Literature Dorothy E. Mosby, 2003 With the current growth of interest in Afro Hispanic and Afro Latin American cultural and literary studies this book will be essential for courses in Latin American and Caribbean literature comparative studies diaspora studies history cultural studies and the literature of migration BOOK JACKET Our Cry for Life Maria Pilar Aquino, 2002-11-26 Acculturation and Psychological Adaptation Vanessa S. Castro, 2003-01-30 This volume addresses the psychological impact of interethnic contact and acculturation in Latin American settings focusing on the effects of acculturation on self esteem among adolescents Opening with an account of relevant theoretical and empirical literature on interethnic contact and acculturation this book represents an acid test of the cross cultural applicability of theory and method largely derived from research on acculturation to North American and European settings Much research has focused on acculturation processes among ethnic immigrants and ethnic minorities leading to the impression that host or majority groups remain unchangeable during acculturation By contrast this volume shows that psychological changes occur in all groups involved in the contact reinforcing the idea that acculturation is a special case of mutual influence This book will be of special interest for researchers scholars or students seeking to understand the acculturation process outside North America and Europe Strong evidence is presented showing the development of positive ties with both one's own and other relevant groups provides a more solid basis for self esteem than relinquishing ties to the ethnic group of reference The Eve/Hagar Paradigm in the Fiction of Quince Duncan Dellita Martin-Ogunsola, 2004 In this first book length study in English devoted to Duncan's work Martin Ogunsola explores the issues of race class and gender in five of Duncan's major works published during the 1970s Focusing primarily on the roles of women Martin Ogunsola uses the figures of Eve and the Egyptian slave Hagar to provide through metaphor an in depth analysis of the female characters portrayed in Duncan's prose Specifically the Eve Hagar paradigm is employed to examine how the essential characteristics of femininity play out in the context of ethnicity and caste The book begins with Dawn Song 1970 the story of Antillean immigrants struggling with migration oppression and resistance while adapting to a new environment and continues through Dead End Street 1979 a novel exploring the ramifications of the myths perpetuated through history that defines Costa Rica in terms of Euro Hispanic culture Martin Ogunsola illustrates Duncan's use of a female presence that challenges the traditional treatment of women in literature Spanning the period between the initial settlement of the Atlantic region of Costa Rica during the early years of the twentieth century to the 1948 Costa Rican Civil War Martin Ogunsola's book invites the reader to view the world through the eyes of Duncan's female characters The Eve Hagar Paradigm in the Fiction of Quince Duncan examines some of the most compelling issues of contemporary Latin American literature and illustrates how a prominent Costa Rican writer deconstructs the stereotype of woman as wife lover slave In the process Duncan finds his own voice Exposing aspects of Costa Rican society that have historically been kept in the shadows this volume makes a significant contribution to our knowledge of the Latin American literary canon BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights
