A Few Good Men Aaron Sorkin, 1990 Shows daily life at a Marine Corps boot camp A Few Good Men Jan Nattier, 2003-01-01 A Few Good Men is a study and translation of The Inquiry of Ugra Ugrapariprccha one of the most influential Mahayana sutras on the bodhisattva path but also one of the most neglected texts in Western treatments of Buddhism To achieve a better understanding of the universe of ideas activities and institutional structures within which early self proclaimed bodhisattvas lived the author first considers the Ugra as a literary document employing new methodological tools to examine the genre to which it belongs the age of its extant versions and their relationships to one another She goes on to challenge the dominant notions that the Mahayana emerged as a reform of earlier Buddhism and offered lay people an easier option A Few Good Men will be compelling reading for scholars and practitioners alike and others interested in the history of Indian Buddhism and the formation of Mahayana "Football! Navy! War!" Wilbur D. Jones, Jr., 2009-09-12 Not coincidentally the sport of football naturally employs terms usually associated with war such as aerial attack blitz and trench warfare During World War II the United States military and colleges joined forces and fielded competitive football teams The book highlights the Department of the Navy's role in preserving the game and football's impact on national morale and the war effort through their lend lease to colleges of officer candidates including All America and professional players It describes wartime college and military football throughout the globe and offers listings of college and military teams records scores big games and statistics player and team profiles and a glossary of period football terminology A Few Good Memories Bob Taylor, 2007-02-26 Stories mostly humorous some nostalgic about Marine Corps Boot Camp What wasn't funny then can be humorous now Marines relatives and friends submitted over 400 first hand stories The best of these are in this book As one new Marine said to the author Nothing's funny in Boot Camp But it is years later Gray Love Nan Bauer-Maglin, Daniel E. Hood, 2023-01-13 Gray Love narrates stories about the most common themes searching for and perhaps finding love Forty five men and women between ages 60 and 94 from diverse backgrounds talk about dating starting or ending a relationship embracing life alone or enjoying a partnered one The longing for connection as old age encroaches is palpable here with more and more senior singles searching online Those who find new partners explore issues that most relationships encounter at any age as well as some that are unique to elder relationships These include having had previous
