Quiet Odyssey:

Quiet Odyssey Mary Paik Lee, 1990 In this moving testament Lee shares with her readers her feelings of growing up poor Asian and female Her story begins in Pyongyang Korea as part of a Christian family in the well to do upper class With the occupation of Korea by the Japanese in 1905 the social station and comfort of her family was threatened Thus they immigrated to America so that one part of the Paik family line would be preserved Chan s introduction provides a concise and comprehensive review that helps place the author s life history within its global context Three appendixes shed light on her role as a historiographer in augmenting the text historical verification and editorial decisions a detailed bibliographic essay adds a wealth of well researched data Quiet Odyssey Mark Paik Lee, 1994 Pachappa Camp Edward T. Chang, 2021-04-14 Through new research and materials Edward T Chang proves in Pachappa Camp The First Koreatown in the United States that Dosan Ahn Chang Ho established the first Koreatown in Riverside California in early 1905 Chang reveals the story of Pachappa Camp and its roots in the diasporic Korean community s independence movement efforts for their homeland during the early 1900s and in the lives of the residents Long overlooked by historians Pachappa Camp studies the creation of Pachappa Camp and its place in Korean and Korean American history placing Korean Americans in Riverside at the forefront of the Korean American community s history People Get Ready Peter Slade, Shea Tuttle, Jacqueline A. Bussie, 2023-01-10 Meet twelve activists whose faith transformed twentieth century America In a political climate where Christianity is increasingly seen as reactionary People Get Ready offers a revolutionary alternative Narrated by some of the most galvanizing voices of the current moment this collection of succinct and evocative biographies tells the stories of twelve modern apostles who lived the gospel mission and unsettles what we think we know about Christianity s role in American politics As the spiritual successor to Can I Get a Witness People Get Ready presents a diverse cast of twentieth century saints who bore witness to their faith with unapologetic advocacy for the marginalized From novelists to musicians to scientists these courageous men and women rose to the challenges of their times Just so readers will reflect on their legacies in light of the challenges of today Contributors Jacqueline A Bussie Carolyn Ren e Dupont Mark R Gornik Jane Hong Ann Hostetler M Therese Lysaught Charles Marsh Mallory McDuff Ansley L Quiros Daniel P Rhodes Peter Slade Jemar Tisby Shea Tuttle and Lauren F Winner Women, America, and Movement Susan L. Roberson, 1998 Since the colonial days American women have traveled migrated and relocated always faced with the challenge of reconstructing their homes for themselves and their families Women America and Movement offers a journey through largely unexplored territory the experiences of migrating American women These narratives both real and imagined represent a range of personal and critical perspectives some of the women describe their travels as expansive and freeing while others relate the dreadful costs and sacrifices of relocating Despite the range of essays featured in this study the writings all coalesce around the issues of politics poetry and self identity described by Adrienne Rich as the elements of the politics of location treated here as the politics of relocation The narratives featured in this book explore the impact of race class and sexual economics on migratory women their self identity and their roles in family and social life These issues demonstrate that in addition to geographic place ideology is itself a space to be traversed By examining the writings of such women as Louise Erdrich Zora Neale Hurston and Gertrude Stein the essayists included in this volume offer a variety of experiences The book confronts such issues as racist politicking against Native Americans African Americans and Asian immigrants sexist attitudes that limit women to the roles of wife mother and sexual object and exploitation of migrants from Appalachia and of women newly arrived in America These essays also delve into the writings themselves by looking at what happens to narrative structure as authors or their characters cross geographic boundaries The reader sees how women writers negotiate relocation in their texts and how the written word becomes a place where one finds oneself

The Making of Asian America Erika Lee,2015-09 In the past fifty years Asian Americans have helped change the face of America and are now the fastest growing group in the United States But as historian Erika Lee reminds us Asian Americans also have deep roots in the country The Making of Asian America tells the little known history of Asian Americans and their role in American life from the arrival of the first Asians in the Americas to the present day An epic history of global journeys and new beginnings this book shows how generations of Asian immigrants and their American born descendants have made and remade Asian American life in the United States sailors who came on the first trans Pacific ships in the 1500s to the Japanese Americans incarcerated during World War II Over the past fifty years a new Asian America has emerged out of community activism and the arrival of new immigrants and refugees No longer a despised minority Asian Americans are now held up as America s model minorities in ways that reveal the complicated role that race still plays in the United States Published to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the passage of the United States Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965 that has remade our nation of immigrants this is a new and definitive history of Asian Americans But more than that it is a new way of understanding America itself its complicated histories of race and immigration and its place in the world today Jacket
