Post Colonial Literatures In English General Theoretical And Comparative 1970 1993:

A Companion to Postcolonial Studies Henry Schwarz, Sangeeta Ray, 2008-04-15 This volume examines the tumultuous changes that have occurred and are still occurring in the aftermath of European colonization of the globe from 1492 to 1947. Ranges widely over the major themes, regions, theories and practices of postcolonial study. Presents original essays by the leading proponents of postcolonial study in the Americas, Europe, India, Africa, East and West Asia. Provides clear introductions to the major social and political movements underlying colonization and decolonization, accessible histories of the literature and culture, and separate regions affected by European colonization. Features introductory essays on the major thinkers and intellectual schools that have informed strategies of national liberation worldwide. Offers an incisive summary of the long history and theory of modern European colonization in local detail and global scale.

Black African Literature in English, 1997-1999 Bernth Lindfors, 2003 This volume lists the work produced on anglophone black African literature between 1997 and 1999. This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors. Containing about 10,000 entries, some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed, it covers books, periodical articles, papers in edited collections, and selective coverage of other relevant sources.

Post-colonial Literatures in English Alan Lawson, 1997 An annotated bibliography documenting the appearance and institutionalization of the study of post colonial literatures and literary theory within English speaking academies throughout the world. The fundamental complexes of institutions and practices that comprise Anglo-European colonialism and the differing responses to this history by the diverse racial, ethnic and national groups that were formerly subject to the British Empire. Cites over 1,300 books, dissertations, chapters and essays. Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc, Portland, OR.

Missionary Writing and Empire, 1800-1860 Anna Johnston, 2003-08-07 Anna Johnston analyses missionary writing under the aegis of the British Empire. Johnston argues that missionaries occupied ambiguous positions in colonial cultures caught between imperial and religious interests. She maps out this position through an examination of texts published by missionaries of the largest most influential nineteenth century evangelical institution, the London Missionary Society. Texts from Indian, Polynesian and Australian missions are examined to highlight their representation of nineteenth century evangelical activity in relation to gender, colonialism and race.

Postcolonialism Diana Brydon, 2023-01-06 First published in 2004. This is Volume I of Postcolonialism, part of a series of critical concepts in literary and cultural studies. This edition includes part one framing the field, part two Marxist Liberation and Resistance Theory, and also part three on Manifestos.
