Ordinary Women Extraordinary Strength:

Ordinary Women Extraordinary Strength Barbara Cook, 1993 Ordinary Women, Extraordinary Lives Kriste Lindenmeyer, 2000-06 This collection of seventeen minibiographies sheds light on the often neglected herstory of U S history from the revolutionary era through the late twentieth century In addition this volume suggests the complexity of studying the past when gender race class region age and ethnicity are included in the analysis This book is unique in that it focuses on the lives of ordinary women The names of the vast majority of those whose stories are included here will likely be unfamiliar even to serious students of American women s history The varied experiences of such women help to create a more complete picture of the past by revealing the influence general historical trends have had on the lives of ordinary individuals But ordinary does not mean lesser nor does it denote class race ethnicity or age The individual women s stories that are told in the following pages show that even people who are not featured in mainstream history texts led lives that deserve the attention of those interested in understanding the past The authors of these chapters have found support for generalizations commonly held by American women s historians Nonetheless their research has also led to unexpected findings that ask students of women s history to examine assumptions about the past more closely Hong Kong Screenscapes Esther M. K. Cheung, Gina Marchetti, See-Kam Tan, 2010-11-01 Global connections and screen innovations converge in Hong Kong cinema Energized by transnational images and human flows from China and Asia Hong Kong s commercial filmmakers and independent pioneers have actively challenged established genres and narrative conventions to create a cultural space independent of Hollywood The circulation of Hong Kong films through art house and film festival circuits as well as independent DVDs and galleries and internet sites reveals many differences within global cultural distributions as well as distinctive tensions between experimental media artists and traditional screen architects Coving the contributions of Hong Kong New Wave directors such as Wong Karwai Stanley Kwan Ann Hui Patrick Tam and Tsui Hark the volume links their spirit of innovation to work by independent experimental and documentary filmmakers including Fruit Chan Tammy Cheung Evans Chan Yau Ching and digital artist Isaac Leung Within an interdisciplinary frame that highlights issues of political marginalization censorship sexual orientation gender hierarchies flexible citizenship and local global identities this book speaks to scholars and students within as well as beyond the field of Hong Kong cinema Esther M K Cheung is chair of the Department of Comparative Literature and director of the Center for the Study of Globalization and Cultures CSGC at the University of Hong Kong Gina Marchetti teaches in the Department of Comparative Literature at the University of Hong Kong Tan See Kam presently works and researches at the University of Macau Evangelical Christian Women Julie Ingersoll, 2003-12 Evangelical Christian Women draws on two years of ethnographic research nationwide to shed new light on the gender conflict faced by women in evangelical Christianity Women Writers of Yiddish Literature Rosemary Horowitz, 2015-10-14 Taking stock of Yiddish literature in 1939 critic Shmuel Niger highlighted the increasing number and importance of women writers However awareness of women Yiddish writers diminished over the years Today a modest body of novels short stories poems and essays by Yiddish women may be found in English translation online and in print and little in the way of literary history and criticism is available This collection of critical essays is the first dedicated to the works of Yiddish women writers introducing them to a new audience of English speaking scholars and readers Wicked Success Is Inside Every Woman Vickie L.
