Annual Editions John A. Kromkowski,1997      The Limits of Marriage Gary R. Lee,2015-04-08 This book documents and explains the remarkable decline in the American marriage rate that began about 1970 This decline has occurred in spite of the fact that married people are better off than unmarried people in many ways Many other attempts to explain the retreat from marriage blame it on culture change involving a devaluation of marriage and or on ignorance of the benefits of marriage among the unmarried population In turn because unmarried adults and single parent families are poorer than others poverty and its associated problems are attributed to the failure to marry The argument presented here is that the declining marriage rate is due to the deteriorating position of workers particularly men in the American economy Not only have jobs disappeared and wages decreased especially for the less educated but existing jobs have become more precarious Less educated workers can t count on having jobs in the future and can t count on earning enough to support families if they have jobs because their wages have stagnated In this economic environment the flexibility to change partners becomes a survival strategy for the economically marginalized population which has been increasing in size for the past four decades Arrangements such as cohabitation allow for this flexibility marriage does not This argument implies that marriage is not a realistic choice for many Americans In fact it is a choice that many people don t actually have Marriages between economically marginal men and women would not eventuate in the benefits that middle class people experience when they marry and would eliminate an option they may need to survive in the face of unrelenting poverty We won t convince these people that marriage would improve their lives because in most cases it wouldn t be true To return the marriage rate to its pre 1970 level we need to address the economic factors that have caused the decline      Chemical Dependency Counseling Robert R.

Perkinson,2011-06-17 This volume is the most comprehensive guide for counselors and front line professionals who work with the chemically dependant in a variety of settings It is a basic introduction that guides the counselor through treatment from A to Z Chapters cover the gamut of treatment issues including developing the therapeutic alliance screening detoxification biopsychosocial assessment dual diagnosis patient orientation treatment planning individual therapy group therapy case management crisis intervention referral record keeping discharge planning and referral Author Robert R Perkinson provides case studies and step by step instructions with clear explanations and procedures that counselors need to use in all phases of patient care One of the key features of this volume is the inclusion of over 50 appendices which includes screening questionnaires scales history assessments personal recovery plans in patient and out patient schedules and many many more The new edition includes more appendices and updates of existing ones Inclusion of issues of diversity and working with diverse clients Discussion of new treatment for addiction with detailed plan New discussion of relapse triggers including negative emotions social pressure interpersonal conflict and the recovery community New discussion of co occurring disorders      The Changing American Countryside Emery N. Castle,1995 The literature on rural America to the extent that it exists has largely been written by urban based scholars perpetuating out of date notions and stereotypes or by those who see little difference between rural and agricultural concerns As a result the real rural America remains much misunderstood neglected or ignored by scholars and policymakers alike In response Emery Castle offers The Changing American Countryside a volume that will forever change how we look at this important subject Castle brings together the writings of eminent scholars from several disciplines and varying backgrounds to take a fresh and comprehensive look at the forgotten hinterlands These authors examine the role of non metropolitan people and places in the economic life of our nation and cover such diverse issues as poverty industry the environment education family social problems ethnicity race religion gender government public policy and regional diversity The authors are especially effective in demonstrating why rural America is so much more than just agriculture It is in fact highly diverse complex and interdependent with urban America and the international market place Most major rural problems they contend simply cannot be effectively addressed in isolation from their urban and international connections To do so is misguided and even hazardous when one fourth of our population and ninety seven per cent of our land area is rural Together these writings not only provide a new and more realistic view of rural life and public policy but also suggest how the field of rural studies can greatly enrich our understanding of national life

Making the Mexican Diabetic Michael

Montoya,2011-03-18 Making the Mexican Diabetic presents a finely honed ethnography Montoya is particularly attuned to the sensitivity and conundrums surrounding the use of DNA drawn from a population at high risk of diabetes and he makes a strong case for understanding the rational value behind this approach as well as its potential reinforcement of racial stereotypes This is a unique and important book Rayna Rapp author of Testing Women Testing the Fetus The Social Impact of Amniocentesis in America This is a fascinating broad ranging and fair minded ethnography In the best tradition of science studies Montoya takes the scientific research seriously on its own terms Yet he always brings us back to the sociopolitical context including the tremendous conditions of inequality that Mexican immigrants encounter in the United States Steven Epstein Northwestern University

The Quiet Hand of God Robert Wuthnow,John H. Evans,2002-10-21 For those who thought Mainline Protestantism was well on its way to extinction this collection provides interesting possibly even shocking reading It points to new life arising out of old structures and changing modes of engagement with the culture The message the reader takes away is that while the future for this religious tradition will not look like its past it has a future The best book written lately on this topic Wade Clark Roof author of Spiritual Marketplace Baby Boomers and the Remaking of American Religion An important contribution to our understanding of the public influence of mainline Protestantism This well written and expansive book reveals how socially civically and politically active mainline Protestantism continues to be in American society contrary to much conventional wisdom Yet it shows the mainline influence as having a particular character different from that of other religious traditions Mainline Protestantism has without justification been understudied lately This landmark book puts it back on the map and will generate discussion and inquiry for years to come Christian Smith author of The Secular Revolution This important book provides a balanced critical yet genuinely appreciative analysis of the role of mainline Protestantism's public role It is a stimulating and refreshing change from the mainline Protestant bashing of the past three decades In a time of increased calls for religious organizations to be involved in public life readers will be helped to understand both the possibilities and limits of such involvement as the authors examine the practices and policies of the most publicly engaged of America's religious families Jackson W Carroll coauthor of Bridging Divided Worlds Congregations and Generational Cultures An essential book for anyone interested in the public nature and works of the Protestant mainline The vast majority of American citizens believe that churches have a public role But they disagree about what that role should be Help has arrived Jean Bethke Elshtain author of Jane Addams and the Dream of American Democracy This book is a comprehensive overview of mainline Protestantism's contribution to the public role of religion during the last three decades of the 20th century It provides a firm platform from which to guide our vision in the new millennium Donald E Miller author of Reinventing American Protestantism Christianity in the New Millennium Beyond Common Sense Fred Wulczyn, This timely volume offers useful insights into the child welfare system and will be of particular interest to policymakers academics with an interest in child welfare policy social work educators and child advocates BOOK JACKET Fieldwork and the Self J  r  my Jammes, Victor T. King, 2021-11-09 This book presents new perspectives on Southeast Asia using cases from a range of ethnic groups cultures and histories written by scholars from different ethnicities generations disciplines and scientific traditions It examines various research trajectories engaging with epistemological debates on the global and local on insiders and outsiders and the role played by personal experiences in the collection and analysis of empirical data The volume provides subjects for debate rarely addressed in formal approaches to data gathering and analysis Rather than grappling with the usual methodological building blocks of research training it focuses on neglected issues in the research experience including chance error coincidence mishap dead ends silence secrets improvisation remembering digital challenges and shifting tracks Fieldwork and the Self is relevant to academics and researchers from universities and international organisations who are engaged in teaching and learning in area studies and social science research methods A rich and compelling set of writings about fieldwork in and beyond Southeast Asia Lyn Parker Emeritus Professor University of Western Australia A must read for all especially emerging scholars on Southeast Asia and a refreshing read for critical old hands on the region Abdul Rahman Embong Emeritus Professor Institute of Malaysian and International Studies IKMAS Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia An impressive collection of essays by two academics who have devoted their academic life to anthropological fieldwork in Southeast Asia Shamsul A B Distinguished Professor and UNESCO Chair Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia The contributors share an unquenchable and passionate curiosity for Southeast Asia They have survived the uncertainties and disillusionment of their fieldwork and remained first grade scholars Marie Sybille de Vienne Professor National Institute for Oriental Languages and Civilisations Paris A penetrating reflection on current social science research on Southeast Asia Hans Dieter Evers Professor Emeritus and Senior Fellow University of Bonn     Humanities Index ,1999

Fear Itself Christopher D. Bader, Joseph O. Baker, L. Edward Day, Ann Gordon, 2020-03-03 An antidote to the culture of fear that dominates modern life From moral panics about immigration and gun control to anxiety about terrorism and natural disasters Americans live in a culture of fear While fear is typically discussed in emotional or poetic terms as the opposite of courage or as an obstacle to be overcome it nevertheless has very real consequences in everyday life Persistent fear negatively affects individuals decision making abilities and causes anxiety depression and poor physical health Further fear harms communities and society by corroding social trust and civic engagement Yet politicians often effectively leverage fears to garner votes and companies routinely market unnecessary products that promise protection from imagined or exaggerated harms Drawing on five years of data from the Chapman Survey of American Fears which canvasses a random national sample of adults about a broad range of fears Fear Itself offers new insights into what people are afraid of and how fear affects their lives The authors also draw on participant observation with Doomsday preppers and conspiracy theorists to provide fascinating narratives about subcultures of fear Fear Itself is a novel wide ranging study of the social consequences of fear ultimately suggesting that there is good reason to be afraid of fear itself     Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance

,1993 Identifies and describes specific government assistance opportunities such as loans grants counseling and procurement contracts available under many agencies and programs     Ethnicity and Old Age Sandra Torres, 2020-09-16 Winner of the Richard Kalish Innovative Publication Award 2021 Part of the Ageing in a Global Context series this book proposes a new research agenda for scholarship that focuses on ethnicity race and old age It argues that in a time of increased international migration population ageing and ethno cultural diversity scholarly imagination must be expanded as current research frameworks are becoming obsolete By bringing attention to the way that ethnicity and race have been addressed in research on ageing and old age with a focus on health inequalities health and social care intergenerational relationships and caregiving the book proposes how research can be developed in an ethnicity astute and diversity informed manner     Update to the ... Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance ,1998     Ethnicity and Education in England and

Europe Ian Law, Sarah Swann, 2016-05-23 Ethnicity and Education in England and Europe examines where when and how minority ethnic groups miss out on educational opportunities Through a combination of comparative quantitative and qualitative methodologies and the showcasing of new research it provides a fresh approach to examining the long standing debates over ethnicity and in particular ethnic differences in educational achievement Drawing on extensive empirical research in England as well as information gathered as part of a major international programme of research under the auspices of the European Union EDUMIGROM this book both synthesises the findings of the English team and puts these findings in context through comparison with the analytical material generated in a range of other European countries With a key focus on the educational experiences and outcomes of the Roma in Central and Eastern Europe as compared with the experiences of minority ethnic groups in Western Europe this volume provides a contemporary assessment of ethnic relations across a selected range of European countries Presenting comparative cross national analyses of ethnic inequalities and policy interventions Ethnicity and Education in England and Europe makes a significant contribution to debates in the fields of migration ethnicity and education and will be of interest to both scholars and policy makers concerned with questions of race and educational outcome Ibss: Sociology: 1998 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Social Science, 1999-12-16 Renowned for its international coverage and rigorous selection procedures this series provides the most comprehensive and scholarly bibliographic service available in the social sciences Arranged by topic and indexed by author subject and place name each bibliography lists and annotates the most important works published in its field during the year of 1997 including hard to locate journal articles Each volume also includes a complete list of the periodicals consulted

Toward a Livable Life Mark R. Rank, 2020 Toward a Livable Life explores many of today's most critical issues facing both the United States and the profession of social work i.e. poverty inequality disparities in health discrimination and several other areas The volume enlists the insights of leading social work scholars in order to assess the causes behind these problems and identify innovative solutions Decolonizing the Lens of Power Kerstin Knopf, 2008-01-01 This is the first book that comprehensively examines Indigenous filmmaking in North America as it analyzes in detail a variety of representative films by Canadian and US American Indigenous filmmakers two films that contextualize the oral tradition three short films and four dramatic films The book explores how members of colonized groups use the medium of film as a means for cultural and political expression and thus enter the dominant colonial film discourse and create an answering discourse The theoretical framework is developed as an interdisciplinary approach combining postcolonialism Indigenous studies and film studies As Indigenous people are gradually taking control over the imagemaking process in the area of film and video they cease being studied and described objects and become subjects who create self controlled images of Indigenous cultures The book explores the translatability of Indigenous oral tradition into film touching upon the changes the cultural knowledge is subject to in this process including statements of Indigenous filmmakers on this issue It also asks whether or not there is a definite Indigenous film practice and whether filmmakers tend to dissociate their work from dominant classical filmmaking adapt to it or create new film forms and styles through converging classical film conventions and their conscious violation This approach presupposes that Indigenous filmmakers are constantly in some state of reaction to Western ethnographic filmmaking and to classical narrative filmmaking and its epitome the Hollywood narrative cinema The films analyzed are The Road Allowance People by Maria Campbell Itam Hakim Hopiit by Victor Masayesva Talker by Lloyd Martell Tenacity and Smoke Signals by Chris Eyre Overweight With Crooked Teeth and Honey Moccasin by Shelley Niro Big Bear by Gil Cardinal and Atanarjuat The Fast Runner by Zacharias Kunuk      Criminal Victimization in the United States ,1976
