Quitting America:

Quitting America Randall Robinson, 2004 Robinson the man hailed by Cornel West as the greatest pro Africa freedom fighter of his generation in America makes a striking departure figuratively and literally He leaves America for a life in the Caribbean America's Growing Inequality Chester Hartman, 2014-04-02 The book is a compilation of the best and still most relevant articles published in Poverty Deconstructing Poverty and Racial Inequities Re emerging Issues Civil Rights History America Can't Quit William Howard Taft, 1919 America on the Edge H. Giroux, 2006-03-31 Henry Giroux s latest work is a compelling collection of new and classic essays Key topics such as education and democracy terrorism and security and media and youth culture are critiqued in Giroux s signature style This is a fascinating collection for Giroux fans and educators alike Dreaming Blackness Melanye T. Price, 2009-06-01 A complex portrait of contemporary black political stances Black Nationalism is one of the oldest and most enduring ideological constructs developed by African Americans to make sense of their social and political worlds In Dreaming Blackness Melanye T Price explores the current understandings of Black Nationalism among African Americans providing a balanced and critical view of today s black political agenda She argues that Black Nationalism continues to enjoy moderate levels of support by most black citizens but has a more difficult time gaining a larger stronghold because of increasing diversity among blacks and a growing emphasis on individualism over collective struggle She shows that black interests are a dynamic negotiation among various interested groups and suggests that those differences are not just important for the black agenda but also for how African Americans think and dialogue about black political questions daily Using a mix of everyday talk and impressive statistical data to explain contemporary black opinions Price highlights the ways in which Black Nationalism works in a post racial society Ultimately Price offers a multilayered portrait of African American political opinions providing a new understanding of race specific ideological views and their impact on African Americans persuasively illustrating that Black Nationalism is an ideology that scholars and politicians should not dismiss African Americans and Africa Nemata Amelia Blyden, 2019-05-28 An introduction to the complex relationship between African Americans and the African continent What is an African American and how does this identity relate to the African continent Rising immigration levels globalization and the United States first African American president have all sparked new dialogue around the question This book provides an introduction to the relationship between African Americans and Africa from the era of slavery to the present mapping several overlapping diasporas The diversity of African American identities through relationships with region ethnicity slavery and immigration are all examined to investigate questions fundamental to the study of African American history and culture The Struggles of John Brown Russwurm Winston James, John Brown Russwurm, 2010-08-30 John Brown Russwurm 1799 1851 was an educator abolitionist editor government official emigrationist and colonizationist in the Pan African movement His life was one of firsts first African American graduate of Maine s Bowdoin College co founder of Freedom s Journal America s first newspaper to be owned, operated and edited by African Americans and following his emigration to Africa first black governor of the Maryland section of Liberia. Despite his accomplishments, Russwurm struggled internally with the perennial Pan Africanist dilemma of whether to go to Africa or stay and fight in the United States and his ordeal was the first of its kind to be experienced and resolved before the public eye.

Black Outlaws Carlyle Van Thompson, 2010. In this provocative and original exploration of Black males and the legal establishment, Carlyle Van Thompson illuminates the critical issues defining Black male subjectivity. Since the days of Black people's enslavement and the days of Jim Crow segregation, Black males have been at odds with the legal and extra-legal restrictions that would maintain white supremacy and white male privilege. Grounded in the voices of Frederick Douglass and David Walker who challenged hegemonic systems designed to socio-economically disenfranchise Black people, Black Outlaws examines legal aspects with regard to Black males during the period of segregation. By critically looking at Richard Wright's The Outsider, Chester Bomar Himes' The Third Generation, Walter Mosley's Devil in a Blue Dress and Ernest J. Gaines' A Lesson Before Dying, all of which examine Black males during the Jim Crow period, Thompson investigates the challenges that Black males confront and surmount in their journeys to establish their individual and collective agency. Black Outlaws helps decipher critical legal and racial issues in the works of four of the most important Black male writers and is suitable for readers in literary studies, cultural studies and history.

People Get Ready Kevin Meehan, 2010-11-12. Throughout this book, Kevin Meehan offers historical and theoretical readings of Caribbean and African American interaction from the 1700s to the present. By analyzing travel narratives, histories, creative collaborations and political exchanges, he traces the development of African American Caribbean dialogue through the lives and works of four key individuals: historian Arthur Schomburg, writer/archivist Zora Neale Hurston, poet Jayne Cortez and politician Jean Bertrand Aristide. People Get Ready examines how these influential figures have reevaluated popular culture, revised the relationship between intellectuals and everyday people and transformed practices ranging from librarianship and anthropology to poetry and broadcast journalism. This discourse, Meehan notes, is not free of contradictions and misunderstandings arise on both sides. In addition to noting dialogues of unity, People Get Ready focuses on instances of intellectual elitism, sexism, color prejudice, imperialism, national chauvinism and other forms of mutual disdain that continue to limit African American and Caribbean solidarity.

Tragic Investment R. James Addington, 2019-06-01. America's investment in race and racial oppression was central to its early years as a nation, a theme that dates back to Europe's earliest colonial efforts in the Western Hemisphere. Some of the contemporary consequences for communities of color are clear. Numerous studies routinely quantify racial disparities in virtually every social arena. But are there negative consequences of this historical investment for white people? R. James Addington explores that weighty topic while seeking to answer questions such as: How do we repair the damage done to communities as a result of our racial history? Is racial oppression related to our ability to respond to ecological challenges? Does our investment in racial oppression jeopardize our nation's future Addington suggests that racism harms us all and he pays particular attention to the subtle ways white people are damaged He also suggests that race sabotages the nation's capacity to negotiate the challenges the future poses Explore how overcoming racism and shaping a sustainable resilient society are bound together in Tragic Investment Struggles through life ... John HARRIOTT,1807 Freedom Facts and Firsts Jessie Carney Smith,Linda T Wynn,2009-01-01 Spanning nearly 400 years from the early abolitionists to the present Freedom Facts and Firsts 400 Years of the African American Civil Rights Experience profiles more than 400 people places and events that have shaped the history of the black struggle for freedom Covering such mainstay figures as Martin Luther King Jr Malcolm X and Rosa Parks as well as delving into how lesser known figures contributed to and shaped the history of civil rights Freedom Facts and Firsts chronicles the breadth and passion of an entire people's quest for freedom Among the inspiring stories found in this comprehensive resource are How the Housewives League of Detroit started a nationwide movement to support black businesses helping many to survive the Great Depression What effect the sports journalist Samuel Harold Lacy had on Jackie Robinson's historic entrance into the major leagues How the 9th and 10th Calvary and the 24th and 25th Infantry became known as the Buffalo Soldiers a term of respect and endearment How Whoopi Goldberg survived poverty drug addiction single parenthood and a welfare income and used her personal history to take a satirical look at social issues How world champion bicyclist Marshall Major Taylor was the first American born black champion in any sport How in 1890 John Mercer Langston became the first black U S congressman elected from his native state of Virginia This inspiring resource offers an encouraging look at the historic struggles and triumphs of black men and women in politics arts music journalism law social work and sports the authors chart a full and inspiring history of African American activism Letters of Horace Walpole to Horace Mann 1760 - 1785 Horace Walpole,1844 Choice Brooks B.
