traces the development of sixties psychedelic mysticism from the deconditioned mind and perennial philosophy of Aldous Huxley to the sacramental ethics of Timothy Leary Richard Alpert and Ralph Metzner to the altruistic religiosity practiced by Stephen Gaskin and The Farm Building directly off the pioneering psychedelic writing of Huxley these psychedelic mystics understood the height of psychedelic consciousness as an existential awareness of unitive oneness a position that offered worldly alternatives to the maladies associated with the postwar moment e g vapid consumerism and materialism lifeless conformity unrelenting racism heightened militarism In opening a doorway to a common world Morgan Shipley locates how psychedelics challenged the coherency of Western modernity by fundamentally reorienting postwar society away from neoliberal ideologies and toward a sacred understanding of reality defined by mutual coexistence and responsible interdependence In 1960s America psychedelics catalyzed a religious awakening defined by compassion expressed through altruism and actualized in projects that sought to ameliorate the conditions of the least advantaged among us In the exact moments that historians and cultural critics often locate as signaling the death knell of the counterculture Gaskin and The Farm emerged not as a response to the perceived failures of the hippies nor as an alternative to sixties politics but in an effort to fulfill the religious obligation to help teach the world how to live more harmoniously Today as we continue to confront issues of socioeconomic inequality entrenched differences widespread violence and the limits of religious pluralism Psychedelic Mysticism serves as a timely reminder of how religion in America can operate as a tool for destabilization and as a means to actively reimagine the very basis of how people relate such a legacy can aid in our own efforts to build a more peaceful sustainable and compassionate world

passionate book about a gifted woman It is written from a psychological viewpoint using the developmental point of view of a number of contemporary developmental psychologists both men and women It is a critique of contemporary American shallowness and is an apologia for a feminist ethic and a feminist sense of prayer in a world dominated by competition abstraction and unthinking labor

Writing God and the Self Sharon Jebb, 2011-05-01 Contemporary literature has for several decades and in various guises been dominated by questions of identity and the self It has been forgotten that until the Enlightenment theological reflection emphasized the close connectedness of the self with God knowledge of God is essential to knowledge of the self and vice versa correct knowledge of the self is a necessary correlate to true knowledge of God This has been called the double knowledge Writing God and the Self examines two literary texts and lives as representative of two antithetical positions The first represented by Samuel Beckett's life and his Three Novels is that the self is independent of God the second represented by C S Lewis and Till We Have Faces is that God and the self are intimately connected Beckett's radical apophaticism about God is shown to be tied to his extreme apophaticism about the self whereas Lewis's sense of selfhood is demonstrated to be integrally connected to his sense of a personal and self transcending God Other voices Augustine Teresa of Avila Charles Taylor Rowan Williams Mark McIntosh and Vladimir Lossky join the chorus of theologians psychologists and other thinkers past and present that contribute to this exploration of what Christian theology has to say about the insistent problem of the self Taken together all these voices articulate a powerful vision of selfhood in relation to God that is desperately needed today
