Pumping Iron:

Pumping Iron Charles Gaines, George Butler, 1974-01-01 The American bodybuilder's philosophy and way of life are scrutinized as well as his vigorous training schedule and athletic prowess Pumping Iron II--the Unprecedented Woman Charles Gaines, 1984 Pumping Iron Charles Gaines, George Butler, 2022-11-19 WHO ARE THEY AND WHY DO THEY DO IT these men who dedicate themselves to building bodies like Hellenistic statues who crisscross the world competing for titles as grandiose yet as publicly uncelebrated Mr America Mr Universe Mr Olympia as their gargantuan physiques whose daily lives are as rigidly defined and regulated by their obsession to mold the ideal body as any other master athlete's is towards perfecting his craft Yet rather than the public acclaim that normally follows an athletic triumph only their fellow muscle men know who they are and know the price they have paid to win their incredible bodies Novelist Charles Gaines and photographer George Butler have spent the last two years trying to capture the essence of this strange joyful exotic world We have been to quite a few places tracking bodybuilders seeing contests and putting together the materials here If we felt at times a little like 19th century explorers like Doughty perhaps off trekking through Arabia it was because we found bodybuilding to be as primeval and unmapped as parts of Labrador Nobody we discovered had been back into it to send a report on what it was like This struck us then as peculiar and it still does Building Bodies Pamela L. Moore, 1997 Building Bodies is an exciting collection of articles that strive toward constructing theoretical models in which power bodies discourse and subjectivity interact in a space we can call the built body a dynamic politicized and biological site Contributors discuss the complex relationship between body building and masculinity between the built body and the racialized body representations of women body builders in print and in film and homoeroticism in body building Linked by their focus on the sport and practice of body building the authors in this volume challenge both the way their various disciplines media studies literary criticism gender studies film and sociology have gone about studying bodies and existing assumptions about the complex relationship between power subjectivity society and flesh Body building in practice in representation and in the cultural imagination serves as an launching point because the sport and practice provide ready challenges to existing assumptions about the built body Performance Anxieties Ann Pellegrini, 2014-02-04 Performance Anxieties looks at the on going debates over the value of psychoanalysis for feminist theory and politics specifically concerning the social and psychical meanings of racialization Beginning with an historicized return to Freud and the meaning of Jewishness in Freud's day Ann Pellegrini indicates how race and racialization are not incidental features of psychoanalysis or of modern subjectivity but are among the generative conditions of both Performance Anxieties stages a series of playful encounters between elite and popular performance texts Freud meets Sarah Bernhardt meets Sandra Bernhard Joan Riviere's masquerading women are refigured in relation to the hard female bodies in the film Pumping Iron II The Women and the Terminator and Alien films In re reading psychoanalysis alongside other performance texts Pellegrini unsettles relations between popular and elite
