Racial Negotiations, Potentials & Limitations William Ellison Chalmers, 1974 Cooperation in Racial Conflict United States. Community Relations Service, 1977 Resolving Racial Conflict Bertram J. Levine, 2005

In 1964 when the Civil Rights Act was passed Congress wisely created an agency based in the U S Department of Justice to help forestall or resolve racial or ethnic disputes evolving from the act Mandated by law and by its own methodology to shun publicity the Community Relations Service developed self effacement to a fine art Thus the accomplishments as well as the shortcomings of this federal venture into conflict resolution are barely known in official Washington and even less so by the American public This first written history of the Community Relations Service uses the experiences of the men and women who sought to resolve the most volatile issues of the day to tell the fascinating story of this unfamiliar agency This multiracial cadre of conciliation and mediation specialists worked behind the scenes in more than 20 000 confrontations involving racial and ethnic minorities From Selma to Montgomery at the encampment of the Poor Peoples Campaign in Resurrection City to the urban riots of the sixties seventies and eighties from the school desegregation battles north and south at the siege of Wounded Knee and during the Texas Gulf Coast fishing wars between Southeast Asian refugees and Anglos these federal peacemakers lessened the atmosphere of racial violence in every major U S city and thousands of small towns These confrontations ranged from disputes that attracted worldwide attention to the everyday affronts assaults and upheavals that marked the nation s adjustment to wider power sharing within an increasingly diverse population While Resolving Racial Conflict examines some of the celebrated breakthroughs that made change possible it also delves deeply into the countless behind the scenes local efforts that converted possibility to reality Among the many themes in this book that provide new perspective for understanding racial conflict in America are the effects of protest and conflict in engineering social change the variety of civil rights views and experiences of African Americans Native Americans Asians and Hispanics the role of police in minority relations and the development and refinement of techniques for community conflict resolution from seat of the pants intervention to sophisticated professional practice Resolving Racial Conflict will appeal to students of civil rights and American history in both the general and academic communities as well as students of alternative dispute resolution and

Shaughnessy, 1992 In this book the author examines Norwegian approaches to conflict resolution that may be instructive for the United States He focuses on two major questions What can be done to relieve the criminal justice system of our city and state governments of their intolerable difficulties in delivering justice to the community and what can be done to help the citizen feel that the city cares and is concerned with the protection of basic social contract demands Contents General Background and Statement of the Problem Why Look to Norway The Development of Theory The Forliksra dene Concept and History Evolution of the Legal Structure The Boards in Action The Operations of the Forliksra dene The Police Prosecutor Fines and Sentencing Court A Day in the Oslo Criminal Court The Role of the Layman The KONFLIKTRAD Experiment in Lier Norway Contrasts and Conclusions Ideas for America Ethnicity, Conflict and Cooperation ,1991 Papers collected for the conference held in Detroit Oct 24 26 1991 Teaching About Culture, Ethnicity, and Diversity Theodore M. Chief Minister, 1986 Negotiating Boundaries in the City Joanna Herbert, 2016-04-22 Using in depth life story interviews and oral history archives this book explores the impact of South Asian migration from the 1950s onwards on both the local white

British born population and the migrants themselves Taking Leicester as a main case study identified as a European model of multicultural success Negotiating Boundaries in the City offers a historically grounded analysis of the human experiences of migration Joanna Herbert shows how migration created challenges for both existing residents and newcomers for both male and female migrants and explores how they perceived and negotiated boundaries within the local contexts of their everyday lives She explores the personal and collective narratives of individuals who might not otherwise appear in the historical records highlighting the importance of subjective everyday experiences The stories provide valuable insights into the nature of white ethnicity inter ethnic relations and the gendered nature of experiences and offer rich data lacking in existing theoretical accounts This book provides a radically different story about multicultural Britain and reveals the nuances of modern urban experiences which are lost in prevailing discourses of multiculturalism The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Communication John G. Oetzel, Stella Ting-Toomey, 2006-01-18 The SAGE Handbook of Conflict Communication Integrating Theory Research and Practice is the first resource to synthesize key theories research and practices of conflict communication in a variety of contexts Editors John Oetzel and Stella Ting Toomey as well as expert researchers in the field emphasize constructive conflict management from a communication perspective which places primacy in the message as the focus of conflict research and practice Negotiation Wynand D.
