British films of the 1970s Paul Newland, 2015-11-01 British films of the 1970s offers highly detailed and insightful critical analysis of a range of individual films of the period This analysis draws upon an innovative range of critical methodologies which place the film texts within a rich variety of historical contexts The book sets out to examine British films of the 1970s in order to get a clearer understanding of two things the fragmentary state of the filmmaking culture of the period and the fragmentary nature of the nation that these films represent It argues that there is no singular narrative to be drawn about British filmmaking in the 1970s other than the fact that these films offer evidence of a Britain and ideas of Britishness characterised by vicissitudes While this was a period of struggle and instability it was also a period of openings of experiment and of new ideas Newland looks at many films including Carry On Girls O Lucky Man That'll be the Day The Shout and The Long Good Friday A Dictionary of Film Studies Annette Kuhn, Guy Westwell, 2020-04-28 A Dictionary of Film Studies covers all aspects of its discipline as it is currently taught at undergraduate level Offering exhaustive and authoritative coverage this A Z is written by experts in the field and covers terms concepts debates and movements in film theory and criticism national international and transnational cinemas film history movements and genres film industry organizations and practices and key technical terms and concepts Since its first publication in 2012 the dictionary has been updated to incorporate over 40 new entries including computer games and film disability ecocinema identity portmanteau film Practice as Research and film in Vietnam Moreover numerous revisions have been made to existing entries to account for developments in the discipline and changes to film institutions more generally Indices of films and filmmakers mentioned in the text are included for easy access to relevant entries The dictionary also has 13 feature articles on popular topics and terms revised and informative bibliographies for most entries and more than 100 web links to supplement the text

Portrayals of Children in Popular Culture Vibiana Bowman Cvetkovic, Debbie C. Olson, 2012-12-21 Portrayals of Children in Popular Culture Fleeting Images edited by Vibiana Bowman Cvetkovic and Debbie Olson is a collection which examines images of children and childhood in popular culture including print online television shows and films The contributors to this volume explore the constructions of children and childhood rather than actual children or actual childhoods In the chapters that are concerned with depictions of actual individual children the authors investigate how the images of those children conform or trouble current notions of what it means to be a child engaged in a contemporary childhood This is a unique volume because of the academic discourse which is employed that of Childhood Studies The Childhood Studies scholars represented in this collection utilize an interdisciplinary approach which draws upon various academic fields their methodologies theoretical approaches and scholarly conventions for the scholarly research in this collection Together the contributions to this collection interrogate classic notions of childhood innocence knowledge agency and the fluid position of the signifier child within contemporary media forms These interdisciplinary works function as a testament to the infectiousness of the child image in print television and cinematic contexts and represent a new avenue of discursive scholarship the questions raised and connections made provide fresh insights and unique perspectives to topics regarding children and childhood and their representation within multiple media platforms The growing field of Childhood Studies is enriched by the intellectual originality represented by this volume s authors who ask new questions about the enduring and captivating image of the child National Identity in Indian Popular Cinema, 1947-1987 Sumita S.

Chakravarty,2011-05-18 Although Indian popular cinema has a long history and is familiar to audiences around the world it has rarely been systematically studied This book offers the first detailed account of the popular film as it has grown and changed during the tumultuous decades of Indian nationhood The study focuses on the cinema s characteristic forms its range of meanings and pleasures and above all its ideological construction of Indian national identity Informed by theoretical developments in film theory cultural studies postcolonial discourse and Third World cinema the book identifies the major genres and movements within Bombay cinema since Independence and uses them to enter larger cultural debates about questions of identity authenticity citizenship and collectivity Chakravarty examines numerous films of the period including Guide Vijay Anand 1965 Shree 420 The gentleman cheat Raj Kapoor 1955 and Bhumika The role Shyam Benegal 1977 She shows how impersonation played out in masquerade and disguise has characterized the representation of national identity in popular films so that concerns and conflicts over class communal and regional differences are obsessively evoked explored and neutralized These findings will be of interest to film and area specialists as well as general readers in film studies

Popular Cinema of the Third Reich Sabine Hake,2010-01-01 Too often dismissed as escapist entertainment or vilified as mass manipulation popular cinema in the Third Reich was in fact sustained by well established generic conventions cultural traditions aesthetic sensibilities social practices and a highly developed star system not unlike its Hollywood counterpart in the 1930s This pathfinding study contributes to the ongoing reassessment of Third Reich cinema by examining it as a social cultural economic and political practice that often conflicted with contradicted and compromised the intentions of the Propaganda Ministry Nevertheless by providing the illusion of a public sphere presumably free of politics popular cinema helped to sustain the Nazi regime especially during the war years Rather than examining Third Reich cinema through overdetermined categories such as propaganda ideology or fascist aesthetics Sabine Hake concentrates on the constituent elements shared by most popular cinemas famous stars directors and studios movie audiences and exhibition practices popular genres and new trends in set design the reception of foreign films the role of film criticism and the representation of women She pays special attention to the forced coordination of the industry in 1933 the changing demands on cinema during the war years and the various ways of coming to terms with these filmic legacies after the war Throughout Hake s findings underscore the continuities among Weimar Third Reich and post 1945 West German cinema They also emphasize the codevelopment of German and other national cinemas especially the dominant Hollywood model Film Theory Philip Simpson,Andrew Utterson,Karen J. Shepherdson,2004 This major new collection identifies the critical and theoretical concepts which have been most significant in the study of film and presents a historical and intellectual context for the material examined Popular Cinema in Bengal Madhuj Mukherjee,Kaustav Bakshi,2020-06-09 Popular Cinema in Bengal marks a decisive turn in studies of Bengali language cinema by shifting the focus from auteur and text based studies to exhaustive readings of the film industry The book covers a wide range of themes and issues including generic tropes like comedy and action iconic figurations of the detective and the city female stars such as Kanan Bala Sadhana Bose and Aparna Sen intensities of public debates subjects of high and low cultures taste viewership gender and sexuality print cultures including posters magazines and song booklets cinematic spaces and trans media and trans cultural traffic By locating cinema within the crosscurrents of geo political transformations the book highlights the new and persuasive research that has materialised over the last decade The authors raise pertinent questions regarding regional cinema as a category in relation to national cinema models and trace the non linear journey of the popular via multiple media trajectories They address subjects of physicality sexuality and its representations industrial change spaces of consumption and cinema s meandering directions through global circuits and low end networks Highlighting the ever changing contours of cinema in Bengal in all its popular forms and proposing a new historiography Popular Cinema in Bengal will be of great interest to scholars of film studies and South Asian popular culture The chapters were originally published in the journal South Asian History and Culture Scotland David Martin-Jones,2010-08-18 Scotland Global Cinema focuses on the explosion of filmmaking in Scotland in the 1990s and 2000s It explores the various cinematic fantasies of Scotland created by contemporary filmmakers from all over the world who braved the weather to shoot in Scotla Classical Masculinity and the Spectacular Body on Film D. O'Brien,2014-10-29 The muscle bound male body is a perennial feature of classically inflected action cinema This book reassesses these films as a cinematic form focusing on the depiction of heroic masculinity In particular Hercules in his many incarnations has greatly influenced popular cultural interpretations of manliness and the exaggerated male form Cultural History of Modern India Dilip M. Menon,2006 Cultural History Of Modern India Edited By Dilip M Menon Definitely Qualifies For Interesting Reading Or How A Nineteenth Century Housewife Comes To Pen The First Autobiography By An Indian Woman Calendar Art Reflecting Deeper Notions Of Religion And Community Or How An Idea Of Pure Classical Music Faces The Challenge Of Technology These Essays Show How Ideas Of Self Community And Art Are Formed Within A Larger Politics Moreover Culture Far From Being A Refuge From The Political Is Also The Space Within Which Politics Comes To Be Worked Out Building a New China in Cinema Laikwan Pang,2002-05-01

Building a New China in Cinema introduces English readers for the first time to one of the most exciting left wing cinema traditions in the world This unique book explores the history ideology and aesthetics of China s left wing cinema movement a quixotic film culture that was as political as commercial as militant as sensationalist Originating in the 1930s it marked the first systematic intellectual involvement in Chinese cinema In this era of turmoil and idealism the movement s films were characterized by fantasies of heroism intertwined with the inescapable spell of impotency thus exposing the contradictions of the filmmakers underlying ideology as their political and artistic agendas alternately fought against or catered to the taste and viewing habits of a popular audience Political cinema became a commercially successful industry resulting in a film culture that has never been replicated Drawing on detailed archival research Pang demonstrates that this cinema movement was a product of the era s social economic and political discourses The author offers a close analysis of many rarely seen films richly illustrated with over eighty stills collected from the Beijing Film Archive With its original conceptual approach and rich use of primary sources this book will be of interest not only to scholars and fans of Chinese cinema but to those who study the relationship between cinema and modernity French Cinema Rémi Fournier Lanzoni,2004-03-31 To a large extent the story of French filmmaking is the story of moviemaking From the earliest images through the silent era Surrealist influence the Nazi Occupation New Wave and presently Lanzoni examines a considerable number fo the world s most beloved films from each era providing insight into our favourite films The Film Handbook Mark de Valk,Sarah Arnold,2013-05-02 The Film Handbook examines the current state of filmmaking and how film language technique and aesthetics are being utilised for today s digital film productions It reflects on how critical analysis of film underpins practice and story and how developing an autonomous vision will best aid student creativity The Film Handbook offers practical guidance on a range of traditional and independent guerrilla film production methods from developing script ideas and the logistics of planning the shoot to cinematography sound and directing practices Film professionals share advice of their creative and practical experiences shooting both on digital and film forms The Film Handbook relates theory to the filmmaking process and includes documentary narrative and experimental forms including deliberations on reading the screen genre mise en sc ne montage and sound design new technologies of film production and independent distribution digital and multi film formats utilised for indie filmmakers and professional dramas sound design and music the short film form theories of transgressive and independent guerrilla filmmaking the avant garde and experimental as a means of creative expression preparing to work in the film industry development of specialisms as director producer cinematographer editor and the presentation of creative work World Socialist Cinema Masha Salazkina,2023-06-13 One of the Best Scholarly Books of 2023 The Chronicle of Higher Education A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more In this capacious transnational film history renowned scholar Masha Salazkina proposes a groundbreaking new framework for understanding the cinematic cultures of twentieth century socialism Taking as a point of departure the vast body of work screened at the Tashkent International Festival of Cinemas of Asia Africa and Latin America in the 1960s and 1970s World Socialist Cinema maps the circulation of films between the Soviet Bloc and the countries of the Global South in the mid to late twentieth century illustrating the distribution networks festival circuits and informal channels that facilitated this international network of artistic and intellectual exchange Building on decades of meticulous archival work this long anticipated film history unsettles familiar stories to provide an alternative to Eurocentric national and regional narratives rooted outside of the capitalist West

Experimental and Independent Italian Cinema Cristiano Anthony Cristiano, 2020-07-06 Discussing a variety of independent and experimental Italian films this book gives voice to a critically neglected form of Italian cinema By examining the work of directors such as Marinella Pirelli Mirko Locatelli and Cesrae Zavattini the book defines inspects and studies the cinematic panorama of Italy through a new lens It thereby explores the character of independent films and their related practices within the Italian historical cultural and cinematic landscape

China on Screen Christopher J. Berry, Mary Ann Farquhar, 2006-04-04 In China on Screen Chris Berry and Mary Farquhar leaders in the field of Chinese film studies explore more than one hundred years of Chinese cinema and nation Providing new perspectives on key movements themes and filmmakers Berry and Farquhar analyze the films of a variety of directors and actors including Chen Kaige Zhang Yimou Hou Hsiao Hsien Bruce Lee Jackie Chan Maggie Cheung Gong Li Wong Kar wai and Ang Lee They argue for the abandonment of national cinema as an analytic tool and propose cinema and the national as a more productive framework With this approach they show how movies from China Hong Kong Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora construct and contest different ideas of Chinese nation as empire republic or ethnicity and complicated by gender class style transnationalism and more Among the issues and themes covered are the tension between operatic and realist modes male and female star images transnational production and circulation of Chinese films the image of the good foreigner all related to different ways of imagining nation Comprehensive and provocative China on Screen is a crucial work of film analysis
