Making Of American Liberal Theology Idealism Realism And Modernity 1900 1950:

The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien, 2003-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought. The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism/atheism. It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry, its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience, its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life, and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people. Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E. Channing, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Horace Bushnell, Henry Ward Beecher, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, and Charles Briggs. Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions, its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom. The Bloomsbury

Encyclopedia of Philosophers in America John R. Shook, 2016-02-11 For scholars working on almost any aspect of American thought, The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia to Philosophers in America presents an indispensable reference work. Selecting over 700 figures from the Dictionary of Early American Philosophers and the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers, this condensed edition includes key contributors to philosophical thought. From 1600 to the present day, entries cover psychology, pedagogy, sociology, anthropology, education, theology, and political science before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy. Clear and accessible, each entry contains a short biography of the writer, an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas, a bibliography of writings, and suggestions for further reading. Featuring a new preface by the editor and a comprehensive introduction, The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia to Philosophers in America includes 30 new entries on twenty-first century thinkers including Martha Nussbaum and Patricia Churchland. With in-depth overviews of Waldo Emerson, Margaret Fuller, Noah Porter, Frederick Rauch, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Paine, and Thomas Jefferson, this is an invaluable one-stop research volume to understanding leading figures in American thought and the development of American intellectual history. Mysticism and the Inner Light in the Thought of Rufus Jones, Quaker Helen

Holt, 2021-11-01 Rufus Jones' promotion of mysticism and his novel formulation of the Inner Light, which saw God as an inherent part of human nature, were sweepingly influential within liberal Quakerism in the early 20th century and have had long-lasting effects on Quaker faith and practice. In spite of the importance of his ideas, however, they have received little critical attention. In Mysticism and the Inner Light, Helen Holt provides a systematic analysis of Jones' thought in historical context, showing how he attempted to synthesize his own experience with aspects of the psychology of William James, the idealism of Josiah Royce, and liberal Christianity. She finds that because Jones presented his ideas informally, he is sometimes misinterpreted, especially regarding his views on Christ and humanism. The book draws on Jones' extensive corpus and on unpublished/archived letters. Greening Philosophy of Religion Jea Sophia Oh, John Quiring, 2024-07-08 Greening

Philosophy of Religion Process Ecology and Ethics develops fruitful avenues for the theory and practice of greening philosophy of religion Collected with a pluralistic conception of both philosophy and religion the chapters in this volume address pressing and timely issues that involve imagining ecological democracy as an ideal horizon for facing climate catastrophe with a radical hope and sober vision for realizing a more sustainable planetary economy that places a high value on food sovereignty an ethic of trust and inter religious conversations Edited by Jea Sophia Oh and John Quiring this book offers a vital contribution to the fields of philosophy of religion environmental ethics religion and ecology comparative philosophy and ecotheology all tuned to the note of process thinking and a deep ecological sensibility Encyclopedia of Protestantism Hans J. Scientific and Political Freedom in Islam Uriya Shavit,2017-02-24 The modernist apologetic approach to the relation between revelation and science and politics has been a central part of Arab discourses on the future of Muslim societies for over a century This approach introduced historical and theological narratives and interpretative mechanisms that contextualize reason and freedom in Islamic terms to argue that unlike with Christianity it is possible for Muslim societies to be technologically and politically advanced without forfeiting revelation as an all encompassing legally binding guide Scientific and Political Freedom in Islam critically examines the coherence and consistency of modernist apologetic scholars This is done through a discussion of their general theorizing on reason and freedom which is then followed by discussions of their commentaries on specific scientific and political issues in light of their general theorizing Regarding the former the focus is Darwin s theory of evolution while the universality of the Biblical flood the heliocentric model the Big Bang model and Freudianism are also discussed Regarding the latter the focus is Islam s desired structure of government and concept of participatory politics while individual freedoms are also discussed The book argues that the modernist apologetic approach has great potential to be a force for liberalization but also possesses inherent limitations that render its theory on the relation between revelation and freedom self contradictory Introducing a significant body of new information on the reasons for the failure of secularism and democracy and the attitudes towards Darwinism in the Arab world this book is a valuable resource for students and scholars of Islamic Studies comparative religion democracy studies and evolution studies Classical and Protestant Liberalism Daniel Dei,2021-05-25 Classical and Protestant Liberalism Similarities and Differences compares classical liberalism with Protestant liberalism The book discusses similarities and differences between the philosophical propositions of these two liberal strands The central argument is that Protestant liberalism has incorporated some key elements of classical liberalism to redefine essential elements of the Christian faith to appeal to the contemporary individual s sense Protestant liberal version of Christianity sharply deviates from conventional Christianity Classical liberal notions of natural rights social contract individualism pluralism secularization and utilitarian perspective on ethics sustain this version of Christianity Protestant liberals present essential aspects of Christianity to contemporary individuals through these classical liberal existential views Protestant liberal views on the immanence of God anthropocentrism Jesus as an ethical example evolutionary view of the Bible philosophical optimism salvation the church as an instrument of social progress the kingdom of God religious authority continuity modernism and reduction of Christianity to its unchanging essence reveal classical liberal influences The ^AWorld Come of Age Lilian Calles Barger,2018-07-02 A trans American cultural history of ideas of how in the 1960s and 70s the first generation of liberation theologians conceptualize a radical political theology Representing those marginalized by modern politics and religion due to race class or sex status liberationists redefined the theo political space and set the stage for new expressions of religious activism America's Religions Peter W.

The Fathers Refounded Elizabeth A. Clark,2019-02-01 In the early twentieth century a new generation of liberal professors sought to prove Christianity s compatibility with contemporary currents in the study of philosophy science history and democracy These modernizing professors Arthur Cushman McGiffert at Union Theological Seminary George LaPiana at Harvard Divinity School and Shirley Jackson Case at the University of Chicago Divinity School hoped to equip their students with a revisionary version of early Christianity that was embedded in its social historical and intellectual settings In The Fathers Refounded Elizabeth A Clark provides the first critical analysis of these figures lives scholarship and lasting contributions to the study of Christianity The Fathers Refounded continues the exploration of Christian intellectual revision begun by Clark in Founding the Fathers Early Church History and Protestant Professors in Nineteenth Century America. Drawing on rigorous archival research Clark takes the reader through the professors published writings their institutions and even their classrooms where McGiffert tailored nineteenth century German Protestant theology to his modernist philosophies where LaPiana the first Catholic professor at Harvard Divinity School devised his modernism against the tight constraints of contemporary Catholic theology and where Case promoted reading Christianity through social scientific aims and methods. Each in his own way extricated his subfield from denominationally and theologically oriented approaches and aligned it with secular historical methodologies. In so doing this generation of scholars fundamentally altered the directions of Catholic Modernism and Protestant Liberalism and offered the promise of reconciling Christianity and modern intellectual and social culture.

History of Universities Mordechai Feingold, 2006-05-11 This volume contains the customary mix of learned articles book reviews conference reports and bibliographical information which makes this publication useful for the historian of higher education. Its contributions range widely geographically chronologically and in subject matter.

Toward a Womanist Ethic of Incarnation Eboni Marshall Turman, 2013-12-18 The Black Church is an institution that emerged in rebellion against injustice perpetrated upon black bodies. How is it then that black women's oppression persists in black churches? This book engages the Chalcedonian Definition as the starting point for exploring the body as a moral dilemma.

A Theology for the Twenty-First Century Douglas F. Ottati, 2020-10-15 Christianity in the United States is in crisis. Liberalism is declining evangelicalism is splintering increasing numbers of Christians are slipping away from churches and more and more young people are for various reasons finding Christianity as they conceive it a metaphysical thought system or society of science deniers or an ideology for oppressors not just implausible but repellent. At the same time Christians across denominational and ideological divides are rediscovering a moral core especially in the Jesus of the Gospels that reactivates and unites them and this kind of faith appeals to many who consider themselves averse to all traditional organized religion. But any revitalized Christian faith is going to need to understand its rootedness in and interpretation of Christianity's foundational texts and traditions. Noted theologian Douglas F. Ottati steps in to offer a theology for this new era. Combining deep learning in texts and traditions with astute awareness of contemporary questions and patterns of thought and life he asks what does it mean in our time to understand the God of the Bible as Creator and Redeemer. Distilling the content of Christian faith into seventy concise propositions he explains each in lucid cogent prose. A Theology for the Twenty First Century will be an essential textbook for those training for ministry in our current climate a wise guide for contemporary believers who wonder how best to understand and communicate their faith and an inviting and intelligent resource for serious inquirers who wonder whether the way of Jesus might help them grasp the real world while remaining open to the transcendent.

Music for Others Nathan Myrick, 2021-03-12 This book offers a comprehensive account of what music does in church and directs this insight towards a theology of caring for others in just restorative ways. Author

Nathan Myrick connects dots between music ethics and theology and urges Christian leaders and communities to carefully consider the relational power of music when designing and attending religious gatherings Preaching the Manifold

Neville, 2006-06-05 This is the first volume of Robert Cumming Neville's magnum opus Theology as Symbolic Engagement Neville is the premier American systematic theologian of our time His work is profoundly influenced by Paul Tillich Friedrich Schleiermacher and the American pragmatists John Dewey and Charles Sanders Pierce From Tillich he takes the notion of religion art and morality as symbol and the notion that religion is the substance of culture and culture the form of religion Thus theology is symbolic engagement with cultural forms and Neville explores the ways that such engagement occurs among various religious traditions One of the most important tasks in theology is to devise ways of testing correcting or affirming claims that we had been unable to question before This book will argue that system in theology is not merely correlating assertions but rather building perspectives from which we can render the various parts of theology vulnerable for assessment In fact one of the unique features of this book is its engagement with other religions Such dialogue has been a feature of Neville's work from the beginning Theology as Symbolic Engagement breaks the boundaries of systematic theology and moves away from the static character that characterizes such enterprises from Barth onward Instead Neville's book showcases the dynamic character of all theology The hallmark of this entire project is its effort to show theology to be hypothetical and to make it vulnerable to correction The Routledge Companion to Modern Christian Thought Chad

Meister, James Beilby, 2013-10-28 This Companion provides an unrivalled view of the field of modern Christian thought from the Enlightenment to the twentieth century and beyond Written by an outstanding team of theologians and philosophers of religion it covers the following topics within Christian thought Key figures and influencers Central events and movements Major theological issues and key approaches to Christian Theology Recent topics and trends in Christian thought Each entry is clear and accessible making the book the ideal resource for students of Christian thought and history and philosophy of religion and a valuable reference for professional theologians and philosophers Benjamin Elijah Mays, Schoolmaster of
