Kim, 2024-10-15 North Korea may be known as the world's most secluded society but it too has witnessed the rapid rise of new media technologies in the new millennium including the introduction of a 3G cell phone network in 2008 In 2009 there were only 70 000 cell phones in North Korea That number has grown tremendously in just over a decade with over 7 million registered as of 2022 This expansion took place amid extreme economic hardship and the ensuing possibilities of destabilization Against this social and political backdrop Millennial North Korea traces how the rapidly expanding media networks in North Korea impact their millennial generation especially their perspective on the outside world Suk Young Kim argues that millennials in North Korea play a crucial role in exposing the increasing tension between the state and its people between risktakers who dare to transgress strict social rules and compliant citizens accustomed to the state's centralized governance and between thriving entrepreneurs and those left out of the growing market economy Combining a close reading of North Korean state media with original interviews with defectors Kim explores how the tensions between millennial North Korea and North Korean millennials leads to a more nuanced understanding of a fractured and fragmented society that has been frequently perceived as an unchanging monolithic entity The Korean Neo-Confucianism of Yi

Leader Symbols and Personality Cult in North Korea Jae-Cheon Lim, 2015-03-24 The legitimacy of the North Korean state is based solely on the leaders personal legitimacy and is maintained by the indoctrination of people with leader symbols and the enactment of leadership cults in daily life It can thus be dubbed a leader state The frequency of leader symbols and the richness and scale of leader symbol making in North Korea are simply unrivalled Furthermore the personality cults of North Korean leaders are central to people s daily activity critically affecting their minds and emotions Both leader symbols and cult activities are profoundly entrenched in the institutions and daily life and if separated and cancelled the North Korean state would be transformed This book analyses North Korea as a leader state focusing on two elements leader symbols and cult activities It argues that these elements have been and continue to be the backbone of North Korea shaping North Korean culture To reveal the leader state character the book specifically examines North Korea s leadership cults its use of leader symbols in these cults and the nature of the symbolism involved How has the North Korean state developed the cult of the Kim Il Sung family How does the state use leader symbols to perpetuate this cult How has the state developed myths and rituals that sustain the cult in daily life What leader images has state propaganda manufactured How does the state s manipulation of leader symbols affect the symbolism that is assigned to the leader s actions In answering these questions this book sheds new light on the strength and resilience of the North Korean state and shows how it has been able to survive even the most difficult economic period of the mid 1990s Leader Symbols and Personality Cult in North Korea will be essential reading for students and scholars of North Korea Korean politics Asian politics political sociology and visual politics

Jesus of Korea Paul Hyoshin Kim, 2016-05-19 In 2010 nearly 30 percent of South Koreans a country with a Confucian tradition over 1000 years old identify as Christian the largest percentage of Christians in an Asian nation aside from the Philippines Korea also boasts of having the largest church in the world it also has the largest Presbyterian Methodist and Pentecostal churches in the world Its vibrant spirituality devout church life and missionary zeal are well known around the world its number of missionaries nearly 20 000 is second only to US churches How can we explain this religious revolution in modern Korea Many people look to the 1970s and 1980s to find the cause of the rapid growth of

Christianity in Korea But to understand the real story behind the growth of the Korean church we need to rediscover the story of the American missionary enterprises of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries There we will learn how the story of the American Christ came to Korea and gradually became a part of the Korean people s story After the missions he is no longer the American Christ but Jesus of Korea Confucianism and Korean Thoughts Chang-t'ae Kŭm,2000 The Founding of Catholic Tradition in Korea Chai-Shin Yu,2004 Catholicism in Korea has a history of two hundred years It has played a unique role in Korea with many of its initiatives originating from the laity rather than the clergy After prolonged cultural conflict the number of Catholics has grown to around 8% of the total population Yet there is a paucity of English language materials dealing with the faith in Korea This volume tries to fill the gap
