New Dimensions Of Confucian And Neo Confucian Philosophy:

New Dimensions of Confucian and Neo-Confucian Philosophy Chung-ying Cheng, 1991-03-26 This is the first book to thoroughly explore Confucian and Neo Confucian metaphysics and ethics building upon the creativity and temporality of human existence and human nature as well as their extension into human culture Fundamental essays deal cogently with the relationship between Chinese language and Chinese philosophy offering general categories which shape the matrix of ideas woven in Chinese philosophy from its very beginnings Along with more general characterizations there are themes placing Confucian thinkers in touch with modern communication theories perceptions of individuals religious themes and scientific worldviews Conceptual and comparative essays probe the frontiers of Chinese philosophy in its contemporary Confucian revival

The Philosophy of Change Chung-ying Cheng, 2023-08-01 In The Philosophy of Change the distinguished scholar of Chinese philosophy Chung ying Cheng advances our understanding of the Yijing by analyzing its philosophy in comparison to Western philosophical traditions Cheng focuses on critically comparing philosophies of science religion and metaphysics in Leibniz Whitehead Neville and Cobb alongside classical Chinese views on reality divinity knowledge and morality The book begins and ends with questions related to the character of Chinese metaphysical traditions which contrast with the mainline metaphysical traditions found in Western Europe and North America Cheng argues throughout the book that the philosophical underpinnings of basic concepts in Chinese culture are ultimately rooted in key claims found within the Yijing and one of its standard commentaries the Yizhuan The book serves as a complementary volume to the author s previous book The Primary Way Philosophy of the Yijing which lays out a comprehensive and systematic philosophy based on the symbolism and text of the classical document and its traditional commentaries

Transformations Of The Confucian Way John Berthrong, 2018-10-08 From its beginnings Confucianism has vibrantly taught that each person is able to find the Way individually in service to the community and the world John Berthrong s comprehensive new work tells the story of the grand intellectual development of the Confucian tradition revealing all the historical phases of Confucianism and opening the reader s eyes to the often neglected gifts of scholars of the Han T ang and the modern periods as well as to the vast contributions of Korea and Japan The author concludes his revelatory study with an examination of the contemporary renewal of the Confucian Way in East Asia and its spread to the West

'Justification by Grace Alone' Facing Confucian Self-Cultivation Arne Redse, 2015-09-29 Chinese contexts as influenced by the religious moral philosophy of New Confucianism are characterized by the idea of becoming a sage through self cultivation For Christian theology with its emphasis on God s grace rather than on self cultivation Confucian teaching in this matter may appear as a problem Chinese Christian theology may ask How can the Christian doctrine of justification by grace alone be contextualized in Chinese contexts which are characterized by the contradicting idea of self cultivation Another question may be equally interesting for Christian theology in all contexts Which insights can be attained from an attempt at contextualizing the Christian doctrine of justification to contexts influenced by New Confucianism In this book professor Arne Redse contributes to answering these questions Transmitting the Ideal of Enlightenment Ricardo K.S. Mak,2009-08-04 Transmitting the Ideal of Enlightenment is a collection of articles that shed light on different aspects of university education in China since the late nineteenth century and address how far the ideal of modern university education which has gradually been developed in the West since the age of European Enlightenment was adopted or creatively transformed by Chinese universities In addition to examining the influence of Western universities visions curricula institutions and experiences on Chinese higher education this volume attempts to show the degree of success achieved by Chinese universities in delivering the goals of personal emancipation broad based education freedom of teaching and learning academic professionalism etc that their Western counterparts had endeavored to attain in the last centuries The Primary Way Chung-ying Cheng,2020-09-01 In The Primary Way the distinguished scholar of Chinese philosophy Chung ying Cheng synthesizes his lifetime of work on the Yijing also known as the I Ching or Book of Changes Cheng offers a systematic engagement with the classic Chinese text as a philosophy that is still valuable and relevant today In contemporary philosophical terms Cheng has developed the ontological hermeneutics of the Yijing as well as its philosophical methodology of symbolic reference in a holistic and onto generative system of trigrams and hexagrams The book is organized around eight themes that illuminate Cheng s interpretation of the Yijing as a philosophy for creative human action and transformation He demonstrates how the philosophy of change in the Yijing embodies early Chinese ontology cosmology epistemology and virtue ethics in the interpretation of divinatory judgments Cheng s work shows how the philosophy of change contains a vision of humanity as creatively related to heaven and earth and how it gives positive meaning to any change as part of a ceaseless creativity With this understanding it enables humanity to develop its potential as a partner of heaven and earth The Vulnerability of Integrity in Early Confucian Thought Michael Ing,2017-07-06 This book is about the necessity and even value of vulnerability in human experience In it Michael Ing brings early Chinese texts into dialogue with questions about the ways in which meaningful things are vulnerable to powers beyond our control and more specifically how relationships with meaningful others might compel tragic actions

Deconstruction and the Ethical in Asian Thought Youru Wang,2007-03-06 The striking parallels between Derrida s deconstruction and certain strategies eschewing oppositional hierarchies in Asian thought especially in Buddhism and Daoism have attracted much attention from scholars of both Western and Asian philosophy This book contributes to this discussion by focusing on the ethical dimension and function of deconstruction in Asian thought Examining different traditions and schools of Asian thought including Indian Buddhism Zen other schools of East Asian Buddhism the Kyoto School and Daoism the contributors explore the central theme from different contexts and different angles Insights and notions from the contemporary discussion of Derridean deconstruction and its ethic or Derridean Levinasian ethic as a paradigm for comparison or interpretation are used as a framework Furthering our understanding of the relationship between deconstruction and the ethical in Asian traditions this book also enriches the contemporary ethical discourse from a global perspective by bridging Asia and the West Confucian Constitutionalism in East Asia Bui Ngoc Son,2016-02-12

Western liberal constitutionalism has expanded recently with in East Asia the constitutional systems of Japan South Korea and Taiwan based on Western principles and with even the socialist polities of China and Vietnam having some regard to such principles Despite the alleged universal applicability of Western constitutionalism however the success of any constitutional system depends in part on the cultural values customs and traditions of the country into which the constitutional system is planted This book explains how the values customs and traditions of East Asian countries are Confucian and discusses how this is relevant to constitutional practice in the region The book outlines how constitutionalism has developed in East Asia over a long period considers different scholarly work on the ease or difficulty of integrating Western constitutionalism into countries with a Confucian outlook and examines the prospects for such integration going forward Throughout the book covers detailed aspects of Confucianism and the workings of constitutions in practice The Handbook of Global Interventions in Communication Theory Yoshitaka Miike,Jing Yin,2022-03-10 Moving beyond the U S Eurocentric paradigm of communication theory this handbook broadens the intellectual horizons of the discipline by highlighting underrepresented especially non Western theorists and theories and identifies key issues and challenges for future scholarship Showcasing diverse perspectives the handbook facilitates active engagement in different cultural traditions and theoretical orientations that are global in scope but local in effect It begins by exploring past efforts to diversify the field continuing on to examine theoretical concepts models and principles rooted in local cumulative wisdom It does not limit itself to the mass interpersonal communication divide but rather seeks to frame theory as global and inclusive in scope The book is intended for communication researchers and advanced students with relevance to scholars with an interest in theory within information science library science social and cross cultural psychology multicultural education social justice and social ethics international relations development studies and political science The Metaphysics of

Kindness Asher Walden,2015-03-06 Religious world views reserve a central and prominent place for human moral action yet they must also contend with the reality of human moral failings Is it possible to anchor moral knowledge and practice in the framework of a moral universe If so how do you explain why things go wrong Must the religions appeal to faith alone or can they develop a rational framework for their moral visions The Metaphysics of Kindness Comparative Studies in Religious Meta ethics explores the attempted solutions of four pivotal philosophers from very different traditions the Neo Confucian Zhu Xi the German Idealist Arthur Schopenhauer the Mahayana Buddhist Santideva and the progenitor of the Kyoto School Nishida Kitaro Each position is investigated sympathetically and independently yet there is an underlying commonality weaving the different studies together compassion Each philosopher treats compassion not only as one virtue among others but as a kind of meta virtue the one that is in some respect the logical and or psychological basis for all the other virtues It is also a trait that is both at the heart of human nature and also somehow at the heart of nature itself Inter-culturality and Philosophic Discourse Yolaine Escande,Chenyang Li,Vincent Shen,2014-07-24 Responding to a deep and universal need of philosophizing in the context of intensive intercultural interaction among all philosophical traditions in the process of globalization this timely book offers a unique collection of excellent papers on inter translatability art and ethics subjects which are most crucial for intercultural conversations today Instead of opting for a comparative philosophy that suggests the superiority of philosophy in comparison with other forms of thought this book explores inter translatability between East and West given that any dialogue between heterogeneous cultures and systems of thought has to start with translation which constitutes the first part of this book Art and ethics are the two areas that most obviously link philosophies of the past and the present and constitute a fundamental part of Chinese long living and practical philosophy The value of art and aesthetic appreciation no less than ethics is at the core of Chinese culture and indeed promises a great deal for the future world Thus they are dealt with here in the second and third parts This book is also relevant to inter culturalism in philosophy itself as the contributors firstly come from several different continents and secondly though most of them are philosophers all contributors are well versed in other disciplines such as anthropology literature religion aesthetics history of art sinology cognitive sciences and social sciences Cross-Textual Reading of Ecclesiastes with the Analects Elaine Wei-Fun Goh,2019-10-03 Various cross textual readings have been attempted between the Christian Bible and Chinese literature Using cross textual hermeneutics this study centers on the political wisdom of Ecclesiastes and the Analects and its goal is to demonstrate that both texts offer wisdom pointers for human survival amid uncertain sociopolitical realities Chapter 1 introduces the vibrant interaction of biblical wisdom literature within the ancient Near East and highlights some of its political connections The openness of wisdom literature is then proposed to support this present effort of cross textual research Chapter 2 offers readings of eight passages that communicate Qoheleth s political wisdom in Ecclesiastes Chapter 3 centers on the Analects and on some notable passages that relate to Confucius political ideas Chapter 4 seeks to demonstrate the dialogical dynamics between the two works by exploring specific hermeneutical connections In conclusion readers will come to understand the distinctive and collective political insights of both wisdom texts That is this study suggests contextualized ideas for living wisely from within both a faith tradition and a native tradition Cross-Cultural Reflections on Chinese Aesthetics, Gender, Embodiment and Learning Eva Kit Wah Man,2020-01-29 This book gathers research and writings that reflect on traditional and current global issues related to art and aesthetics gender perspectives body theories knowledge and learning It illustrates these core dimensions which are bringing together philosophy tradition and cultural studies and laying the groundwork for comparative research and dialogues between aesthetics Chinese philosophies Western feminist studies and cross cultural thought Pursuing an interdisciplinary approach the book also integrates philosophical enquiries with cultural anthropology and contextual studies As implied in the title the main methodologies are cross cultural and comparative studies which touch on performances in art and aesthetics social existence and education and show that philosophical enquiries aesthetical representation and gender politics are simultaneously historical living and contextual The book gathers a wealth of cross cultural reflections on philosophical aesthetics gender existence and cultural traditions The critical thinking within will benefit undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in the area of comparative philosophies It blends academic rigor with personal reflection which is a critical practice in feminist philosophy itself World Philosophies Ninian Smart,1999 World Philosophies is a comprehensive survey of the world's philosophical and religious traditions by one of our foremost religious thinkers Ninian Smart discusses notable figures such as Plato and Kierkegaard in the West the Buddha and Mao Zedong in Asia Tempels and Knibanga in Africa and Rodo and Royce in America Covering a wide range of topics including Indian ideas of testimony and evidence Chinese notions of moral development Buddhist concepts of cosmology and Latin American critiques of materialism Smart sheds new light on the astonishing diversity of philosophies that have developed throughout history

The Religious Thought of Chu Hsi Julia Ching,2000-08-24 Recognized as one of the greatest philosophers in classical China Chu Hsi 1130-1200 is known in the West primarily through translations of one of his many works the Chin ssu Lu In this book Julia Ching offers the first book length examination of Chu Hsi's religious thought based on extensive reading of both primary and secondary sources Ching begins by providing an introduction to Chu's twelfth century intellectual context She then examines Chu's natural philosophy looking in particular at the ideas of the Great Ultimate and at spirits and deities and the rituals that honor them Next Ching considers Chu's interpretation of human nature and the emotions highlighting the mystical thrust of the theoretical and practical teachings of spiritual cultivation and meditation She discusses Chu's philosophical disputes with his contemporaries in particular Lu Chiu yuan and examines his relationship to Buddhism and Taoism In the final chapters Ching looks at critiques of Chu during his lifetime and after and evaluates the relevance of his thinking in terms of contemporary needs and problems This clearly written and highly accessible study also offers translations of some of Chu's most important philosophical poems filling a major gap in the fields of both Chinese philosophy and religion

Doing Philosophy Comparatively Tim Connolly,2022-12-29 What standards should we use to evaluate culturally distinct philosophies What kind of barrier does language or cultural difference pose in our attempts to understand other traditions How do we avoid our comparisons being biased Doing Philosophy Comparatively answers these questions by providing a thorough overview of the methodology involved in extending philosophy across linguistic and cultural boundaries Now revised and updated to showcase the most recent developments in the field this second edition engages with philosophies beyond the Anglo-European tradition and features Examples of cross cultural philosophy from a wider range of non-Western traditions Methodological innovations from works of comparative philosophy published in the last decade Focused exercises for each chapter demonstrating how to interact meaningfully with primary texts and engage with recent debates in comparative philosophy Updated discussion questions and readings Introducing the main problems methods and approaches of comparative philosophy this new edition shows you how to make informed cross cultural judgments through reflection and practice It remains an essential toolkit for the practice of doing comparative philosophy

Reshaping Confucianism Chenyang Li, 2024 As a living and evolving tradition Confucianism has been continuously defined and redefined in response to the changing political and social context of China's history Extending this effort in reconstructing Confucianism philosopher Chenyang Li critically analyzes and develops a series of core ideas that originated from classic Confucian texts and does so in the context of contemporary scholarly discourse These core ideas include he dynamic harmony ren care centered virtue li ritual propriety xiao filial care bie gender equilibrium you friendship shou longevity sheng sagehood ziyou freedom ping equality zheng politics and jiao civic education Li combines in depth analysis of historical teachings with systematic deliberation on their contemporary significance reflecting the current state of the field of research Each chapter shows how seminal ideas in Confucianism were conceived and developed by ancient thinkers and how these ideas can be reconstructed and aligned in a sensible Confucian philosophy that responds to contemporary challenges Over the course of its survey of Confucian philosophy the book raises and investigates fundamental questions How central is harmony as a Confucian value Can Confucian sages be wrong Is Xunzi's philosophy of filial care more progressive than Confucius and hence more suitable in contemporary society What is the best form of Confucian gender equality today Is the model of politics without politicians a viable way for realizing the Confucian political ideal of the good society Study questions are provided for each chapter to assist students to comprehend key points and develop their own views

Confucianism and Christianity Xinzhong Yao, 1996-06-01 This volume details the inherent problems in the search for effective ways to enable different religious systems to co exist peacefully in mutual complementarity This has emerged as a necessary condition for economic development social progress human prosperity and even survival
