Turning to Earth F. Marina Schauffler, 2003 Turning to Earth offers a window into the heart of environmental change moving beyond the culture s traditional reliance on policy reforms and technological measures It charts the course of ecological conversion a dynamic inner process by which people come to ally themselves with the natural world and speak out on its behalf Stories by ecological converts illuminate a critical realm long neglected by environmental scholars and activists how the terrain of spirit psyche and conscience shape our commitment to Earth Marina Schauffler s engaging exploration of inner ecology deftly weaves together numerous autobiographical accounts with insights from the fields of ecocriticism ecopsychology environmental philosophy and environmental education An opening portrait of the writer and activist Terry Tempest Williams traces her deepening devotion to Earth Each subsequent chapter explores a key element of ecological conversion drawing primarily on the personal testimony of Williams and five other pioneering writers Rachel Carson Alice Walker Edward Abbey Scott Russell Sanders and N Scott Momaday Turning to Earth extends the parameters of contemporary environmental discussion by illustrating how substantive change hinges not just on political and institutional reforms but also on profound inner transformation The compelling life narratives of ecological converts provide inspiration and direction for the growing number of activists educators scholars and citizens committed to changing the world from the inside out

Earth's Wild Music Kathleen Dean Moore, 2022-02-22 At once joyous and somber this thoughtful gathering of new and selected essays spans Kathleen Dean Moore s distinguished career as a tireless advocate for environmental activism in the face of climate change In this meditation on the music of the natural world Moore celebrates the call of loons howl of wolves bellow of whales laughter of children and shriek of frogs even as she warns of the threats against them Each group of essays moves as Moore herself has been moved from celebration to lamentation to bewilderment and finally to the determination to act in defense of wild songs and the creatures who sing them Music is the shivering urgency and exuberance of life ongoing In a time of terrible silencing Moore asks who will forgive us if we do not save nature s songs Great Books for Girls Kathleen Odean,2002 Evaluates fiction and nonfiction books featuring girls and women in positive roles ranking each entry by reading level
