Science Fiction Serials Roy Kinnard,2015-08-13 Destination Moon George Pal s 1950 Technicolor epic is generally cited as the first noteworthy science fiction film Usually ignored or casually dismissed in genre histories are the serials the low budget chapterplays exhibited as Saturday matinee fare and targeted almost exclusively at children Lacking stars and top notch writers or directors the serials went largely unnoticed and unacknowledged by either critics or by the film industry Yet serials were financially important to the Hollywood studios and were often free to exploit risky or outlandish subjects that producers of distinguished movies would not touch Influential serials such as The Phantom Empire 1935 and Flash Gordon 1936 finally brought science fiction themes to the big screen Those serials and 29 others are exhaustively covered in this work which provides complete cast and credit information along with plot descriptions and historical commentary for each serial Video distributors if available are also listed

Shooting the Moon Brian Willems, 2015-05-29 Films about the moon show that even after the lunar landing of 1969 our celestial neighbor has lost none of its aptitude for being made of green cheese. In fact as soon as you put the moon on screen it is lost. This is equally true for a wide range of moon films including the theatricality of Moon, the incredulity of camp, the illegibility of footage shot by Apollo astronauts and the revisionary history of Transformers 3. Yet as paradoxical as it might seem at first it is only when we lose sight of the moon that lunar truths begin to come forth. This is because fantastic elements of the moon by their mere absurdity can indicate non-fantastic elements. However what is of interest here is not realistic or fantastic lunar truths but rather that the moon is an object which invites or even demands more than one truth at once.

Serials-ly Speaking William C. Cline, 2025-02-28 This collection of essays first published in Big Reel lovingly recalls the glory days of the movie serial. The primary focus is on the fans of the serials what they thought of them in their heyday what they think of them now and why these episodic tales are still so popular. Preceding each article is a brief commentary about the essay explaining why the topic was chosen and the reader response it evoked when first published.

Black and White Cinema Wheeler Winston Dixon, 2015-11-06 From the glossy monochrome of the classic Hollywood romance to the gritty greyscale of the gangster picture to film noir's moody interplay of light and shadow, black and white cinematography has been used to create a remarkably wide array of tones. Yet today with black and white film stock nearly impossible to find these cinematographic techniques are virtually extinct and filmgoers' appreciation of them is similarly waning. Black and White Cinema is the first study to consider the use of black and white as an art form in its own right, providing a comprehensive and global overview of the era when it flourished from the 1900s to the 1960s. Acclaimed film scholar Wheeler Winston Dixon introduces us to the masters of this art.

discussing the signature styles and technical innovations of award winning cinematographers like James Wong Howe Gregg Toland Freddie Francis and Sven Nykvist Giving us a unique glimpse behind the scenes Dixon also reveals the creative teams from lighting technicians to matte painters whose work profoundly shaped the look of black and white cinema More than just a study of film history this book is a rallying cry meant to inspire a love for the artistry of black and white film so that we might work to preserve this important part of our cinematic heritage Lavishly illustrated with more than forty on the set stills Black and White Cinema provides a vivid and illuminating look at a creatively vital era

REFLECTIONS OF A "B"-

MOVIE JUNKIE Jim Driscoll,2008-12-30 Reflections Of A B Movie Junkie is a tribute to the old B Movies of the Saturday Matinees of yesteryear Actually it is more of a homage to them or at least 6 genres of those film types that were so prevalent back in primarily the 40 s and 50 s Their research and discussion however in some instances dates all the way back to the beginning of the talkies of motion picture content and can extend in the other direction into the early 70s These 6 genres include the popular B Western The Comedy Teams The Jungle Adventures Sci Fi Fantasy Horror and the Serial or Chapter Plays so popular with the week end Matinee crowds back then These film types filled up our Saturday afternoons and evenings with exciting adventure curious wonder spine tingling horror and non stop action Often filmed on a shoe string budget and in a limited time frame many of these classics came to be looked upon by many fans as being so truly bad that they were good in a bad sort of way They are thus categorized reviewed and discussed for the most part in a lovingly personal style especially when compared to the film types we are subjected to in today s market They had their place in film history and that time is long since gone But for some of us they have never been equaled which for others may indeed be a good thing

Television Series of the 1950s Vincent Terrace,2016-05-16 Often regarded as the first golden era of television the 1950s was a decade when many classic programs from I Love Lucy and Gunsmoke to The Honeymooners and Perry Mason among others made their debuts Even after these shows departed the airwaves they lived on in syndication entertaining several generations of viewers Devoted and casual fans alike can probably remember basic facts about these shows like the names of Lucy and Ricky s neighbors or the town where Marshall Matt Dillon kept the law But more elusive facts like the location of the most successful defense attorney in Los Angeles Suite 904 of the Brent Building might be harder to recall In Television Series of the 1950s Essential Facts and Quirky Details Vincent Terrace presents readers with a cornucopia of information about 100 programs from the decade Did you know for example that the middle initial of Dobie Gillis friend Maynard G Krebs stood for Walter Or that Ralph Kramden s electric bill came to only 39 cents a month Or that on I Love Lucy Ricky originally performed at Manhattan s Tropicana Club These are but a few of the hundreds of fun and intriguing trivia facts contained within this volume Shows from all four networks ABC CBS NBC and DuMont as well as select syndicated programs are represented here This is not a book of opinions or essays about specific television programs but a treasure trove of the facts associated with each of these programs Readers will discover a wealth of fascinating information that for the most part cannot be found anywhere else In some cases the factual data detailed herein is the only such documentation that exists currently on bygone shows of the era Television Series of the 1950s is the ideal reference for fans of this decade and anyone looking to stump even the most knowledgeable trivia expert
