Pundits from Pakistan Rahul Bhattacharya, 2012      Pundits from Pakistan Rahul Bhattacharya, 2005 A cricketing romp through Pakistan In early 2004 the Indian cricket team set out for Pakistan Pundits describes the subsequent tour detailing the matches the moods the games and the players More than merely that though it is also a book about the first major sporting encounter between India and Pakistan in 15 years a period in which the two countries had fought one war and come close to another What emerges is a fascinating contemporary account of a beautiful game in its most crucial setting captured through the eyes of a young Indian discovering Pakistan      The Politics of Sport in South Asia Subhas Ranjan

Chakraborty, Shantanu Chakrabarti, Kingshuk Chatterjee, 2013-09-13 Behind the spectacle of entertainment sport is a subject with political issues at every level These issues range from the social with divisions created along gender and class lines to the use of sport to pursue diplomatic and statecraft goals In addition some sports are positioned and promoted as national events both in public opinion and in the media This book seeks to explore some aspects of the notion of power in sport in south Asia and among south Asians abroad The first two chapters deal with the internal societal dimensions of the politics of sport the next three relate to the politics inside the sporting world in the subcontinent and its bridge with the broader arena of the society through the media while the last five relate to the use of sports in statecraft consensus building and international politics This book was based on two special issues of the International Journal of the History of Sport

Cricket, Race and the 2007 World Cup Boria Majumdar, Jon Gemmell, 2013-09-13 Cricket has been subject to a number of changes over the last twenty years We can no longer talk of a sport particular to an out dated English way of life Cricket has become global and has to exist within the global environment Primarily the world game has become commercialised This collection of essays assesses the developments within major playing nations between the World Cups Do we now live in a world where commercialism is the primary factor in determining sports or are wider historical prejudices still evident Seeking to answer these questions Cricket Race the 2007 World Cup focuses on racial and ethnic tensions and their place in the new globalized cricketing environment This book was previously published as a special issue of Sport in Society

Nation at Play Ronojoy Sen, 2015-10-27 Reaching as far back as ancient times Ronojoy Sen pairs a novel history of India's engagement with sport and a probing analysis of its cultural and political development under monarchy and colonialism and as an independent nation Some sports that originated in India have fallen out of favor while others such as cricket have been adopted and made wholly India's own Sen's innovative project casts sport less as a natural expression of human competition than as an instructive practice reflecting a unique play with power morality aesthetics identity and money Sen follows the transformation of sport from an elite kingly pastime to a national obsession tied to colonialism nationalism and free market liberalization He pays special attention to two modern phenomena the dominance of cricket in the Indian consciousness and the chronic failure of a billion strong nation to compete successfully in international sporting competitions such as the Olympics Innovatively incorporating examples from popular media and other unconventional sources Sen not only captures the political nature of sport in India but also reveals the patterns of patronage clientage and institutionalization that have bound this diverse nation together for centuries      Deep Currents and Rising Tides John Garofano,Andrea J.

Dew,2013-04-29 The Indian Ocean region has rapidly emerged as a hinge point in the changing global balance of power and the geographic nexus of economic and security issues with vital global consequences The security of energy supplies persistent poverty and its contribution to political extremism piracy and related threats to seaborne trade competing nuclear powers and possibly the scene of future clashes between rising great powers India and China all are dangers in the waters or in the littoral states of the Indian Ocean region This volume one of the first attempts to treat the Indian Ocean Region in a coherent fashion captures the spectrum of cooperation and competition in the Indian Ocean Region Contributors discuss points of cooperation and competition in a region that stretches from East Africa to Singapore to Australia and assess the regional interests of China India Pakistan and the United States Chapters review possible red lines for Chinese security in the region India s naval ambitions Pakistan s maritime security and threats from non state actors terrorists pirates and criminal groups who challenge security on the ocean for all states This volume will interest academics professionals and researchers with interests in international relations Asian security and maritime studies      Sport and Contested Identities

David Hassan,Ciaran Acton,2017-09-07 Identity is one of the most theorised and contested of all sociological concepts and sport is fertile ground for an examination of its complexities This book offers a wide ranging and up to date exploration of the sport identity nexus drawing examples from a variety of sporting contexts and geographical locations and incorporating a diversity of perspectives including players spectators officials the media and policy makers Covering key themes in the social scientific study of sport such as gender ethnicity and national identity it considers the impact of social cultural and technological change on the formation of sporting identities Including original real life case studies each chapter makes a unique contribution to our understanding of the complex relationship between sport and identity As this relationship is embedded within the broader structures of power that frame social inequality this book also poses important questions about the role of sport related initiatives in our society today as well as in years to come Sport and Contested Identities

Contemporary Issues and Debates is fascinating reading for all students and scholars of the sociology of sport      Cricket and Nationhood in the Twenty-First Century Souvik Naha,2024-11-30 This book presents a comprehensive exploration of the contemporary global landscape characterized by unsettling dynamics in identity politics state authority capitalism nationalism and nationhood during the twenty first century Using cricket as a lens it argues that the sport plays a profound role in a global society This sport has not only generated the contexts and tools for shaping promoting displaying and legitimizing nationalism and national identity it has also served as a conduit for followers who express national optimism and aspirations Cricket as a political project intricately interweaves territorial and emotional dimensions of belonging attitudes and involvement thus offering a unique perspective for understanding the modern world across South Asia Australia Western Europe Southern Africa and North America The chapters analyse how the audience of cricket about two billion people understand themselves in relation to their involvement in cricket and what interactions among these groups tell us about global identity politics Cricket provides communities with a dynamic space and social capital facilitating the negotiation of gender sexual ethnic and racial identities within their adopted environments It has been a potent medium in shaping ethnic and racial identities surpassing surface level displays of national colours and unified chants This book marks a significant step forward delving into the comprehensive performative emotional and representational significance inherent in these circumstances
