Black Portsmouth Mark Sammons, Valerie Cunningham, 2004 Few people think of a rich Black heritage when they think of New England In the pioneering book Black Portsmouth Mark J Sammons and Valerie Cunningham celebrate it guiding the reader through more than three centuries of New England and Portsmouth social political economic and cultural history as well as scores of personal and site specific stories Here we meet such Africans as the likely negro boys and girls from Gambia who debarked at Portsmouth from a slave ship in 1758 and Prince Whipple who fought in the American Revolution We learn about their descendants including the performer Richard Potter and John Tate of the People s Baptist Church who overcame the tragedies and challenges of their ancestors enslavement and subsequent marginalization to build communities and families found institutions and contribute to their city region state and nation in many capacities Individual entries speak to broader issues the anti slavery movement American religion and foodways for example We also learn about the extant historical sites important to Black Portsmouth including the surprise revelation of an African burial ground in October 2003 as well as the extraordinary efforts being made to preserve remnants of the city s early Black heritage

The Years of the Life of Samuel Lane, 1718-1806 Jerald E. Brown, 2000 Samuel Lane whose life in and around the town of Stratham New Hampshire spanned much of the 18th century was truly a Renaissance man Civic business and personal concerns fill the pages of the diary he kept for over 60 years The worries dilemmas and day to day work Lane detailed provide a compelling view of life in colonial New Hampshire Together with his business records and family papers Lane s diaries form an important part of the New Hampshire Historical Society's collections. Basing his narrative on careful study of this rich documentary legacy, historian Jerald E. Brown explores the life, career, and motivations of one man and his family. In a preliminary essay, editor Donna Belle Garvin introduces Lane's world to the reader. The many illustrations of leatherworking, farming, surveying, buildings, bridges, crops, animals, and gravestones draw readers into the complex world and work that shaped Lane and his family. This fascinating tale is the most complete account now available of the life of a colonial New England artisan and tradesman.

Guide to the Makers of American Wooden Planes Thomas L. Elliott, 2018-09-07. With its initial publication in 1983, A Guide to the Makers of American Wooden Planes profoundly transformed the emphasis and direction of tool collecting. After several years of meticulous research, Thomas L. Elliott has completely redesigned, revised, and expanded this fifth edition to include entries and information accumulated since the fourth edition. The heart of this guide is the alphabetical directory of plane makers and dealers. This fifth edition now includes 4590 biographical entries, 6160 imprint illustrations, 3030 wedge outlines, and over 3000 individual ratings for judging relative scarcity and value. Also included are sections providing insights helpful in buying and selling planes, an illustrated glossary of plane terms and styles, and an extensive bibliography for further research. This book is useful to both the beginner and the advanced collector, to historians and genealogists, and to all others with an interest in the subject.

Houses of the Founding Fathers Hugh Howard, 2012-01-01. Presents a tour of the houses belonging to some of America's early leaders, sharing an inside look at the domestic world of the Founding Fathers to chronicle their private lives, families, culture, interests, and aspirations.
