The book also includes a discussion of the difficulty of measuring public opinion on affirmative action and of how existing methods might be improved. Sound public policy recommendations emerge from the book's racially diverse group of contributors.

African Americans and Jews in the Twentieth Century Vincent P. Franklin, 1998 In recent scholarship, academics have focused primarily on areas of conflict between Blacks and Jews; yet in the long struggle to bring social justice to American society, these two groups have often worked as allies in both the organized labor and the civil rights movements. Demonstrating the complexity of the relationship of Blacks and Jews in America, African Americans and Jews in the Twentieth Century examines the competition and solidarity that have characterized Black Jewish interactions over the past century. These essays provide an intellectual foundation for cooperative efforts to improve social justice in our society and are an invaluable resource for the study of race relations in twentieth century America. Sweet Land of Liberty Thomas J. Sugrue, 2008-11-04 The struggle for racial equality in the North has been a footnote in most books about civil rights in America Now this monumental new work from one of the most brilliant historians of his generation sets the record straight Sweet Land of Liberty is an epic revelatory account of the abiding quest for justice in states from Illinois to New York and of how the intense northern struggle differed from and was inspired by the fight down South Thomas Sugrue's panoramic view sweeps from the 1920s to the present more than eighty of the most decisive years in American history He uncovers the forgotten stories of battles to open up lunch counters beaches and movie theaters in the North the untold history of struggles against Jim Crow schools in northern towns the dramatic story of racial conflict in northern cities and suburbs and the long and tangled histories of integration and black power Appearing throughout these tumultuous tales of bigotry and resistance are the people who propelled progress such as Anna Arnold Hedgeman a dedicated churchwoman who in the 1930s became both a member of New York's black elite and an increasingly radical activist A Philip Randolph who as America teetered on the brink of World War II dared to threaten FDR with a march on Washington to protest discrimination and got the Fair Employment Practices Committee the second Emancipation Proclamation as a result Morris Milgram a white activist who built the Concord Park housing development the interracial answer to white Levittown and Herman Ferguson a mild mannered New York teacher whose protest of a Queens construction site led him to become a key player in the militant Malcolm X s movement Filled with unforgettable characters and riveting incidents and making use of information and accounts both public and private such as the writings of obscure African American journalists and the records of civil rights and black power groups Sweet Land of Liberty creates an indelible history Thomas Sugrue has written a narrative bound to become the standard source on this essential subject
