Handbook of Rabbinic Theology Jacob Neusner, 2021-12-28 From his extensive and intensive study of the rabbinic literature Jacob Neusner shows how the rabbinic documents give expression to a very real if implicit theological system While the rabbinic literature is often seen as a collection of miscellaneous responses to questions arising from study of the Hebrew Bible and its application to contemporary life Neusner sees a system behind and embodied in the various writings He discusses the ways in which the divine thought and the human thinking that sought faithfully to interpret it actually came to expression and treats what he calls the grammar of the divine self expression in order to help us see the theological structure that it implies Then he shows how this implicit system is expressed in the rules for the life of the people that God has chosen as his own Citing passages from almost all of the mishnaic tractates Neusner shows how they fit into and give expression to the system This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details

The Hermeneutics of the Rabbinic Category-formations Jacob Neusner,2001 This work sets forth a theory of how Rabbinic

Halakhic category formations are articulated One can now reconstruct the processes of thought that yield for the Halakhic category formations the hermeneutics that govern the selection of data for a given category formation and determines how those data are to be interpreted Not only so but that theory encompasses three quite distinct sources for the definition and articulation of a given category formation Scripture a hermeneutics generic to all Halakhic category formations and a hermeneutics particular to the category formation at hand Presented in the shank of this book are sample studies that show how the distinction between generic and particular hermeneutics for a Halakhic category formation accounts for the character of the Halakhah as spelled out by the Mishnah Tosefta Yerushalmi Bavli which is to say the Halakhah in its initial and normative statement Contours of Coherence in Rabbinic Judaism Jacob Neusner, 2023-01-30 This book shows that the disputes that characterize Rabbinic writings in the formative age underscore the coherence of Rabbinic Judaism It is in three separate monographs The first shows that disagreements concern secondary and tertiary issues They therefore reinforce the primary norm by identifying as moot only trivial details The second demonstrates alternatively that Halakhic disputes articulate unresolved conflict over generative principles Sometimes in the presentation of topics of the law disputes not only indicate the range of consensus but bring to expression conflicting alternatives theories that claim equal validity but contradict one another Third in some presentations of the law and in all presentations of theology where disputes occur disputes simply gloss details in the application of accepted principles They form a part of the exercise of legal or theological exegesis filling in gaps with alternative facts The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004142312
