Racial and Cultural Minorities George Eaton Simpson,J. Milton Yinger,2013-06-29 We need scarcely note that the topic of this book is the stuff of headlines Around the world political economic educational military religious and social relations of every variety have a racial or ethnic component One cannot begin to understand the history or contemporary situation of the United States the Soviet Union China Zimbabwe South Africa Great Britain Lebanon Mexico Canada indeed almost any land without careful attention to the influence of cultural and racial divisions Preparation of this new edition has brought a strong sense of deja vu with regard both to the persistence of old patterns of discrimination even if in new guises and also to the persistence of limited and constraining explanations We have also found however rich new empirical studies new theoretical perspectives and greatly expanded activity and analyses from members of minority groups Although this edition is an extensive revision with reference both to the data used and the theoretical approaches examined we have not shifted from our basically analytical perspective We strongly support efforts to reduce discrimination and prejudice but these can be successful only if we try to understand where we are and what forces are creating the existing situation We hope to reduce the tendency to use declarations and condemnations of other persons actions as substitutes for an investigation of their causes and consequences Captive Audience Thomas Fahy,Kimball King,2004-03 This all new collection examines the social gendered ethnic and cultural problems of incarceration as explored in contemporary theatre Inequality and Stratification Robert A. Rothman,2002 For undergraduate courses in Social Stratification Race Class and Gender and Introduction to Gender Studies Using a concise and easy to understand style this guide provides an integrated approach to the implications of social class race and ethnicity and gender explaining how each relates to economic social and political inequality Its straightforward perspective views the considerations of race and gender as central to a full appreciation of the composition and dynamics of class systems A significant and effective organization incorporates fresh conceptualizations new research findings and data with the fundamentals of social stratification NEW A focus on digital technology Stresses the importance of this major twentieth century development Explores the implications of the digital revolution in industrial nations NEW Up to date information and research throughout Keeps students abreast of the latest findings in the field and helps make the coverage more relevant and meaningful to their lives NEW Expanded scope Highlights more than just the central focus of the American experience Directs students attention to other industrial systems of social st Bibliography on Racism, 1972-1975 Center for Minority Group Mental Health Programs (U.S.),1978 Bibliography on Racism Center for Minority Group Mental Health Programs (U.S.),1972 American Muslim Women Jamillah Karim,2008-12-01 African American Muslims and South Asian Muslim immigrants are two of the largest ethnic Muslim groups in the U S Yet there are few sites in which African Americans and South Asian immigrants come together and South Asians are often held up as a model minority against African Americans However the American ummah or American Muslim community stands as a unique site for interethnic solidarity in a time of increased tensions between native born Americans and immigrants This ethnographic study of African American and South Asian immigrant Muslims in Chicago and Atlanta explores how Islamic ideals of racial harmony and equality create hopeful possibilities in an American society that remains challenged by race and class inequalities The volume focuses on women who due to gender inequalities are sometimes more likely to move outside of their ethnic Muslim spaces and interact with other Muslim ethnic groups in search of gender justice American Muslim Women explores the relationships and sometimes alliances between African Americans and South Asian immigrants drawing on interviews with a diverse group of women from these two communities Karim investigates what it means to negotiate religious sisterhood against America s race and class hierarchies and how those in the American Muslim community both construct and cross ethnic boundaries American Muslim Women reveals the ways in which multiple forms of identity frame the American Muslim experience in some moments reinforcing ethnic boundaries and at other times resisting them Law & Inequality ,2000 Inequality & Stratification Robert A. Rothman,1999 Using a concise and easy to understand style this guide provides an integrated approach to the implications of social class race and ethnicity and gender explaining how each relates to economic social and political inequality The Third Edition continues to build on this perspective integrating fresh conceptualizations new research findings and data into a significant and effective reorganization NEW Incorporates the most recent theory and research in the field making coverage more relevant and meaningful to todays students NEW Features several organizational changes designed to improve the flow and coverage of the subject Part One a broad overview and introduction to the field Part Two an expanded discussion of the evolution and institutionalization of industrial class systems Part Three a focus on the basic elements of inequality economics prestige and politics Part Four separate chapters on life chances and lifestyles as well as class consciousness Part Five an exploration of social mobility NEW Uses the American experience as the central emphasis of the book but broadens the scope to include more attention to other industrial systems of social strati

Becoming American, Remaining Ethnic Matthew Ari Jendian,2008 Jendian provides a snapshot of the oldest Armenian community in the western United States His work explores the processes of assimilation and ethnicity across four generations and examines forms of ethnic identity and intermarriage He examines four subprocesses of assimilation cultural structural marital and identificational for patterns of change assimilation and persistence ethnicity Findings demonstrate the co existence of assimilation and ethnicity He offers assimilation and the retention of ethnicity as two somewhat independent processes Assimilation is not a unilinear or zero sum phenomenon but rather multidimensional and multidirectional Future research must understand the forms ethnicity takes for different generations of different groups while examining patterns of change and persistence for the fourth generation and beyond
