Afro-Cuban Identity in Post-Revolutionary Novel and Film Andrea E. Morris, 2012 Afro Cuban Identity in Post Revolutionary Novel and Film examines the changing discourse on race as portrayed in Cuban novels and films produced after 1959 Andrea Easley Morris analyzes the artists participation in and questioning of the revolutionary government's revision of national identity to include the unique experience and contributions of Cuban men and women of African descent While the Cuban revolution brought sweeping changes that vastly improved the material condition of many Afro Cubans at the time overrepresented among Cuba's poor and marginalized the government's official position was that racial inequities had been resolved as early as 1962 Although a more open dialogue on race was cut short the work of several novelists and film directors from the late 1960s and 70s expresses the need to explore what was gained and lost by Afro Cubans in the early years of the revolution among them Manuel Granados Miguel Barnet Nivaria Tejera Sara Gomez Cesar Leante Tomas Gutierrez Alea Sergio Giral and Manuel Cofi o Their works participate in the process of redefining Cuban national identity that took place after the revolution and more specifically they explore the place of Afro Cuban identity within a broader notion of revolutionary Cubanness This occurs through an emphasis on Afro Cuban cultural practices that have constituted forms of resistance to colonial and neo colonial oppression This book examines the identity conflicts portrayed in these works and takes into account the artists negotiation of their own status within the revolutionary context by looking at the narrative strategies used to address racial issues within the constraints placed on cultural production in Cuba after 1962

Love and Politics in the Contemporary Spanish American Novel Aníbal González, 2010-02-01 The Latin American Literary Boom was marked by complex novels steeped in magical realism and questions of nationalism often with themes of surreal violence In recent years however those revolutionary projects of the sixties and seventies have given way to quite a different narrative vision and ideology Dubbed the new sentimentalism this trend is now keenly elucidated in Love and Politics in the Contemporary Spanish American Novel Offering a rich account of the rise of this new mode as well as its political and cultural implications Anibal González delivers a close reading of novels by Miguel Barnet Elena Poniatowska Isabel Allende Alfredo Bryce Echenique Gabriel García Márquez Antonio Skarmeta Luis Rafael Sánchez and others González proposes that new sentimental novels are inspired principally by a desire to heal the division rancor and fear produced by decades of social and political upheaval Valuing pop culture above the avant garde such works also tend to celebrate agape the love of one's neighbor while denouncing the negative effects of passion eros Illuminating these and other aspects of post Boom prose Love and Politics in the Contemporary Spanish American Novel takes a fresh look at contemporary works Living for Shalom Jeanette Woods, 2021-08-31 Ross Langmead will be remembered as one of Australia's leading missiologists having established his credentials as a young man in founding Westgate Baptist Community after writing a report on the struggling churches in the west of Melbourne His distinguished academic and teaching career led him to join the faculty at Whitley College until his death in 2013 He will also be remembered for his seventies folk group Daddy's Friends and the songs of love and justice he wrote over forty five years that are still sung today This biography starts with his missionary family upbringing and traces the influences that shaped his passion for sharing Jesus with the urban poor He was a key player in the radical discipleship movement in Australia his understanding of incarnational mission was that Christians need to be the people of God just where they are Above all he lived simply that others might simply live his passion extending to ecomissiology and support for the unemployed indigenous and refugees He would want this book to inspire readers to make a difference in the world
