Making Of Modern Burma:

The Making of Modern Burma Thant Myint-U, Thant Myint-U., 2001-03-26 Burma has often been portrayed as a timeless place a country of egalitarian Buddhist villages ruled successively by autocratic kings British colonialists and most recently a military dictatorship The Making of Modern Burma argues instead that many aspects of Burmese society today from the borders of the state to the social structure of the countryside to the very notion of a Burmese identity are largely the creations of the nineteenth century a period of great change away from the Ava based polity of early modern times and towards the British Burma of the 1900s The book provides a sophisticated and much needed account of the period and as such will be an important resource for policy makers and students as a basis for understanding contemporary politics and the challenges of the modern state It will also be read by historians interested in the British colonial expansion of the nineteenth century Die mykenische Zeit und die Gesittung von Thera ,1976 Why Now? The Making of Modern Burma Aung Tun, 2013

Modern Buddhist Conjunctures in Myanmar Juliane Schober, 2010-11-30 For centuries Burmese have looked to the authority of their religious tradition Theravada Buddhism to negotiate social and political hierarchies Modern Buddhist Conjunctures in Myanmar examines those moments in the modern history of this Southeast Asian country when religion culture and politics converge to chart new directions Arguing against Max Weber's characterization of Buddhism as other worldly and divorced from politics this study shows that Buddhist practice necessitates public validation within an economy of merit in which moral action earns future rewards The intervention of colonial modernity in traditional Burmese Buddhist worldviews has created conjunctures at which public concerns critical to the nation's future are reinterpreted in light of a Buddhist paradigm of power Author Juliane Schober begins by focusing on the public role of Buddhist practice and the ways in which precolonial Buddhist hegemonies were negotiated Her discussion then traces the emergence of modern Buddhist communities through the colonial experience the disruption of traditional paradigms of hegemony and governance the introduction of new and secular venues to power modern concerns like nationalism education the public place of religion the power of the state and Buddhist resistance to the center The continuing discourse and cultural negotiation of these themes draw Buddhist communities into political arenas either to legitimate political power or to resist it on moral grounds The book concludes with an examination of the way in which Buddhist resistance in 2007 known in the West as the Saffron Revolution was subjugated by military secularism and the transnational pressures of a global economy A skillfully crafted work of scholarship Modern Buddhist Conjunctures in Myanmar will be welcomed by students of Theravada Buddhism and Burma Myanmar readers of anthropology history of religions politics and colonial studies of modern Southeast Asia and scholars of religious and political practice in modern national contexts Liberalism and Democracy in Myanmar Roman David, Ian Holliday, 2018-11-08 Historic Myanmar elections in November 2015 paved the way for an NLD government led by Aung San Suu Kyi to take office in March 2016 and saw the country deepen its graduated transition away from authoritarian rule Nevertheless military forces that for decades dominated national politics remain privileged in a constitutional framework designed to deliver discipline flourishing democracy In August 2017 the military intensified its campaign of ethnic cleansing of Myanmar's Rohingya Muslim minority and more than 750 000 refugees fled to neighbouring Bangladesh One critical question that now confronts the fifty million people of this Southeast Asian nation is whether their push for greater democracy is strong enough to prevail over the resistance of a powerful military machine and swelling undercurrents of intolerance What are the prospects for liberal democracy in Myanmar This book addresses this question by examining historical conditions constitutionalism popular support for democracy major political actors group relations and tolerance and transitional justice To probe the meaning and purchase of key concepts it presents a rich array of evidence including eighty eight in depth interviews and three waves of surveys and survey experiments conducted by the authors between 2014 and 2018 all of which are triangulated with constitutional and legal texts and reports issued locally and globally The analysis culminates in the concept of limited liberalism which reflects an at times puzzling blend of liberal and illiberal attitudes The book concludes that a weakening of liberal commitments among politicians and citizens alike allied with spreading limited liberal attitudes casts doubt on the prospects for liberal democracy in Myanmar Robert Hart and Sino-Foreign

Disputes in Qing China, 1863-1908 Yorgos Moraitis, 2025-07-17 This book investigates the role of Sir Robert Hart in China's early engagement with Western international law covering the period from Hart's earliest days as Inspector General of the foreign dominated Chinese Imperial Maritime Customs CIMC to his final years in China 1863 1908 Drawing on Hart's personal records particularly his diaries and correspondence with CIMC officials and various political figures as well as Customs Service official publications records of the British Foreign Office Chinese official papers newspapers and other contemporary publications the book focuses on Sino foreign jurisdictional disputes in which Hart was involved They are used as case studies to examine his role and more broadly that of the CIMC in influencing contemporary perceptions in the West about China's status vis vis Western nation states Going beyond portraying Hart as a mere broker the book delves into his complex and multi faceted character It examines his idiosyncratic approach to Qing engagement with the West particularly focusing on his proposals for dealing with international institutions While these proposals had the potential to strengthen China they sought to do so largely on Western terms ultimately undermining China's ability to function as an independent state By analysing Hart's character and his engagement with Western international law the author aims to provide a nuanced understanding of the complexities surrounding Qing China's interaction with the West It highlights the ambivalence exhibited by both Qing and Western officials emphasising the challenges and opportunities in negotiations based on Western legal principles Contributing to discussion on whether international structures could be utilised to bolster Qing sovereignty this book will provide insights for those researching Chinese history diplomatic history and international relations and international law An Introduction to World Politics Richard Oliver Collin, Pamela L. Martin, 2012-08-02 This book written for introductory level students of global politics examines the connections and conflicts among peoples on our planet and relates them in a personalized way While other world politics texts examine the globe from a distance this text emphasizes the voices of

Myanmar's 'Rohingya' Conflict Anthony Ware, Costas Laoutides, 2018 Offers new analysis of the complexities of the conflict and new insights into what is preventing a peaceful resolution to this intractable

Martin Luther's Theology of Two Kingdoms in Buddhist and Christian Communities Pa Yaw, 2024-05-29 Socially engaged religion teaches that people of faith have a responsibility to address and reduce suffering in all its forms both physical and spiritual including suffering resulting from social injustice exploitation oppression false faith and so forth True religion engages with society to alleviate suffering and bring transformation In other words religious violence is an obscenity a deviation from the true character of religion Martin Luther's Theology of Two Kingdoms in Buddhist and Christian Communities examines the principle of separation between religion and politics in the context of both Buddhist and Christian communities In predominantly Buddhist contexts such as Myanmar where a reciprocal relationship between religion and politics is expected separation is not effective Attempts by Christians to separate religion and politics cause the church to run away from tyranny and follow the state with blind obedience Martin Luther's model of two distinct but interconnected systems for religion and politics creates space for each institution to give constructive advice and criticism to the other for the health of all human beings

Ordering Violence Paul Staniland, 2021-12-15 In Ordering Violence Paul Staniland advances a broad approach to armed politics bringing together governments insurgents militias and armed political parties in a shared framework to argue that governments perception of the ideological threats posed by armed groups drive their responses and interactions Staniland combines a unique new dataset of state group armed orders in India Pakistan Burma Myanmar and Sri Lanka with detailed case studies from the region to explore when and how this model of threat perception provides insight into patterns of repression collusion and mutual neglect across nearly seven decades Instead of straightforwardly responding to the material or organizational power of armed groups Staniland finds regimes assess how a group's politics align with their own ideological projects Explaining for example why governments often use extreme repression against weak groups even while working with or tolerating more powerful armed actors Ordering Violence provides a comprehensive overview of South Asia's complex armed politics embedded within an analytical framework that can also speak broadly beyond the subcontinent

Communities, Institutions and Histories of India's Northeast Charisma K. Lepcha, Uttam Lal, 2021-11-09 People from India's Northeast have crafted distinct as well as diverse cultural cryptograms discernments and personality which is frequently at loggerheads with the power politics from outside the region Thus attention is often on the societies of the Northeast India as they putter with transforming institutions and more intensive resource consumption in the wake of modernization and development activities This volume is an examination into questions of who exercises control who constructs knowledge ideas about the region and how far such discourses are people centric It inspects how India's Northeast have been understood in colonial and post colonial contexts through the contributions from research scholars and faculties from different academic spaces. These contributions are both from within the region as well as from neighbourhood. Thus presenting a cross dimensional gaze on social political economic as well as issues related to space relation. InterAsian Intimacies Across Race, Religion, and Colonialism Chie Ikeya, 2024-09-15

In InterAsian Intimacies across Race, Religion and Colonialism Chie Ikeya asks how interAsian marriage conversion and collaboration in Burma under British colonial rule became the subject of political agitation legislative activism and collective violence. Over the course of the twentieth century relations between Burmese Muslims Sino-Burmese Indo-Burmese and other mixed families and communities became flashpoints for far reaching legal reforms and Buddhist revivalist feminist and nationalist campaigns aimed at consigning minority Asians to subordinate status and regulating women's conjugal and reproductive choices. Out of these efforts emerged understandings of religion race and nation that continue to vex Burma and its neighbors today. Combining multilingual archival research with family history and intergenerational storytelling Ikeya highlights how the people targeted by such movements made and remade their lives under the shifting circumstances of colonialism capitalism and nationalism. The book illuminates a history of belonging across boundaries a history that has been overshadowed by Eurocentric narratives about the mixing of white colonial masters and native mistresses. InterAsian intimacy was and remains foundational to modern regimes of knowledge power and desire throughout Asia.

Rohingyas and the Geographies of Precarity in Exile Anas Ansar, 2025-09-13

Focusing on Myanmar's Rohingya refugees in Bangladesh and Malaysia this study provides an in depth analysis of the contribution of historical legacies of exclusion along with contemporary practices of marginalisation and otherisation to the transcendence of the precarity landscape. In light of the 2017 displacement of over a million Rohingya from Myanmar's Rakhine state to neighbouring Bangladesh the book offers a nuanced and empirically driven analysis of precarity across a wide spectrum at discrete and overlapping scales shaped by statelessness vulnerability uncertainty onward migration and everyday practices of exclusion. Bringing together the diverse manifestation along the lines of identity status space mobility gender and labour

the study proposes a comprehensive understanding of precarity conceptualised as the interconnected geographies of precarity Elucidating the intricate web of structural constraints that predate in Myanmar and are continually reconstructed and actualised in exile the book examines the continuum of precarity in extended transnational spaces a phenomenon that is complex non linear transitional and multi faceted

The Postcolonial Moment in South and Southeast Asia Gyan Prakash, Nikhil Menon, Michael Laffan, 2018-02-22 By exploring themes of fragility mobility and turmoil anxieties and agency and pedagogy this book shows how colonialism shaped postcolonial projects in South and Southeast Asia including India Pakistan Burma and Indonesia Its chapters unearth the contingency and contention that accompanied the establishment of nation states and their claim to be decolonized heirs The book places key postcolonial moments a struggle for citizenship anxious constitution making mass education and land reform against the aftermath of the Second World War and within a global framework relating them to the global transformation in political geography from empire to nation The chapters analyse how futures and ideals envisioned by anticolonial activists were made reality whilst others were discarded Drawing on the expertise of eminent contributors The Postcolonial Moment in South and Southeast Asia represents the most ground breaking research on the region

Corruption, Empire and Colonialism in the Modern Era Ronald Kroeze, Pol Dalmau, Frédéric Monier, 2021-06-15 Answering the calls made to overcome methodological nationalism this volume is the first examination of the links between corruption and imperial rule in the modern world It does so through a set of original studies that examine the multi layered nature of corruption in four different empires Great Britain Spain the Netherlands and France and their possessions in Asia the Caribbean Latin America and Africa It offers a key read for scholars interested in the fields of corruption colonialism empire and global history The chapters Introduction Corruption Empire and Colonialism in the Modern Era Towards a Global Perspective Corrupt and rapacious Colonial Spanish American past through the eyes of early nineteenth century contemporaries A contribution from the history of emotions and Colonial Normativity Corruption in the Dutch Indonesian Relationship in the Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Centuries are Open Access under a CC BY 4.0 license at link.springer.com

Ghosts of Empire Kwasi Kwarteng, 2012-02-07 Kwasi Kwarteng is the child of parents whose lives were shaped as subjects of the British Empire first in their native Ghana then as British immigrants He brings a unique perspective and impeccable academic credentials to a narrative history of the British Empire one that avoids sweeping judgmental condemnation and instead sees the Empire for what it was a series of local fiefdoms administered in varying degrees of competence or brutality by a cast of characters as outsized and eccentric as anything conjured by Gilbert and Sullivan The truth as Kwarteng reveals is that there was no such thing as a model for imperial administration instead appointees were schooled in quirky independent minded individuality As a result the Empire was the product not of a grand idea but of often chaotic individual improvisation The idiosyncrasies of viceroys and soldier diplomats who ran the colonial enterprise continues to impact the world from Kashmir to Sudan Baghdad to Hong Kong

Southeast Asian Education in

Modern History Pia Jolliffe, Thomas Bruce, 2018-10-30 How particular has Southeast Asia's experience of educational development been and has this led to an identifiably distinct Southeast Asian approach to the provision of education Inquiry into these questions has significant consequences for our understanding of the current state of education in Southeast Asia and the challenges it has inherited This book contributes to a better understanding of the experience of educational development in Southeast Asia by presenting a collection of micro historical studies on the subject of education policy and practice in the region from the emergence of modern education to the end of the twentieth century The chapters fathom the extent to which contest over educational content in schools has occurred and establish the socio cultural political and economic bases upon which these contestations have taken place and the ways in which those forces have played out in the classrooms In doing so the book conveys a sense of the extent to which modern forms of education have been both facilitated and shaped by the region's specific configurations its unique demographic religious social environmental economic and political context Conversely they also provide examples of the sorts of obstacles that have prevented education making as full an impact on the region's recent modern transformation as might have been hoped or expected This book will be of interest to academics in the field of Southeast Asian Studies Asian Studies education nationalism and history Worlds of the ring Sabine Hanke, 2025-02-04 Worlds of the Ring is a groundbreaking exploration of the interwar European circus scene focusing on the German Sarrasani and British Bertram W Mills circuses This study illuminates the correlation between the circus's evolution and imperialism nationalism revealing how these enterprises shaped national identities for popular audiences Examining the years 1918-45 the book takes a transnational perspective uncovering the interplay of international and national forces that influenced the modern circus Through case studies it delves into the lives of individuals in the industry using diverse sources like newspapers legal documents and performer archives The book introduces the concept of Orientalism to analyse how circuses depicted foreign worlds and provides a fresh perspective on interwar popular culture globalising forces and the circus's ties to European imperialism in the early 20th century
