Contacts in the Modern World Franklin E. Frazier, 2017 African American Lives Henry Louis Gates, Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2004-04-29 The first book of its kind since 1982 s Dictionary of American Negro Biography African American Lives leads us into a new era of African American biographical scholarship In collaboration with Oxford University Press and the American Council of Learned Societies and with contributions from over four hundred scholars and experts in many fields the editors and their staff at the W E B Du Bois Institute for African and African American Research at Harvard University have collected in this single volume the lives of many of the most important and most interesting names in African American history BOOK JACKET The End of Black Studies Clovis E. Semmes, 2016-08-12 Following a history of racial oppression and segregation Black Americans were able to move in greater numbers into previously all or predominantly White colleges and universities However they encountered normative structures that excluded or distorted the Black experience and denied Black perspectives As a result Black studies grew up reconstructing the humanity of a historically oppressed devalued and exploited group Knowledge production in Black studies offers distinct insights into the strength and resiliency of the human spirit and poses exemplary models for enlightened social change This book examines the foundational parameters and historical mission of the field of African American Studies which emerged from a broad based Black intellectual tradition defined by the metaproblem of cultural hegemony Semmes seeks to broaden our thinking about the scope and content of Black studies The End of Black Studies identifies Afrocentric or Black centered approaches to knowledge production that are distinctly different from yet inclusive of a historiographical emphasis on ancient Egypt but alternative to the claim of a singular African worldview This book will appeal to students and scholars interested in the field of Black Studies including African American studies Africana studies Africology and Pan African studies It will be a source of critical discussion for graduate seminars examining theory building and or knowledge production research and writing in Black studies The End of Black Studies has received the 2017 Outstanding Book Award from the National Council for Black Studies Read the Introduction for free online using our eBook widget Racial Theories Michael Banton, 1998-04-28 3 Race as type

Race and Ethnicity Rodney D. Coates, 2004-10-01 Race and ethnicity much like water and air are all around us Yet race and ethnicity remain imprevius to many of us Hence in this volume authors were challenged to think outside the box As such scholars were encouraged to dare to contemplate to evaluate and analyze issues regarding race and ethnicity from radically different perspectives This critical process required them to evaluate their own assumptions and those of their respective disciplines Therefore much like walking a tight rope without a net the scholars attempt to free themselves from the disciplinarian blinders that often preclude the development of fresh insights Collectively the papers challenge the way we conceive and perceive of race and ethnicity As a consequence they go past the ideological constraints that normally limit such discourse by disciplinarian boundaries or disciplinarian myopia Therefore these papers provide a critical reappraisal of race and ethnicity Mixed Blood Paul R. Spickard, 1989 Mixed Blood serves an important function in drawing together a far ranging set of experiences all of which bear on the phenomenon of intermarriage from publisher s site
