Polish Cinema Today Helena Goscilo, Beth Holmgren, 2021-08-19 A 2022 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Structured according to key themes Polish Cinema Today analyzes the remarkable innovations in Polish cinema emerging a decade after the 1989 dissolution of the Soviet bloc once its film industry had evolved from a socialist state enterprise into a much more accessible system of film production with growing expertise in distribution and marketing By the early 2000s an impressive diverse cohort of filmmakers broke through the gridlock of a small set of esteemed aging auteurs as well as the glut of imported Hollywood blockbusters empowered by the digital revolution and domestic audience appetite for independent work Polish directors today challenge sacrosanct bromides about national and gender identity Poland's historical martyrdom the status of the influential Catholic Church and the benevolent family while investigating the phenomena of migration and sexuality in their full complexity Each thematic chapter places these recent films within a historical cultural context nationally and transnationally and designs its analyses of specific works to engage general audiences of film scholars students and cinephiles Life and Work Tim Parks, 2016-06-28 Acclaimed novelist and critic

Tim Parks has long been fascinated by the complicated relationship between an author's life and work Dissatisfied with the dominant modes of reading he encountered he began exploring the underlying values and patterns that guide authors in both their writing and their lives In a series of provocative incisive and unflinching essays written over the past decade and collected for the first time here he reveals how style and content in a novel reflect a whole pattern of communication and positioning in the author's ordinary and daily behavior We see how life and work are deeply enmeshed in the work of writers as diverse as Charles Dickens Feodor Dostoevsky James Joyce Anton Chekhov Philip Roth Julian Barnes Peter Stamm and Geoff Dyer among others Parks further shows us how readers' reactions to these writers and their works are inevitably connected to these communicative patterns establishing a relationship that goes far beyond aesthetic appreciation This original and daring collection takes us into the psychology of some of our greatest writers and challenges us to see with more clarity how our lives become entangled with theirs through our reading of their novels Catalog of Copyright Entries a renowned New Testament scholar provides his lectures on New Testament theology and provides us a window on his approach on a variety of issues He describes the task as follows New Testament theology is the art of giving coherence to the collective witness of the twenty seven New Testament documents as they attest to the Christian faith while not sacrificing the historical particularity of any one text or author within the canon and to do this as clearly as possible and with as much consistency and unity as possible New Testament theology deals with all the New Testament We must resist the tendency to find a canon within the canon or to neglect some lesser figures in the New Testament canon New Testament theology is first of all a descriptive task i e we must first try to describe what is there But given our stance toward Scripture what we describe also becomes prescriptive or normative We must never forget that the writings of the New Testament are ad hoc documents written in each and every case to speak to a specific need Thus rather than careful systematic presentations of theology such as in a book or a lecture the earliest Christian theology is worked out in the marketplace as it were Therefore we must be careful not to force the New Testament writers to answer all of our questions nor even to use our logic or thought forms
