Race Ethnicity Gender Selected Rdgs:

Race, Ethnicity, and Gender Joseph F. Healey, Eileen O'Brien, 2007-05-08 The Second Edition of Race Ethnicity and Gender Selected Readings offers comprehensive varied and highly readable views of the problems of racism and sexism in American society Editors Joseph F Healey and Eileen T O'Brien present a variety of perspectives on some of the most pressing problems facing American society racism and prejudice inequality and discrimination and assimilation and pluralism This new edition includes historical perspectives case studies of minority groups a strong emphasis on gender clashing perspectives on contemporary problems and a chapter on solutions

Gods in the Global Village Lester R. Kurtz, 2012 In an era plagued by religious conflict the Third Edition of Gods in the Global Village directly responds to issues of social problems prevalent in the world today Using an engaging thought provoking style author Lester R Kurtz focuses on the relationship among the major faith traditions that inform the thinking and ethical standards of most people in the emerging global social order This book focuses on a central aspect of that common crisis A major assumption of this book is that all knowledge is shaped by the social context of the knower therefore both religious traditions and our studies of them are shaped by the context in which we construct them The author argues that religious pluralism will be a necessary precondition of the global village for the foreseeable future The question that faces us as a human community is not Which religious tradition is true or even Is any religious tradition true but rather How can we enable the various religious and secular traditions to coexist peacefully on the planet The text supports the belief that the sociology of religion itself a pluralistic discipline can provide invaluable insight into the most pressing problems of our time

Extreme Deviance Erich Goode, D. Angus Vail, 2008 This book takes a look at normative violations that earn the violators a deviant identity in the eyes of the members of mainstream society And so serious likewise that the lives of violators do revolve around the actions the beliefs or the characteristics as well as the consequences such violations have mainly with respect to the social reactions they generate in others When others really don't like what you do believe or are they usually let you know that in no uncertain terms and this is likely to drastically alter your life

Sociology David M. Newman, Jodi O'Brien, 2008-01-07 This carefully edited companion anthology provides provocative eye opening examples of the practice of sociology in a well edited well designed and affordable format It includes short articles chapters and excerpts that examine common everyday experiences important social issues or distinct historical events that illustrate the relationship between the individual and society The new edition will provide more detail regarding the theory and or history related to each issue presented The revision will also include more coverage of global issues and world religions

Sociological Theory in the Classical Era Laura Desfor Edles, Scott Appelrouth, 2005 Sociological Theory in the Classical Era A Text and Readings is a hybrid between a reader and a secondary text It combines the major writings of sociology's core classical theorists with a historical as well as theoretical framework for understanding them The book provides not just a biographical and theoretical summary of each theorist but also examines compares and contrasts each theorists major themes and concepts The book is packed with pedagogical devices and visual aids such as charts figures and photographs to help summarize key concepts illuminate complex ideas and provoke student interest No other theory text combines such student friendly explanation and analysis with original theoretical works

The Truth about Crime Jean Comaroff, John L. Comaroff, 2016-12-05 In this book renowned anthropologists Jean and John L Comaroff make a startling but absolutely convincing claim about our modern era it is not by our arts our politics or our science that we understand ourselves it is by our crimes Surveying an astonishing range of forms of crime and policing from petty thefts to the multibillion dollar scams of too big to fail financial institutions to the collateral damage of war they take readers into the disorder of the late modern world Looking at recent transformations in the triangulation of capital the state and governance that have led to an era where crime and policing are ever more complicit they offer a powerful meditation on the new forms of sovereignty citizenship class race law and political economy of representation that have arisen To do so the Comaroffs draw on their vast knowledge of South Africa especially and its struggle to build a democracy founded on the rule of law out of the wreckage of long years of violence and oppression There they explore everything from the fascination with the supernatural in policing to the extreme measures people take to prevent home invasion drawing illuminating comparisons to the United States and United Kingdom Going beyond South Africa they offer a global criminal anthropology that attests to criminality as the constitutive fact of contemporary life the vernacular by which politics are conducted moral panics voiced and populations ruled The result is a disturbing but necessary portrait of the modern era one that asks critical new questions about how we see ourselves how we think about morality and how we are going to proceed as a global society

Group Processes Rupert Brown, Samuel Pehrson, 2019-12-05 The new edition of the classic text on group dynamics theory and research extensively revised expanded and updated Offering a critical appraisal of theory and research on groups Group Processes Dynamics with and Between Groups is one of the most respected texts in the field This comprehensive volume covers all the essential dynamics of group processes and intergroup relations ranging from group formation norms social influence and leadership to group aggression prejudice solidarity intergroup contact and collective action Contemporary examples and plentiful charts graphs and illustrations complement discussions of the latest themes and current controversies in group psychology Now in its third edition this book has been thoroughly revised with a significant amount of new and updated content New topics include the contribution of groups to health and wellbeing group based emotions hierarchy and oppression intergroup helping and solidarity acculturation and reconciliation Sections on social influence crowd behavior leadership prejudice collective action and intergroup contact have been comprehensively revised and updated to reflect two decades of development in these fields Three inter linked themes social identity social context and social action illustrate the influence of groups on self and self worth the meaning and consequences of membership in groups and how groups can be vehicles for members to achieve change in their environments A key text in the field for over thirty years Group Processes Offers broad balanced coverage of group processes including in depth examination of intergroup relations Incorporates theoretical themes inspired by the social identity perspective Includes topical examples drawn from the world of politics popular culture and sports Provides up to date content on major new developments in the field Integrates modern theory current research and classic sources Group Processes Dynamics with and Between Groups 3rd Edition is ideal for core reading in undergraduate and postgraduate courses in social psychology particularly in modules dedicated to group processes and intergroup relations The Racial Middle Eileen O'Brien, 2008-06 The divide over race is usually framed as one over Black and White Sociologist Eileen O'Brien is interested in that middle terrain what sits in the ever increasing gray area she dubbed the racial middle The Racial Middle tells the story of the other racial and ethnic groups in America mainly Latinos and Asian Americans two of the largest and fastest growing minorities in the United States Using dozens of in depth interviews with people of various ethnic and generational backgrounds Eileen O'Brien challenges the notion that to fit into American culture the only options available to Latinos and Asian Americans are either to become white or to become brown Instead she offers a wholly unique analysis of Latinos and Asian Americans own distinctive experiences those that aren't typically White nor Black Though living alongside Whites and Blacks certainly frames some of their own identities and interpretations of race O'Brien keenly observes that these groups struggles with discrimination their perceived isolation from members of other races and even how they define racial justice are all significant realities that inform their daily lives and importantly influence their opportunities for advancement in society A refreshing and lively approach to understanding race and ethnicity in the twenty first century The Racial Middle gives voice to Latinos and Asian Americans place in this country's increasingly complex racial mosaic

Minerals, Collecting, and Value across the US-Mexico Border Elizabeth Emma Ferry, 2013-06-19 A jewel to those interested in ore mining mineral collecting and mineralogy or the anthropology of value American Ethnologist Anthropologist Elizabeth Emma Ferry traces the movement of minerals as they circulate from Mexican mines to markets museums and private collections on both sides of the United States Mexico border She describes how and why these byproducts of ore mining come to be valued by people in various walks of life as scientific specimens religious offerings works of art and luxury collectibles The story of mineral exploration and trade defines a variegated transnational space shedding new light on the complex relationship between these two countries and on the process of making value itself A novel contribution to the anthropology of natural resources Journal of Latin American and Caribbean Anthropology Highly recommended Choice
