Narrating China's Governance Department of Commentary People's Daily, 2019-11-20 This open access book captures and elaborates on the skill of storytelling as one of the distinct leadership features of Xi Jinping the General Secretary of the Communist Party of China and the President of the People's Republic of China It gathers the stories included in Xi's speeches on various occasions where they conveyed the essence of China's history and culture its reform and development and the principles of China's participating in global governance and cooperating with other countries to build a community of common destiny The respective stories not only convey abstract and profound concepts of governance in comparatively straightforward language but also create an immediate emotional connection between the narrator and the listener In addition to the original stories extensive additional materials are provided to convey the original context in which each was told including when and to whom Xi told it helping readers attain a deeper intuitive understanding of their relevance

China Danxia Hua Peng, 2020-01-02 This book presents the major research advances relating to Chinese Danxia landforms over the past 80 years It covers geological setting morphologic characteristics and evolution biology and ecology aesthetic value and earth science value and briefly introduces the six heritage sites enabling readers to gain a systematic understanding of Danxia landform theories and the China Danxia World Heritage sites      Tragic Beauty in Whitehead and Japanese Aesthetics Steve Odin, 2016-05-19 The present volume endeavors to make a contribution to contemporary Whitehead studies by clarifying his axiological process metaphysics including his theory of values concept of aesthetic experience and doctrine of beauty along with his philosophy of art literature and poetry Moreover it establishes an east west dialogue focusing on how Alfred North Whitehead's process aesthetics can be clarified by the traditional Japanese Buddhist sense of evanescent beauty As this east west dialogue unfolds it is shown that there are many striking points of convergence between Whitehead's process aesthetics and the traditional Japanese sense of beauty However the work especially focuses on two of Whitehead's aesthetic categories including the penumbral beauty of darkness and the tragic beauty of perishability while further demonstrating parallels with the two Japanese aesthetic categories of yūgen and aware It is clarified how both Whitehead and the Japanese tradition have articulated a poetics of evanescence that celebrates the transience of aesthetic experience and the ephemerality of beauty Finally it is argued that both Whitehead and Japanese tradition develop an aesthetics of beauty as perishability culminating in a religious aesthetic vision of tragic beauty and its reconciliation in the supreme ecstasy of peace or nirvana
