Racing in the Street June Skinner Sawyers, 2004-04-06 For more than three decades Bruce Springsteen's ability to express in words and music the deepest hopes fears loves and sorrows of average Americans has made him a hero to his millions of devoted fans Racing in the Street is the first comprehensive collection of writings about Springsteen featuring the most insightful revealing famous and infamous articles interviews reviews and other writings This nostalgic journey through the career of a rock n roll legend chronicles every album and each stage of Springsteen's career It's all here Dave Marsh's Rolling Stone review of Springsteen's ten sold out Bottom Line shows in 1975 in New York City Jay Cocks's and Maureen Orth's dueling Time and Newsweek cover stories George Will's gross misinterpretation of Springsteen's message on his Born in the USA tour and Will Percy's 1999 interview for Double Take plus much much more Racing Calendar for ..., 1855

Racing the Dawn Sandra Barret, 2022-06-14 Jade Murphy is bored A century and a half of hopping from night job to night job will do that to a vampire After narrowly escaping a house fire she's unexpectedly intrigued by gorgeous firefighter Beth Jenssen and her undead existence might just be perking up a bit When her neighbor's illegal side business triggers Jade's serious anger management issues things start to get complicated Running around the streets of Boston trying to extricate herself from the mess she's made while keeping Beth's attention on anything other than her vampire foibles isn't exactly a recipe for romance Undead existence still too boring Jade The Racing Calendar, 1873 Sixty Years of Jump Racing Robin Oakley, 2017-03-09 Robin Oakley brings alive the colourful world of those who ride and train jumping horses With elegant production and gripping images Sixty Years of Jump Racing chronicles the social and economic changes which have brought the sport's ups and downs like the development of sponsorships and syndicate ownership the near loss of the Grand National the growing domination of the Cheltenham Festival and the growth of all weather racing to meet the bookies demands for betting shop fodder Pace and colour is provided by stories of the horses who have been taken to the heart of racing crowds like the Irish trained hurdler Istabraq and Best Mate the three times winner of the Cheltenham Gold Cup for England Famous rivalries and memorable races are re-lived and key victories revisited in portraits of and interviews with the owners jockeys and trainers who have dominated the sport The emphasis will be largely on the past fifty years from Arkle to Tony McCoy but a significant introduction by Edward Gillespie encapsulates the past history of what was previously known as National Hunt Racing and sets the stories in context The Racing Calendar for 1856 R. Johnson, 2025-08-29 Reprint of the original first published in 1857 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage Racing the Dawn Brad L. Johnson, 2004 They lived on coffee and segars whiskey when they could get it shouldered their way to the front armed with pencils instead of rifles Hard bitten generals hated them branding them spies and parasites Glory seeking underlings pandered to them promoting their own advancement The anxious folks back home devoured their every word and clamored for more Civil War journalists were a breed of their own Freewheeling opportunists and adventurers they carved their reputations from the terror and devastation of a nation bent on self destruction With determination and grit they bullied their way into places decent folks had gladly fled hardening their hearts against the carnage and bloodshed to get the story and to get it first Correspondent Nick Canfield waded into the turmoil as a refugee moving against the tide He took cold comfort from the chaos of war the battlefield s smoke and confusion obscuring his personal struggle a conscience at odds with itself Like the nation he too was torn apart by an unresolved past and now faced an uncertain future And as the conflict played out he must make a final reckoning in a world changed forever Circus

Before Dawn David Miller,2010-12-14 The worlds most glamorous circus is haunted by a mysterious curse that has endured for decades and follows the show like a shadow An unheralded performer seeks to break the spell Someone else is displeased Shortly before the dawn of the new millennium a video arrives at the postbox of internationally acclaimed motorsport journalist Trevor Banks The startling images depict the elite driving talents of an intriguing racecar driver Banks is assigned to investigate the story As he does so he discovers that the talented performer also has attracted the attention of a psychopathic saboteur From Northern Californias legendary racetracks to multiple European venues including the dazzling jewel that is the Monaco Grand Prix the story takes the reader on a wild unpredictable ride within the dangerous circus that is Formula One racing With an engaging style and a sharp eye for detail David Miller has crafted a compelling drama that hurtles toward its shocking climax with the purposefulness and hair raising excitement of a Formula One racecar as it rockets toward the chequered flag A portion of the proceeds from the sale of Circus Before Dawn shall be donated to the Hole in The Wall Gang Camp for seriously ill children www.holeinthewallgang.org and to the Ayrton Senna Institute the mission of which is to create opportunities for human development for children and young people www.senna.globo.com/institutoayrtonsenna Diversity, equity and inclusion in sport and leisure Katherine Dashper,Thomas Fletcher,2016-01-08

Despite the mythology of sport bringing people together and encouraging everyone to work collectively to success modern sport remains a site of exclusionary practices that operate on a number of levels Although sports participation is in some cases at least becoming more open and meritocratic at the management level it remains very homogenous dominated by western white middle aged able bodied men This has implications both for how sport develops and how it is experienced by different participant groups across all levels Critical studies of sport have revealed that rather than being a passive mechanism and merely reflecting inequality sport via social agents interactions with sporting spaces is actively involved in producing reproducing sustaining and indeed resisting various manifestations of inequality The experiences of marginalised groups can act as a resource for explaining contemporary political struggles over what sport means how it should be played and by whom and its place within wider society Central to this collection is the argument that the dynamics of cultural identities are contextually contingent influenced heavily by time and place and the extent to which they are embedded in the culture of their geographic location They also come to function differently within certain sites and institutions be it in one s everyday routine or leisure pursuits such as sport Among the themes and issues explored by the contributors to this volume are social inclusion and exclusion in relation to class race and ethnicity gender and sexuality social identities and authenticity social policy deviance and fandom This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society
