First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Race Class and Gender in the United States ,2007 Sexual Harassment on College Campuses Michele A. Paludi,1996-03-01 An updated and expanded revision of the first edition which received the Gustavus Myers Center Award for an outstanding book on Human Rights in the United States Intended for administrators and faculty it is also a resource book for individuals wanting to make changes in their campus policy and procedures with regard to sexual harassment An Introduction to Criminological Theory Marilyn McShane,2013-09-13 First Published in 1997 This is a book about the different ways in which crime and criminal behaviour has been explained in modern times It will be seen that there are different explanations or theories which have been proposed at various times during the past 200 years by among others legal philosophers biologists psychologists sociologists and political scientists Interracial Intimacies Randall Kennedy,2012-09-12 With the same piercing intelligence as the bestselling Say it Loud Interracial Intimacies hits a nerve at the center of American society race relations and our most intimate ties to each other The best book written on the subject an exhaustive source of deep rich scholarship and surefooted brilliant analysis Seattle Times Analyzing the tremendous changes in the history of America s racial dynamics Randall Kennedy challenges us to examine how prejudices and biases still fuel fears and inform our sexual marital and family choices He takes us from the injustices of the slave era up to present day battles over race matching adoption policies which seek to pair children with adults of the same race He tackles such subjects as the presence of sex in racial politics the historic role of legal institutions in policing racial boundaries and the real and imagined pleasures that have attended interracial intimacy A bracing much needed look at the way we have lived in the past Interracial Intimacies is also a hopeful book offering a potent vision of our future as a multiracial democracy Race, Class, and Gender in the United States Paula S. Rothenberg,2000-07-15 Immigrant Women's Lives Ruth A. Charles,2018-10-24 First published in 1999 Driven by the interest of the author this study looks at the lives of immigrant women in central New York who are working in the garment industry in hope that by raising awareness Congress will current review legislation when its highlighted how it affects these women and their families Her view is that the media and public discussion tends to present these women as if they are all illegal immigrants looking for welfare benefits instead of law abiding hard working residents This research is written to describe what these women are like what their experiences regarding immigration have been and how arbitrary legislative policies and regulations affect them much these women it also illuminates how much personally the woman have sacrificed in the way of social status cultural comfort and family relationships to come to the United States Racist America Joe R. Feagin,2001 Despite the apparent advances since the civil rights era America remains fundamentally racist argues award winning author Joe Feagin Racist America is a bold thoughtful exploration of the ubiquity of race in contemporary life From a black New Jersey dentist stopped by police more than 100 times for driving to work in an expensive car to the labourer who must defend his promotion against charges of undeserved affirmative action Feagin lays bare the economic ideologic and political structure of American racism In doing so he develops an antiracist theory rooted not only in the latest empirical data but also in the current reality of racism in the U S

The Myth of Post-Racial America H. Roy Kaplan, 2011-01-16 The Myth of Post Racial America provides a history of race and racism in the United States These concepts became integral parts of American society through social psychological and political decisions which are documented so readers can learn about the origin of myths and stereotypes that have created schisms in our society from its founding to the present day This information is essential reading for students and teachers so they can become more effective in their work and value cultural differences modes of expression and learning styles

Micro-politics Patricia S. Mann, 1994 Patricia S Mann explains our current period as a time of social transformation resulting from an unmooring of women men and children from the nuclear family gender relations having replaced economic relations as the primary site of social tension and change in our lives

Elusive Equality Susan Gluck Mezey, 2003 All men may be created equal in the United States but more than 30 years after Congress proposed the Equal Rights Amendment can the same be said for women Elusive Equality offers a clear understanding of how government institutions the executive branch Congress and state legislatures as well as the federal courts affect the legal status of women Surveying the judicial and public policy issues central to the identification and protection of women's rights Susan Mezey traces the developing legal parameters of gender equality From early court rulings that prohibited employment discrimination and sexual harassment through today's decisions on reproductive rights and same sex relationships Mezey analyzes the broader political context within which critical judicial decisions have been made Managing Diversity Michèle E. Mor-Barak, 2005 This book can serve as a guide to effective management of a diverse workforce in a global context It offers information on the new realities of the workforce including demographic legislation and social policy trends around the world It analyzes the causes and consequences of workforce exclusion highlighting the groups commonly excluded in various countries It provides a model of the inclusive workplace suggesting policies procedures and programs that facilitates implementation Gender is only one of the components of workplace diversity but in many countries the share of women in the labor force is still rising The book offers theory statistics examples and case studies Missing links in AI governance Mila - Quebec Artificial Intelligence Institute, UNESCO, 2023-03-21

Generation at the Crossroads Paul Rogat Loeb, 1994 Challenging prevailing media stereotypes Generation at the Crossroads explores the beliefs and choices of the students who came of age in the 1980s and 1990s For seven years at over a hundred campuses in thirty states Paul Loeb asked students about the values they held He examines their concepts of responsibility the links they draw between present and future and how they view themselves in relation to the larger human community in which they live He brings us a range of voices from I'm not that kind of person to I had to take a stand Loeb looks at how the rest of us can serve young people as better role models and give them courage and vision to help build a better world This insightful book explores the culture of withdrawal that dominated American campuses through most of the eighties He locates its roots in historical ignorance relentless individualism mistrust of social movements and a general isolation from urgent realities He examines why a steadily increasing minority has begun to take on critical public issues whether environmental activism apartheid hunger and homelessness affordable education or racial and sexual equity Loeb looks at individuals who have overcome precisely the barriers he has described and how their journeys can become models. The generational choices he explores will shape our common future.

Surviving Race, Ethnicity, and Nationality Jorge J. E. Gracia, 2005-11-01. Surviving Race Ethnicity and Nationality is the first book to explore philosophically the concepts of race, ethnicity, and nationality and offer a systematic and unified theory emphasizing metaphysical and epistemological issues. Gracia argues for a familial historical view of ethnicity and race in the tradition of Du Bois and for a political view of nationality, the roots of which can be traced to the French Enlightenment. Meticulous criticism of Appiah on race, Corlett on ethnicity, and Miller on nationality set the stage for the presentation of Gracia's own analytically precise discussion. Surviving Race Ethnicity and Nationality is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in the distinctive ways that philosophy informs and clarifies our common understanding of these complex concepts.

Confronting Diversity Issues on Campus Benjamin Bowser, Gale S. Auletta, Terry Jones, 1993-08-24. This book provides an analysis of racism and goes on to provide some suggestions as to what can be done to reduce it. The issue is explored from the standpoint of both students and faculty and, in my opinion, is well worth reading and studying. The Academic Bookshelf. No topic causes more concern at today's university than a discussion of diversity in education. Controversies about affirmative action, hiring, admission policies, intercultural relations in the classroom, the role of ethnic studies departments, and changes in the course curriculum all seem to swirl around the changing ethnic composition of the campus. How do we all get along? Tackling this question are authors Benjamin P. Bowser, Gale S. Auletta, and Terry Jones, who suggest some practical strategies for dealing with questions of racism, diversity, and intercultural communication. Their suggestions are addressed to both European American faculty and faculty of color and range from strategies to improve intercultural interpersonal skills to broad structural changes the university needs to undergo to fully embrace its diverse population.

"I'm Not a Racist, But..." Lawrence Blum, 2015-08-01. Not all racial incidents are racist incidents. Lawrence Blum says, "We need a more varied and nuanced moral vocabulary for talking about the arena of race. We should not be faced with a choice of racism or nothing. Use of the word racism is pervasive." An article about the NAACP's criticism of television networks for casting too few minority actors in lead roles asks, "Is television a racist institution?" A white girl in Virginia says it is racist for her African American teacher to wear African attire. Blum argues that a growing tendency to castigate as racism everything that goes wrong in the racial domain reduces the term's power to evoke moral outrage. In I'm Not a Racist, But... Blum develops a historically grounded account of racism as the deeply morally charged notion it has become. He addresses the question whether people of color can be racist, defines types of racism, and identifies debased and inappropriate usages of the term. Though racial insensitivity, racial anxiety, racial ignorance, and racial injustice are in his view not racism, they are racial ills that should elicit moral concern. Blum argues that race itself, even when not serving distinct racial malfeasance, is a morally destructive idea implying moral distance and unequal worth. History and genetic science reveal both the avoidability and the falsity of the idea of race. Blum argues that we can give up the idea of race but must recognize that racial groups historical and social experience has been shaped by having been treated as if they were races Feminist Waves, Feminist Generations Hokulani K. Aikau, Karla A. Erickson, Jennifer L. Pierce, 2007 Feminist Waves Feminist Generations challenges the static figuring of feminist generations that positions the second wave of feminist scholars against a homogeneous third wave Based on life stories from contemporary feminist scholars this volume emphasizes how feminism develops unevenly over time and across institutions and ultimately offers a new paradigm for theorizing the intersections between generations and feminist waves of thought Contributors Sam Bullington U of Missouri Susan Cahn SUNY Buffalo Dawn Rae Davis U of Minnesota Lisa J Disch U of Minnesota Sara Evans U of Minnesota Elizabeth Faue Wayne State U Roderick A Ferguson U of Minnesota Peter Hennen Ohio State U at Newark Wendy Leo Moore Texas A Toni McNaron U of Minnesota Jean M O'Brien U of Minnesota Felicity Schaeffer Grabel U of California Santa Cruz Anne Firor Scott Duke U Janet D Spector U of Minnesota Amanda Lock Swarr U of Washington Seattle Miglena Todorova U of Minnesota Hokulani K Aikau is assistant professor of indigenous politics in the department of political science at the University of Hawai'i at Manoa Karla A Erickson is assistant professor of sociology at Grinnell College Jennifer L Pierce is associate professor of American studies at the University of Minnesota
