seeking to understand and address mental illness from a Christian perspective CCAR Journal: The Reform Jewish Quarterly, Spring 2025 Rabbi Edwin Goldberg, 2025-06-13 This edition of CCAR Journal considers various topics including loneliness and the rabbinic Judah and Tamar's encounter and Jewish brides' breads. The issue also contains new book reviews, poetry, and a CCAR responsum on removing a pacemaker from a corpse for reuse. Congressional Record United States. Congress, 2008 A Matter of Death and Life Alice Aldrich Hildebrand, 2025-05-21 A memoir of caregiving for the author's elderly father in his last years; this book is also about the loss of a beloved career as a hospital chaplain and a reflection on the many deaths experienced throughout life. Family dysfunction and fierce love, recovery from addiction, regret, and guilt, thanksgiving, and hopefulness are woven through the saga of accompanying an infuriatingly deeply loved parent to his death. The timeline of this memoir intersects with the beginning of the COVID pandemic, which made everything more complicated. Because the author is a pastoral theologian and preacher, biblical reflection is woven into the narrative, as well as reflections on mortality from other sources. Throughout, the author probes deeply into the realities of her own aging and death, providing insights that will be helpful to thoughtful readers of all ages, as well as to other caregivers. Mending Education Karen Gross, Edward K.S. Wang, 2024 Discover how the crisis of a global pandemic allowed educators to improve learning across the pre-K adult pipeline. While acknowledging the scale of loss and difficulty, the COVID pandemic engendered within the field of education this book focuses on how sudden and forced changes to teaching and learning created Pandemic Positives, which can be captured and brought to scale. In particular, Part I addresses how Pandemic Positives came into being, with special attention to the presence of educator hope and creativity. Part II explores the Pandemic Positives that arose in three settings: when schools were closed, when learning turned online, and when schools reopened. Part III provides strategies for replicating the Pandemic Positives so they become positive educational game changers. This book is grounded in trauma and mental wellness theory and includes the in-the-trenches experiences and voices of educators. The text features art created by the coauthors and shares both their professional and personal experiences, humanizing and enriching the book. Mending Education completes a trilogy composed of Breakaway Learners and Trauma Doesn't Stop at the School Door by Karen Gross. We have all bemoaned the COVID pandemic and its lasting negative effects, but Karen Gross and Edward Wang turn that pessimism on its head. Their extensive experience in education is augmented by the priceless data gathered through their research survey of teachers and educators. This is a must-have for educators everywhere.
