The Interaction of Racial Discrimination and Economic Development Joan Hoffman, 1993 African Americans in the U.S. Economy Cecilia A. Conrad, John Whitehead, Patrick L. Mason, James Stewart, 2005-02-09 Over the last several decades academic discourse on racial inequality has focused primarily on political and social issues with significantly less attention on the complex interplay between race and economics African Americans in the U S Economy represents a contribution to recent scholarship that seeks to lessen this imbalance This book builds upon and significantly extends the principles terminology and methods of standard economics and black political economy Influenced by path breaking studies presented in several scholarly economic journals this volume is designed to provide a political economic analysis of the past and present economic status of African Americans The chapters in this volume represent the work of some of the nation s most distinguished scholars on the various topics presented The individual chapters cover several well defined areas including black employment and unemployment labor market discrimination black entrepreneurship racial economic inequality urban revitalization and black economic development The book is written in a style free of the technical jargon that characterizes most economics textbooks While the book is methodologically sophisticated it is accessible to a wide range of students and the general public and will appeal to academicians and practitioners alike African Americans in the U.S. Economy Cecilia Conrad, 2005 Over the last several decades academic discourse on racial inequality has focused primarily on political and social issues with significantly less attention on the complex interplay between race and economics African Americans in the U S Economy represents a contribution to recent scholarship that seeks to lessen this imbalance This book builds upon and significantly extends the principles terminology and methods of standard economics and black political economy Influenced by path breaking studies presented in several scholarly economic journals this volume is designed to provide a political economic analysis of the past and present economic status of African Americans The chapters in this volume represent the work of some of the nation s most distinguished scholars on the various topics presented The individual chapters cover several well defined areas including black employment and unemployment labor market discrimination black entrepreneurship racial economic inequality urban revitalization and black economic development The book is written in a style free of the technical jargon that characterizes most economics textbooks While the book is methodologically sophisticated it is accessible to a wide range of students and the general public and will appeal to academicians and practitioners alike Race, Politics, and Economic Development James Jennings, 1992 In April 1992 the world witnessed a

renewal in South Central Los Angeles of the urban violence that exploded over a quarter of a century earlier As in 1965 the spark that ignited the firestorm was Black rage over police brutality But in both eras the tinder was prepared by decades of social neglect and political disenfranchisement that have left the predominantly non white urban poor trapped and virtually without hope Race Politics and Economic Development strips away the veneer of mass media images to examine the underlying causes of Black urban poverty and to recommend means to escape the seemingly endless cycle of retributive violence that it spawns The book brings together Black activists and scholars including two former mayors of American cities to analyse the theoretical and practical problems currently facing the Black community in the United States The essays collected here are dominated by three key themes that political influence power and wealth are major factors in determining social welfare policies directed at Blacks the poor and the working class that both liberal and conservative policies over the last fifty years are no longer effective in alleviating a growing human service crisis among Blacks and that the political mobilization of impoverished sectors of the Black community is absolutely critical in resolving the problem of poverty in urban America Drawing on new work in the social sciences political theory and economics and also on the contributors activist experiences these essays represent a pathbreaking new agenda for the participation of grassroots Black leaders in developing and implementing urban policy Contributors Jeremiah Cotton Julianne Malveaux Mack H Jones Charles P Henry Walter Stafford William Fletcher Jr Eugene Newport Sheila Ards Jacqueline Pope Keith Jennings Lloyd Hogan Richard Hatcher The Handbook of Economic Development and Institutions Jean-Marie Baland, François

Bourguignon, Jean-Philippe Platteau, Thierry Verdier, 2020-01-21 The definitive reference on the most current economics of development and institutions The essential role that institutions play in understanding economic development has long been recognized across the social sciences including in economics Academic and policy interest in this subject has never been higher The Handbook of Economic Development and Institutions is the first to bring together in one single volume the most cutting edge work in this area by the best known international economists The volume s editors themselves leading scholars in the discipline provide a comprehensive introduction and the stellar contributors offer up to date analysis into institutional change and its interactions with the dynamics of economic development This book focuses on three critical issues the definitions of institutions in order to argue for a causal link to development the complex interplay between formal and informal institutions and the evolution and coevolution of institutions and their interactions with the political economy of development Topics examined include the relationship between institutions and growth educational systems the role of the media and the intersection between traditional systems of patronage and political institutions Each chapter covering the frontier research in its area and pointing to new areas of research is the product of extensive workshopping on the part of the contributors The definitive reference work on this topic The Handbook of Economic Development and Institutions will be essential for academics researchers and professionals working in the field The Political Economy of Human Behaviour and Economic Development Sangaralingam Ramesh,2022-09-24 This book explores how economics can be based around studies on human behaviour rather than relying on overly simplified assumptions generated from mathematical modelling Through examining the link between human economic activity and psychology specifically regarding the development of cognitive and non cognitive ability insight into the human dimensions of economic development and the sources of human inequality are provided This book aims to question assumptions of rationality utilised in neoclassical economic theory and suggest how economic activity can be better understood through a deeper recognition of human behaviour It will be relevant to students and researchers interested in the political economy and behavioural economics

The Theory and Experience of Economic Development Mark Gersovitz,Carlos F. Diaz-Alejandro,Gustav Ranis,Mark R. Rosenzweig,2012-08-06 This volume first published in 1982 is a collection of original essays written to honour Professor W Arthur Lewis 1979 co winner of the Nobel Prize in economics The authors an international group of distinguished scholars address a varied set of specific issues reflecting Professor Lewis research interests covering topics which include technological change in agriculture analyses of unemployment and income distribution the role of government policy in the development process the historical record of development and the relationship between developed and developing nations The book will be of interest to both the academic researcher and practicing professionals in the international organisations and national governments and are particularly appropriate to graduate courses in economic development cost benefit analysis and economic history

Race, Racism and Development Kalpana Wilson,2013-10-10 Race Racism and Development places racism and constructions of race at the centre of an exploration of the dominant discourses structures and practices of development Combining insights from postcolonial and race critical theory with a political economy framework it puts forward provocative theoretical analyses of the relationships between development race capital embodiment and resistance in historical and contemporary contexts Exposing how race is central to development policies and practices relating to human rights security good governance HIV AIDS population control NGOs visual representations and the role of diasporas in development the book raises compelling questions about contemporary imperialism and the possibilities for transnational political solidarity

Contemporary Development Ethics from an African Perspective Beatrice Okyere-Manu,Stephen Nkansah Morgan,Ovett Nwosimiri,2023-07-29 This book offers fresh academic insights reflections questions issues and approaches to development ethics taking into account African values and ethics Development ethics is an area of applied ethics that examines the moral issues involved in global social and economic transformation While it is a relatively new discipline there have been numerous scholarly publications on it from Western perspectives However only a few studies that focused on development ethics from the African perspective To address this gap the book seeks to answer critical questions such as What does development mean to Africans How can we measure development Who gets to decide and What constitutes just development in Africa With contributions from African scholars from diverse backgrounds the book covers various development themes such as Theories and approaches to development ethics in Africa Environmental Ethics and African Development Ethics Politics and African Development Migration and African development Gender Ethics and Socio economic Development in Africa Education Ethics and African development It is an essential resource for researchers lecturers and students interested in political philosophy and African culture studies The Political Economy of Racism Melvin

Leiman,2010 An intense and compact resource for understanding how the political economy of racism evolved in the United States Science Society Racism is about more than individual prejudice And it is hardly the relic of a past era This scholarly readable and provocative book shows how the persistence of racism in America relies on the changing interests of those who hold the real power in society and use every possible means to hold onto it Economic Development in American Cities

Michael I. J. Bennett,Robert P. Giloth,2012-02-01 Economic Development in American Cities addresses the roles of municipal leaders and civic partners in promoting social equity by examining the experiences of five American cities in the 1990s Austin Cleveland Rochester Savannah and Seattle These five cities were chosen for their activist municipal administrations robust policy agendas and viable partnerships Contributors familiar with each city evaluate the impact of equity investments and extract lessons for municipal leaders and policy agendas Building on the past experiences of progressive cities each case study city offers fresh perspectives and examples told through a rigorous analysis of socioeconomic data and program outcomes combined with engaging stories about specific municipal administrations and policy agendas Community

Economic Development in Social Work Steven D. Soifer,Joseph B. McNeely,Cathy Costa,Nancy Pickering-Bernheim,2014-11-18 Community economic development CED is an increasingly essential factor in the revitalization of low to moderate income communities This cutting edge text explores the intersection of CED and social work practice which both focus on the well being of indigent communities and the empowerment of individuals and the communities in which they live This unique textbook emphasizes a holistic approach to community building that combines business and real estate development with a focus on stimulating family self reliance and community empowerment The result is an innovative approach to rehabilitating communities in decline while preserving resident demographics The authors delve deep into the social political human and financial capital involved in effecting change and how race and regional issues can complicate approaches and outcomes Throughout they integrate case examples to illustrate their strategies and conclude with a consideration of the critical role social workers can play in developing CED s next phase
