

Monument Square (Formerly Haymarket)

The square and courthouse hosted several anti-slavery meetings in the decade or so before the Civil War, including a speech at the courthouse by former slave Frederick Douglass in October 1856. But the largest and most famous 'meeting' occurred March 11, 1858, just hours after Joshua Glover was forcibly captured and taken to the Milwaukee Jail. Later that day, a delegation of about 100 Racine men took a steamer to Milwaukee and joined a throng of several thousand protesting Glover's arrest and jailing. Eventually, a battering ram was used to free Glover from the jail beginning his nearly 40-day Underground Railroad journey.

Polish Pioneers in Illinois 1818-1850 James D. Lodesky, 2010-02-24 This book attempts to discover the names of the first Polish settlers in Illinois when they came to Illinois and their stories when possible. Some left complete stories about themselves while others only a very small amount. The time period starts in 1818 the year Illinois became a state and ends in 1850. I found much more information between 1818 and 1850 than I thought I would so I cut the book off at 1850. The Polish settlers are divided into five different categories: 1 Polish Political Exiles from Russia, 2 Polish emigrants from mainly German occupied Poland, 3 Polish Jews, 4 People of Polish descent (those persons with a Polish ancestor), 5 Emigrants from an undetermined county whose last names look Polish. Storm Data United States.
