Supplement to The Making of American Civilization Charles Austin Beard, Mary Ritter Beard, 1943 Creating American Civilization David R. Shumway, 1994 Making America Carol Berkin, 2003 Making America presents history as a dynamic process shaped by human expectations difficult choices and surprising circumstances The text engages students in learning about the past and emphasizes that each person has the power to make history to make America Each chapter opening Individual Choices feature provides a portrait of one individual and highlights how this person's decisions relate to an important issue raised in the chapter This feature dramatizes the theme that historical events are not inevitable but are the result of real people making real choices The chapter ending Individual Voices features present primary sources in an accessible way allowing students to explore them as a historian would A variety of sources are used including personal letters poems speeches political statements and newspaper articles Making History Matter Robert Dawidoff, 2000 This collection of Robert Dawidoff's essays and journalism is peopled by the likes of the Founding Fathers Fred Astaire Henry and William James Sophie Tucker Trent Lott and Cole Porter Drawing together this unlikely cast of characters Dawidoff probes into the role of outsider groups as well as intellectual and political elites in the formation of American culture As a scholar of intellectual and cultural history Dawidoff takes the stance that historians ought to take an active role in our democratic culture informing and participating in public discourse He argues for a broad reach when it comes to cultural expression resisting the polarization of formal intellectual history and folk or commercial popular culture In his view and in his book Ralph Waldo Emerson and Katharine Hepburn are equally worthy topics for a historian's consideration providing that they are treated with equal seriousness of purpose and analytic rigor In The Gay Nineties section that closes the book he traces key events in the continual struggle for gay and lesbian civil rights and takes on such unresolved issues as safer sex needle exchange programs to control HIV transmission and the public controversy around the portrayal of gay and lesbian television characters Divided into sections that deal with the patriarchy of American political and intellectual culture expressive culture and a historian's public voice this book is a model of engaged and engaging writing Accessible and witty Making History Matter will appeal to general and academic readers interested in American history as well as gay and lesbian political and cultural issues Author note Robert Dawidoff is John D and Lillian Maguire Distinguished Chair and Professor of History at Claremont Graduate University He is most recently the author with Michael Nava of Created Equal Why Gay Rights Matter to America and The Genteel Tradition and the Sacred Rage High Culture V Democracy in Adams James and Santayana
