Race And Racism In Modern Philosophy:

Race and Racism in Modern Philosophy Andrew Valls, 2005 An innovative substantial intervention in critical race theory this book brings together an impressive roster of thinkers to trace the question of race in modern philosophical inquiry and explore its influence on contemporary philosophy Nature, Human Nature, & Human Difference Justin E. H. Smith, 2015-06-30 People have always been xenophobic but an explicit philosophical and scientific view of human racial difference only began to emerge during the modern period Why and how did this happen Surveying a range of philosophical and natural scientific texts dating from the Spanish Renaissance to the German Enlightenment Nature Human Nature and Human Difference charts the evolution of the modern concept of race and shows that natural philosophy particularly efforts to taxonomize and to order nature played a crucial role Smith demonstrates how the denial of moral equality between Europeans and non Europeans resulted from converging philosophical and scientific developments including a declining belief in human nature s universality and the rise of biological classification. The racial typing of human beings grew from the need to understand humanity within an all encompassing system of nature alongside plants minerals primates and other animals While racial difference as seen through science did not arise in order to justify the enslavement of people it became a rationalization and buttress for the practices of trans Atlantic slavery From the work of Fran ois Bernier to G W Leibniz Immanuel Kant and others Smith delves into philosophy s part in the legacy and damages of modern racism With a broad narrative stretching over two centuries Nature Human Nature and Human Difference takes a critical historical look at how the racial categories that we divide ourselves into came into being Kant and the Concept of Race ,2013-09-04 Kant and the Concept of Race features translations of four texts by Immanuel Kant frequently designated his Racenschriften race essays in which he develops and defends an early theory of race Also included are translations of essays by four of Kant s contemporaries E A W Zimmermann Georg Forster Christoph Meiners and Christoph Girtanner which illustrate that Kant s interest in the subject of race was part of a larger discussion about human differences one that impacted the development of scientific fields ranging from natural history to physical anthropology to biology (Un)Doing History Vanita Seth, 2025-03-31 Against the grain of much contemporary scholarship within medieval studies this work emphasizes the radical alterity and historical rupture that the Middle Ages represents in European history Through an engagement with three contentious debates in medieval studies historiography race and individuated subjectivity Vanita Seth's work employs postcolonial and postmodern theorizing to explore questions of ontology epistemology facial privileging and emotion and identity in the European Middle Ages and early modern period While the subject matter of this book is historical the stakes are contemporary and political Seth's contention is that it is the very alterity that the medieval represents that enables contemporary scholars and activists to recognize as historical that which is so often posited as natural Writing a history of absence while also engaging radically different ways of being in the world this book argues helps to disrupt the self evident naturalization of the face to contest knee jerk celebrations of individuality tethered to the human visage and to recognize racism not as an age old nemesis but as a distinctly modern form of organizing power This work is interdisciplinary engaging scholarship in science studies philosophy feminist theory anthropology race studies and literature and postmodern and postcolonial theory It presumes no prior specialized knowledge in medieval studies and or history This book is an essential reading for scholars and students in the fields of medieval and early modern history race historiography identity and emotion Confucian Feminism Li-Hsiang Lisa Rosenlee, 2024-08-22 In Confucian Feminism Li Hsiang Lisa Rosenlee expands the theoretical horizons of feminism by using characteristic Confucian terms methods and concerns to interrogate the issue of gender oppression and liberation With its theoretical roots in the Confucian textual tradition this is the first re imagining of Confucianism that enriches and is enriched by feminism Incorporating distinctive Confucian conceptual tools such as ren benevolent governance xiao filial care you friendship li ritual and datong great community Rosenlee creates an ethic of care that is feminist and Confucian At the same time she confronts the issue of gender inequity in Confucian thought Her hybrid feminist theory not only broadens the range of feminist understandings of the roots of gender oppression but opens up what we believe constitutes gender liberation for women transnationally and transculturally Here is a practical ethic that uses Confucianism to navigate the contours of inequality in everyday life The Burdens of Empire Anthony Pagden, 2015-03-16 The entire course of modern Western history has been shaped by the rise and fall of the great European empires The Burdens of Empire examines different aspects of this long history focusing on how political theorists jurists historians and others sought to explain what an empire is and to justify its very existence Black Rights/White Wrongs Charles W. Mills, 2017-03-01 Liberalism is the political philosophy of equal persons yet liberalism has refused equality to those it saw as sub persons Liberalism is the creed of fairness yet liberalism has been complicit with European imperialism and African slavery Liberalism is the classic ideology of Enlightenment and political transparency yet liberalism has cast a dark veil over its actual racist past and present In sum liberalism's promise of equal rights has historically been denied to blacks and other people of color In Black Rights White Wrongs The Critique of Racial Liberalism political philosopher Charles Mills challenges mainstream accounts that ignore this history and its current legacy in self conceived liberal polities today Mills argues that rather than bracket as an anomaly the role of racism in the development of liberal theory we should see it as shaping that theory in fundamental ways As feminists have urged us to see the dominant form of liberalism as a patriarchal liberalism so too Mills suggests we should see it as a racialized liberalism It is unsurprising then if contemporary liberalism has yet to deliver on the recognition of black rights and the correction of white wrongs These essays look at racial liberalism past and present white ignorance as a guilty ignoring of social reality that facilitates white racial domination Immanuel Kant's role as the most important liberal theorist of both personhood and sub personhood the centrality of racial exploitation in the United States and the evasion of white supremacy in John Rawls's ideal theory framing of social justice and in the work of most other contemporary white political philosophers Nonetheless Mills still believes that a deracialized liberalism is both possible and desirable He concludes by calling on progressives to Occupy liberalism and develop accordingly a radical liberalism aimed at achieving racial justice Utilitarianism as a Way of Life Bart Schultz, 2024-08-20 Utilitarianism a commitment to the greatest happiness for the greatest number has been the target of endless opposition According to its critics it ignores the separateness of persons cannot secure the protections of basic rights demands extreme sacrifice can justify anything the list goes on It has been implicated in the horrors of settler colonialism imperialism and racial capitalism both historically and today as the neoliberal world order faces a profound legitimation crisis Bart Schultz argues that utilitarian philosophy must be decolonized and reimagined for the current moment a time of new and looming existential threats in a world desperate for social change Where dominant ethical and political approaches have failed to adequately deal with the enormous challenges we face utilitarianism as a set of lived practices not simply a theoretical construction may hold out some hope of seriously addressing them Drawing on alternatives to the well known Eurocentric story of utilitarianism and an extensive review and critique of that story and incorporating the works of Peter Singer Katarzyna de Lazari Radek Derek Parfit Martha Nussbaum and other major philosophers Schultz crafts a groundbreaking new framework of utilitarianism born of struggle and resistance Utilitarianism as a Way of Life is an essential text for scholars and students of philosophy political science economics decolonization studies gender studies psychology environmental studies and related fields Racisms Made in Germany Wulf Dietmar Hund, Christian Koller, Mosche Zimmermann, 2011 This book examines racism in Germany and includes the following essays Racisms Made in Germany Without Sonderweg to a Rupture in Civilization Between Jew Hatred and Racism The German Invention of Antisemitism It Must Come from Europe The Racisms of Immanuel Kant Antisemitism and Colonial Racism Transnational and Interdiscursive Intersectionality Racist Fantasies Africa in Austrian and German African Studies From Disagreement to Dissension African Perspectives on Germany Purification of the National Body Racial Policy and Racial Murder in the Third Reich Between Race and Class Elite Racism in Contemporary Germany Racism Analysis in Germany The Development in the Federal Republic Seeing Color in Classical Art Jennifer M. of a reception history that has emphasized whiteness revealing how ancient artistic practice and ancient philosophies of color significantly influenced one another The Human in a Dehumanizing World Coblentz, Jessica, Horan, OFM, Daniel P.,2022-04-20 CTS annual volume focusing on dehumanization and theological anthropology in such areas as sexual harassment racial justice and decolonization Becoming Human Zakiyyah Iman Jackson, 2020-05-19 Winner 2021 Gloria E Anzald a Book Prize given by the National Women's Studies Association Winner 2021 Harry Levin Prize given by the American Comparative Literature Association Winner 2021 Lambda Literary Award in LGBTQ Studies Argues that Blackness disrupts our essential ideas of race gender and ultimately the human Rewriting the pernicious enduring relationship between Blackness and animality in the history of Western science and philosophy Becoming Human Matter and Meaning in an Antiblack World breaks open the rancorous debate between Black critical theory and posthumanism Through the cultural terrain of literature by Toni Morrison Nalo Hopkinson Audre Lorde and Octavia Butler the art of Wangechi Mutu and Ezrom Legae and the oratory of Frederick Douglass Zakiyyah Iman Jackson both critiques and displaces the racial logic that has dominated scientific thought since the Enlightenment In so doing Becoming Human demonstrates that the history of racialized gender and maternity specifically anti Blackness is indispensable to future thought on matter materiality animality and posthumanism Jackson argues that African diasporic cultural production alters the meaning of being human and engages in imaginative practices of world building against a history of the bestialization and thingification of Blackness the process of imagining the Black person as an empty vessel a non being an ontological zero and the violent imposition of colonial myths of racial hierarchy She creatively responds to the animalization of Blackness by generating alternative frameworks of thought and relationality that not only disrupt the racialization of the human animal distinction found in Western science and philosophy but also challenge the epistemic and material terms under which the specter of animal life acquires its authority What emerges is a radically unruly sense of a being knowing feeling existence one that necessarily ruptures the foundations of the human Enlightened Colonialism Damien Tricoire, 2017-08-11 This book further qualifies the postcolonial thesis and shows its limits To reach these goals it links text analysis and political history on a global comparative scale Focusing on imperial agents their narratives of progress and their political aims and strategies it asks whether Enlightenment gave birth to a new colonialism between 1760 and 1820 Has Enlightenment provided the cultural and intellectual origins of modern colonialism For decades historians of political thought philosophy and literature have debated this question On one side many postcolonial authors believe that enlightened rationalism helped delegitimize non European cultures On the other side some historians of ideas and literature are willing to defend at least some eighteenth century philosophers whom they consider to have been anti colonialists Surprisingly enough both sides have focused on literary and philosophical texts but have rarely taken political and social practice into account Grounds for Respect Kristi Giselsson, 2012-01-01 Grounds for Respect broaches a question that is of vital importance to all namely what grounds do we need in order to justify respect for others In exploring this question the author provides not only a critical overview of traditional and contemporary approaches to and critiques of the concept of a common humanity but also offers a distinctively new approach as to what it might mean to be human Beyond the Pale Miguel A.
