Making Place Making Self Travel Subjectivity And Sexual Difference:

Making Place, Making Self Inger Birkeland, 2017-03-02 Making Place Making Self explores new understandings of place and place making in late modernity covering key themes of place and space tourism and mobility sexual difference and subjectivity Using a series of individual life stories it develops a fascinating polyvocal account of leisure and life journeys These stories focus on journeys made to the North Cape in Norway the most northern point of mainland Europe which is both a tourist destination and an evocation of a reliable and secure point of reference an idea that gives meaning to an individual's life The theoretical core of the book draws on an interweaving of post Lacanian versions of feminist psychoanalytical thinking with phenomenological and existential thinking where place making is linked with self making and homecoming By combining such ground breaking theory with her innovative use of case studies Inger Birkeland here provides a major contribution to the fields of cultural geography tourism and feminist studies Qualitative Methodologies in Tourism Studies Milka Ivanova, Dorina-Maria Buda, Elisa Burrai, 2022-09-05 Disruptive and creative research methodologies proposed in this book are designed to dismantle neoliberal narratives deployed in tourism studies and wider social sciences Progressing criticality in tourism studies this volume showcases cutting edge contributions ranging from reflexivity subjectivities and dreams to messy emotions in auto ethnographic accounts of fieldwork motherhood capital accessing Inuit communities collective memory work ethnodrama and creative non fiction amongst others Disruption and creativity are the two ideas around which tourism geographers challenge and begin dismantling hegemonic ideologies in tourism studies The chapters in this book provide a vantage point from where to disrupt first before tourism geographers can engender progress and transformation within and outside of the field In tourism studies in general and tourism geography in particular the years of the 2000s have witnessed an emphasis on qualitative methodological research both in terms of the topics addressed and the types of methodological tools In many ways this legitimisation of qualitative work mirrors developments in other areas such as human geography sociology and anthropology in which this book is anchored The authors debate in more depth how tourism studies offer multidimensional multilogical and multi emotional approaches to research design The chapters were originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Geographies Translating the Female Self across Cultures Eliana Maestri, 2018-01-15 Translating the Female Self across Cultures examines contemporary autobiographical narratives and their Italian and French translations The comparative analyses of the texts are underpinned by the latest developments in Translation Studies that place emphasis on identity construction in translation and the role of translation in moulding various types of identity They focus on how the writers textual personae make sense of their sexual artistic and post colonial identities in relation to the mother and how the mother daughter dyad survives translation into the Italian and French social political and cultural contexts The book shows how each target text activates different cultural literary linguistic and rhetorical frames of reference which cast light on the facets of the protagonists quest for identity the cult of the Madonna humour and irony gender and class mimesis and storytelling performativity and geographical sense of self The book highlights the fruitfulness of studying women's narratives and their translations and the polyphonic dialogue between the translations and the literary and theoretical productions of the French and Italian cultures Mobility and Place Jørgen Ole Bærenholdt, Brynhild Granås, 2016-04-15 The Northern peripheries of Europe which are covered by this book are associated with remoteness the frontier isolated communities colonialism and resource extraction Recently huge projects in petroleum and hydropower have been located there and the region has become better known as an attractive tourist destination Although these spaces are perceived as being marginal they are inhabited and linked into globalization and international agendas This book examines how people live in such remote spaces in an emerging global world of connectivity interdependency mobility and non linear dynamics The various case studies examine a wide range of experiences ranging from tourists and local settlers to those who migrate for labour in old or new industries or to pursue the hybrid urban rural life of the periphery In this book mobility and place come together The analyses demonstrate how mobility and place mutually constitute each other and how specific relationships between the two aspects are crucial in the making of societies The authors study attempts to reinvent places together with connections and the opening of new spaces in order to sustain businesses municipalities and people's livelihood Travel, Discovery, Transformation Gabriel R. Ricci, 2017-09-29 This latest volume in the Culture Civilization series gathers interdisciplinary voices to present a collection of essays on travel and travel narratives The essays span a range of topics from iconic ancient travel stories to modern tourism They discuss travel in the ancient world modern heroic travels the literary culture of missionary travel the intersection of fiction and travel narratives modern literary traditions and visions of Greece personal identity and expatriation Essays also address travel memoirs the reimagining of worlds through travel transformed landscapes and animals in travel narratives diplomacy English women travel writers and pilgrimage and health in the medieval world The history of travel writing takes in multiple pursuits exploration and conquest religious pilgrimage and missionary work educational tourism and diplomacy scientific and personal discovery and natural history and oral history As a literary genre it has enhanced a wide range of disciplines including geography ethnography anthropology and linguistics Moreover twenty first century interests in travel and travel writing have produced a global framework that promises to expand travel's theoretical reach into the depths of the Internet thus challenging our conventional concept of what it means to travel The fact that travel and travel writing have a prehistory that is embedded in foundational religious texts and ancient narratives of journey like the Odyssey and the Epic of Gilgamesh makes both travel and travel writing fundamental and essential expressions of humanity Travel encourages writing particularly as epistolary and poetic chronicling This is clearly a history and tradition that began with human communication and which has kept pace with our collective development Spatial Politics in the Postcolonial Novel Sara Upstone, 2016-04-01 In her innovative study of spatial locations in postcolonial texts Sara Upstone adopts a transnational and comparative approach that challenges the tendency to engage with authors in isolation or in relation to other writers from a single geographical setting Suggesting that isolating authors in terms of geography reinforces the primacy of the nation Upstone instead illuminates the power of spatial locales such as the journey city home and body to enable personal or communal statements of resistance against colonial prejudice and its neo colonial legacies While focusing on the major texts of Wilson Harris Toni Morrison and Salman Rushdie in relation to particular spatial locations Upstone offers a wide range of examples from other postcolonial authors including Michael Ondaatje Keri Hulme J M Coetzee Arundhati Roy Tsitsi Dangarembga and Abdulrazak Gurnah The result is a strong case for what Upstone terms the postcolonial spatial imagination independent of geography though always fully contextualised Written in accessible and unhurried prose Upstone s study is marked by its respect for the ways in which the writers themselves resist not only geographical boundaries but academic categorisation

Tourism and Geographies of Inequality Fabian Frenzel,Ko Koens,2016-02-08 Slum tourism is a controversial pastime on the rise globally This volume provides a collection of studies that shed light on the phenomenon from historical geographical sociological political and anthropological perspectives Based on unique and in depth research from across the globe the collection forms an indispensable resource for Scholars and Students of tourism and the geographies of inequality Connecting slum tourism to debates over the ethics and aesthetics of travel volunteering second homes and cross border mobilities the case studies provide ample ground for an understanding of slum tourism as transversal terrain in which the questions of global equity came to the fore This book was published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies

Envisioning Landscapes, Making Worlds Stephen Daniels,Dydia DeLyser,J. Nicholas Entrikin,Doug Richardson,2012-03-15 There has been a remarkable resurgence in the past decade of intellectual interplay between geography and the humanities in both academic and public circles Terminology and concepts such as space place landscape mapping and geography are becoming pervasive as conceptual frameworks and core metaphors in recent publications by humanities scholars and well known writers Envisioning Landscapes Making Worlds examines the depth and complexity of human meaning invested in maps attached to landscapes and embedded in the spaces and places of modern life The clashing and blending of cultures caused by globalization and the new technologies that profoundly alter human environmental experience suggest new geographical narratives and representations that are explored here by a multidisciplinary group of authors With contributions from leading scholars this text is essential reading for scholars and students seeking to understand the new synergies and interconnectedness of geography and the humanities theory in and the nature of Nordic geography From both historical and contemporary perspectives the book engages with theorisations of geography in the Nordic countries Including chapters by geographers from Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden it reflects how theories about the relations between the social and the spatial have been developed adopted and critiqued in Nordic human geography in relation to a wide range of themes concepts and approaches The book also traces institutional developments distinct geographical traditions and intellectual histories as well as authors own experiences as geographers in and beyond the Nordic area The chapters together introduce and engage with debates and discussions that permeate Nordic geography and allows readers a glimpse of geographical thinking and the role of socio spatial theory in the Nordic countries By providing insights into how geographical ideas emerge travel and are translated and adapted in specific contexts the book contributes to debates about historical geographical situatedness and theorisations of geography

Metamorphoses of Travel Writing Grzegorz Moroz, 2010-02-19 This book reflects comments on and adds to a fast growing field of travel writing studies The twenty five papers in this volume rely on a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches and explore a diverse body of travel writing texts created over the last three hundred years in English Polish Hungarian and French The book is divided into three parts The first one includes papers which apply the findings of post structuralism generic and cultural criticism as well as narratology to explore theories canons and genres in travel writing drawing material not only from non fictional and fictional prose narratives but also from poetry and tragedy The second and third parts contain papers on a wide selection of travel writing texts both fictional and non fictional written in Anglophone as well as other literary traditions They are arranged chronologically the second part is devoted to texts written in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries while the third part focuses on those written in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Transnational Perspectives on Feminism and Art, 1960-1985 Jen Kennedy, Trista Mallory, Angélique Szymanek, 2021-04-28 Transnational Perspectives on Feminism and Art 1960 1985 is a collection of essential essays that bring transnational feminist praxis into conversation with histories of feminist art in the 1960s 1970s and early 1980s The artistic practices and processes examined within these pages all centre on gender and sexual politics as they variously intersect with race class sovereignty Indigeneity citizenship and migration at particular historical moments and within specific geopolitical contexts The book s central premise is that reconsidering this period from transnational feminist perspectives will enable new thinking about the critical commonalities and differences across heterogeneous and geographically dispersed practices that have contributed to the complex and multifaceted relationship between feminism and art today The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history cultural studies visual culture material culture and gender studies Sociology of Tourism Graham Dann, Giulio Liebman Parrinello, 2009-12-04 There is abundant evidence of the quasi total domination of the sociology and anthropology of tourism by academics from the English speaking world This title familiarises readers in the US UK Australia and the English speaking regions of Africa and Asia with such evolutionary thinking Intercultural

Horizons Volume IV Lavinia Bracci, Nevin C. Brown, Eliza J. Nash, 2016-12-14 This volume originates from the fourth and fifth Intercultural Horizons conferences held in New York and Sardinia respectively It reflects a diverse array of research case studies and theoretical reflections on intercultural studies civic engagement and varied perspectives on migration issues in the Mediterranean region The book will be of interest to a broad audience both within and beyond academia including researchers of intercultural education and communication service learning and related issues college and university administrators responsible for intercultural and service learning initiatives and students enrolled in intercultural and service learning courses The papers within will also be useful to persons who serve as intercultural mediators including trainers and coaches involved in intercultural studies in business and other non academic settings Momentous Mobilities Noel B. Salazar, 2018-07-20 Grounded in scholarly analysis and personal reflection and drawing on a multi sided and multi method research design Momentous Mobilities disentangles the meanings attached to temporary travels and stays abroad and offers empirical evidence as well as novel theoretical arguments to develop an anthropology of mobility Both focusing specifically on how various societies and cultures imagine and value boundary crossing mobilities elsewhere and drawing heavily on his own European lifeworld the author examines momentous travels abroad in the context of education work and spiritual quests and the search for a better quality of life Disruptive Tourism and its Untidy Guests S. Veijola, J. Germann Molz, Olli Pyyhtinen, E. Hockert, Alexander Grit, Jennie Germann Molz, Emily Höckert, 2014-09-30 This book invokes the radical potentialities of untidiness to envision alternative arrangements of social life and hospitality Instead of trying to manage sustainability or tidy up tourist situations the authors embrace the messiness of human relations and argue for more creative embodied and ethical ontologies of tourism and mobility International Encyclopedia of Human Geography, 2009-07-16 The International Encyclopedia of Human Geography provides an authoritative and comprehensive source of information on the discipline of human geography and its constituent and related subject areas The encyclopedia includes over 1 000 detailed entries on philosophy and theory key concepts methods and practices biographies of notable geographers and geographical thought and praxis in different parts of the world This groundbreaking project covers every field of human geography and the discipline s relationships to other disciplines and is global in scope involving an international set of contributors Given its broad inclusive scope and unique online accessibility it is anticipated that the International Encyclopedia of Human Geography will become the major reference work for the discipline over the coming decades The Encyclopedia will be available in both limited edition print and online via ScienceDirect featuring extensive browsing searching and internal cross referencing between articles in the work plus dynamic linking to journal articles and abstract databases making navigation flexible and easy For more information pricing options and availability visit http://info.sciencedirect.com/content/books/ref_works coming Available online on ScienceDirect and in limited edition print format Broad interdisciplinary coverage across human geography Philosophy Methods People Social Cultural Political Economic Development Health Cartography Urban Historical Regional Comprehensive and unique the first of its kind in human geography Secularization in Contemporary Religious Radicalism Corneliu Simut, 2019-05-21 The concept of secularization has grown to become one of the most important features of contemporary religious thought This book introduces and examines the thinking of sixteen key theologians philosophers and historians of religion to explain a why by the late nineteenth century the traditional concept of God as an ontologically real being came to be considered no longer necessary and b how the new perspective on God which accepts him only as an idea turned into the preferred approach of today s religion and philosophy namely religious radicalism
