Richard H. King

Race Culture And Equality:

Race, Culture, and Equality , Features Race Culture and Equality an essay written by Thomas Sowell and presented online by the Hoover Institution based at Stanford University The essay discusses the economic and social impacts of cultural differences among peoples and nations around the world Race, Culture, and the Intellectuals, 1940-1970 Richard H. King, 2004-08-17 To study this transition from universalism to cultural particularism Richard King focuses on the arguments of major thinkers movements and traditions of thought attempting to construct a map of the ideological positions that were staked out and an intellectual history of this transition Race, Culture, and Evolution George W. Stocking, 1982-04-15 We have at long last a real historian with real historical skills and no intra professional ax to grind All these pieces show the virtues one finds missing in nearly all of anthropological history work but Stocking s extensive and critical use of archival sources tracing of real rather than merely plausible intellectual connections and contextualization of ideas and movements in terms of broader social and cultural currents Stocking writes very clearly attacks important topics race and evolution the influence of scientism the interaction between anthropology and other disciplines and is methodologically very sophisticated Though his main theme is the development of racialism and of opposition to it his book bears on a range of issues very much alive in anthropology I would think no apprentice anthropologist ought to be pronounced a journeyman until he or she has absorbed what Stocking has to say Clifford Geertz The Institute for Advanced Study Princeton Race, Culture, Psychology, and Law Kimberly Barrett, William H George, 2005 In a diverse democracy law must be open to all All too often however our system of justice has failed to live up to our shared ideals because it excludes individuals and communities even as they seek to use it or find themselves caught up in it The research presented here offers hope The abstract doctrines of the law are presented through real cases Judges lawyers scholars and concerned citizens will find much in these pages documenting the need for reform along with the means for achieving our aspirations The issues presented by race ethnicity and cultural differences are obviously central to the resolution of disputes in a nation made up of people who have in common only their faith in the great experiment of the United States Constitution Here the challenges are met in an original accessible and thoughtful manner Frank H Wu Howard University and author of Yellow Race in America Beyond Black and White Kim Barrett and William George have taken on an enormous task which is matched only by its timeliness Cultural competence and cultural diversity pass off our lips as eternally valued ideals but Barrett and George have brought a critical and edifying eye to thee ideas Racism is similarly easy to acknowledge but difficult to account for in the everyday lives of ordinary people of color What we discover in this impressive volume is not only that race and culture matter but how they matter in the minds of people who are clients and the minds of people who attempt to serve them and in the courts of law that attempt to mete out justice Race Culture Psychology and the Law is essential reading for anyone with a professional or personal interest in social justice and psychological well being James M Jones Ph D Director Minority Fellowship Program

What is Africanness? Contesting nativism in race, culture and sexualities Charles Ngwena, 2018-01-01 What is Africanness Contesting nativism in race culture and sexualities by Charles Ngwena 2018 ISBN 978 1 920538 82 8 Pages 306 Print version Available Electronic version Free PDF available About the publication What is Africanness Contesting nativism in culture race and sexualities by Charles Ngwena Professor of Law at the Centre for Human Rights Faculty of Law University of Pretoria is a peer reviewed monograph aiming to contribute to the ongoing scholarly conversation in and beyond South Africa about who is African and what is African It aims to implicate a reductive sameness in the naming of Africans nativism by showing its teleology and effects and offers an alternative understanding of how Africans can be named or can name themselves The book develops an epistemology for constructing the hermeneutics of Africanness today long after the primal colonial moment and its debasing racialising ideology It interrogates the making of Africa in colonial discourses and the making of an African race and African culture s and sexuality ies in ways that are not just historically conscious but also have a heuristic capacity to contest nativism from the outside as well as from within The arguments in this book go beyond problematising African identity by addressing an existential gap in theory for explicating African social identity The book develops an interpretive method a hermeneutics for locating and deciphering African identifications in ways that are historically conscious and conjunctural The hermeneutics look to the present and the future in addition to the past so that African identifications are not nailed to a mast but remain invested with mobility and the capacity to mutate radically and make new and unexpected beginnings

Comments Charles Ngwena s timely and original book is a wonderful read rich in theory and insight and an essential companion for those interested in exploring the multiplicity of histories cultures and subjectivities that constitute the diversity of Africanness and African identities Professor Cathi Albertyn School of Law University of the Witwatersrand Editor South African Journal on Human Rights This is a brilliant exploration of liberating and affirming ways to speak of African identities and sexualities reminding us there can be creative beauty where pain and dispossession have resided Rudo Chigudu Centre for Human Rights University of Pretoria This is a masterpiece Not only does the author capture the discourse and debates on Africanness he aptly examines them before offering his views on decentring the race of Africanness with the important recognition of Africa as land of diverse identifications Prof Serges Djoyou Kamga Thabo Mbeki African Leadership Institute UNISA

Race and Culture in Psychiatry (Psychology Revivals) Suman Fernando, 2014-10-14 As psychiatry has developed it has proved to be susceptible to the influence of contemporary social and political mores With its origins in nineteenth century Europe psychiatry evolved as an ethnocentric body of knowledge the vehicle of implicit and overt racism Originally published in 1988 this author however saw no reason why the contemporary psychiatrist should not challenge this ethnocentrism He provides a critical account of the development of psychiatry in relation to its cultural context and then examined contemporary practice of the time in the light of this development Throughout the book is informed by an awareness of issues of race and culture and of their difficult interactions the author emphasising both the frequency of racist attitudes and the very real cultural distinctions in our society distinctions that can be used to mask what are actually racist sentiments What emerges is not just a plea for an anti racist culture sensitive psychiatry but a blueprint for how this can be brought about He argued that the shift towards community work and social psychiatry could reorientate the profession by confronting it with its social setting and responsibilities This book represented a significant contribution to this literature for all mental health professionals and social scientists with an interest in this field at the time the author has gone on to write many more What the Bible REALLY Says About the Origins of Race, Culture, and Humanity Ahmed Musa,2024-12-09 Prepare to have your mind blown wide open What if everything you thought you knew about the origins of race culture and humanity was just scratching the surface What if the answers to today s most controversial questions weren t hidden in the shadows but lying right in front of us in the pages of the Bible This isn t another dull theological study This is the truth bomb the world needs right now In this groundbreaking book we pull back the curtain on the greatest story ever told and reveal The real reason humanity is divided into different races and cultures hint it s NOT random How ancient texts hold the secret to humanity s shared origin and our future Why modern narratives about diversity fall short compared to the Bible s timeless wisdom The one undeniable truth about human unity that the world keeps ignoring This is the antidote to the noise of today s world Whether you re a skeptic a seeker or a believer this book will challenge your assumptions ignite your curiosity and leave you seeing the world in a completely new light No fluff No sugarcoating Just raw biblical truth delivered like a lightning bolt straight to your soul WARNING Once you read this you can t unsee it Are you ready to uncover what the Bible REALLY says about race culture and humanity Click that button crack open this book and let the truth set you free The journey starts now Handbook of Research on Race, Culture, and Student Achievement Keengwe, Jared,2023-01-13 There is growing pressure on teachers and other educators to understand and adopt culturally relevant pedagogies as well as strategies to work with diverse groups of races cultures and languages that are represented in classrooms Establishing sound cross cultural pedagogy is also critical given that racial cultural and linguistic integration has the potential to increase academic success for all learners The Handbook of Research on Race Culture and Student Achievement highlights cross cultural perspectives challenges and opportunities of providing equitable educational opportunities for marginalized students and improving student achievement Additionally it examines how race and culture impact student achievement in an effort to promote cultural competence equity inclusion and social justice in education Covering topics such as identity student achievement and global education this major reference work is ideal for researchers scholars academicians librarians policymakers practitioners educators and students Race, Culture and Community Care ,1997 What is Race? Joshua Glasgow,Sally Anne Haslanger,Chike Jeffers,Quayshawn Spencer,2019 In this debate format book four philosophers Joshua Glasgow Sally Haslanger Chike Jeffers and Quayshawn Spencer articulate contrasting views on race Each author presents a distinct viewpoint on what race is and then replies to the others offering theories that are clear and accessible to undergraduates lay readers and non specialists as well as other philosophers of race The Culturalization of Caste in India Balmurli Natrajan,2011-07-20 In India caste groups ensure their durability in an era of multiculturalism by officially representing caste as cultural difference or ethnicity rather than as unequal descent based relations Challenging dominant social theories of caste this book addresses questions of how caste survives the system that gave rise to it and adapts to new demands of capitalism and democracy Based on original fieldwork the book shows how the terrain of culture captured by a new grammar of caste revitalizes castes as cultural communities so that the culture of a caste is produced organized and naturalized in the process of transforming jati fetishized blood and kinship into samaj fetishized culture Castes are shown to not be homogenous cultural wholes but sites of hegemony where class gender and hierarchy over determine the meanings and materiality of caste Arguing that there exists a new casteism in India akin to a new racism in the USA built less on biology and descent and more on purported cultural differences and their rights to exist the book presents an extended critique and a search for an alternative view of caste and anti casteist politics It is of interest to students and scholars of South Asian culture and society The Oxford Handbook of W. Race in Translation Robert Stam,Ella Shohat,2012-05-28 While the term culture wars often designates the heated arguments in the English speaking world spiraling around race the canon and affirmative action in fact these discussions have raged in diverse sites and languages Race in Translation charts the transatlantic traffic of the debates within and between three zones the U S France and Brazil Stam and Shohat trace the literal and figurative translation of these multidirectional intellectual debates seen most recently in the emergence of postcolonial studies in France and whiteness studies in Brazil The authors also interrogate an ironic convergence whereby rightist politicians like Sarkozy and Cameron join hands with some leftist intellectuals like Bhabha and Bourdieu in condemning multiculturalism and identity politics At once a report from various fronts in the culture wars a mapping of the germane literatures and an argument about methods of reading the cross border movement of ideas the book constitutes a major contribution to our understanding of the Diasporic and the Transnational

Re-producing Chineseness in Southeast Asia Chih-yu Shih,2017-10-02 Identity politics can impede Chinese identification in southeast Asia because the migrant population particularly the intellectual aspect of that population have to consider the political effects of their intellectual and social activities on the survival of Chinese communities Similarly these communities have to deal with the necessity of nation building in the aftermath of the Second World War which required integration rather than the exaggeration of differences Consequently restriction on self understanding as well as self representation has become more than apparent in Chinese migrant communities in southeast Asia With this in mind identity politics can inspire self understanding among the migrant communities as intellectuals rediscover how humanism can enable a claim of Chineseness that can be registered differently and creatively in a variety of national conditions Migrant communities generally understand the importance of political accuracy and this being accurate involves subscribing to pragmatism something which is apparent in the scholarship and creative outputs of these communities Humanism and pragmatism together are the epistemological parameters of self representation whereas civilizational and ethnic studies are their methodological parameters This book was originally published as a special issue of Asian Ethnicity
