Saito, 2023-08-31 Located a mere fifteen minutes from Los Angeles the San Gabriel Valley is an incubator for California's new ethnic politics Here Latinos and Asian Americans are the dominant groups Politics are Latino dominated while a large infusion of Chinese immigrants and capital has made the San Gabriel Valley the center of the nation's largest Chinese ethnic economy The white population meanwhile has dropped from an overwhelming majority in 1970 to a minority in 1990 Leland T Saito presents an insider's view of the political economic and cultural implications of this ethnic mix He examines how diverse residents of the region have worked to overcome their initial antagonisms and develop new more effective political alliances Tracing grassroots political organization along racial and ethnic lines Race and Politics focuses on the construction of new identities in general and the panethnic affiliation Asian American in particular      Hometown Inequality Brian F. Schaffner, Jesse H. Rhodes, Raymond J. La Raja, 2020-07-09 Local governments play a central role in American democracy providing essential services such as policing water and sanitation Moreover Americans express great confidence in their municipal governments But is this confidence warranted Using big data and a representative sample of American communities this book provides the first systematic examination of racial and class inequalities in local politics We find that non whites and less affluent residents are consistent losers in local democracy Residents of color and those with lower incomes receive less representation from local elected officials than do whites and the affluent Additionally they are much less likely than privileged community members to have their preferences reflected in local government policy Contrary to the popular assumption that governments that are closest govern best we find that inequalities in representation are most severe in suburbs and small towns Typical reforms do not seem to improve the situation and we recommend new approaches Race, Power, and Political Emergence in Memphis Sharon D.

Wright,2021-12-12 Race Power and Political Emergence in Memphis examines black political behavior and empowerment strategies in the city of Memphis Each chapter of the text focuses on three themes mobilization emergence and incorporation By analyzing the effects of race on black political development in Memphis scholars will be able to examine broader questions about its effects in other cities How do political machines use substantial black electorates to their advantage What forms of protest do black communities conduct to rebel against machine rule What primary mobilization tactics have black citizens used during the different periods of their political development Why do blacks mobilize more quickly in some cities In cities with large and predominantly black populations what elements prevent black candidates from winning citywide races What constraints do newly elected black mayors face What benefits do black citizens gain from their representation After a predominantly black governing coalition is elected what obstacles remain Can black citizens translate proportional representation into strong political incorporation How much power can African Americans realistically expect to gain in cities This book is the most comprehensive case study of the city's political scene written to date The text primarily shows that white racism is not the only obstacle to black political development Black citizens can have population majorities but lose elections for other reasons Their ability to win elections and gain full incorporation depends heavily on whether they minimize internal conflict and establish coalitions with middle class citizens and the business establishment Race and the Politics of Fear J. Noel Hubler,2025-05-16 Race and the Politics of Fear is a study of the role of race in American political history It takes a novel approach by using Aristotle's theory of the mixed regime to analyze the American system Aristotle's mixed regime containing elements of oligarchy and democracy was well known to the Founders who used it to design the Constitution Accordingly American political history has unfolded as a struggle between oligarchic and democratic forces Oligarchs have frequently used race to divide the people and maintain power This book traces the oligarchic construction of race from its creation in the Colonial period and through a study of four major figures James Madison helped formulate the Constitution to provide protection for the Southern oligarchies and was a founder of the Democratic Republican party dominated by Southern interests John C Calhoun's theory of the concurrent majority provided a blueprint for the South's political strategy in the Jim Crow era Ben Tillman redefined race primarily as a feeling as an excuse for the South's violent oppression of the black community Ronald Reagan retooled the traditional racist myths and made them palatable to a national audience Readable yet extensively documented it is appropriate for general audiences and scholars

Segregation by Design Jessica Trounstein, 2018-11-15 Segregation by Design draws on more than 100 years of quantitative and qualitative data from thousands of American cities to explore how local governments generate race and class segregation Starting in the early twentieth century cities have used their power of land use control to determine the location and availability of housing amenities such as parks and negative land uses such as garbage dumps The result has been segregation first within cities and more recently between them Documenting changing patterns of segregation and their political mechanisms Trounstein argues that city governments have pursued these policies to enhance the wealth and resources of white property owners at the expense of people of color and the poor Contrary to leading theories of urban politics local democracy has not functioned to represent all residents The result is unequal access to fundamental local services from schools to safe neighborhoods to clean water
