Realistic Reflections In Poetry:

Realistic Reflections in Poetry Edmonds, Willa, 1978 Reflections of Realism Robert C. Holub, 1991 Comprises papers from the International Conference on title held Nov 1988 London UK on economics planning environmental impact safety control generators Acidic paper no index Holub German U of California Berkeley contends that realism is not primarily a textual property but a matter of reception and reexamines 19th century German literary realism by considering traditionally representative texts novellas and novels from the perspective of effects on readers Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Complete Poetry George Herbert, 2015-04-16 A wonderful edition of Herbert's poetry edited by his acclaimed biographer John Drury and including elegant new translations of his Latin verse by Victoria Moul George Herbert wrote but never published some of the very greatest English poetry recording in an astonishing variety of forms his inner experiences of grief recovery hope despair anger fulfilment and above all else love This volume edited by John Drury collects Herbert's complete poetry including such classics of English devotional poetry as The Altar Easter Wings and Love It also includes the verse Herbert wrote in Latin newly translated into English by Victoria Moul George Herbert was born in 1593 and died at the age of 39 in 1633 before the clouds of civil war gathered He showed worldly ambition and seemed sure of high public office and a career at court but then for a time lost himself in a humble way devoting himself to the restoration of a church and then to his parish of Bemerton three miles from Salisbury When in the year of his death his friend Nicholas Ferrar published Herbert's poems under the title The Temple his fame was quickly established John Drury is Chaplain and Fellow of All Souls College Oxford His books include The Burning Bush 1990 Painting the Word 1999 and most recently Music at Midnight the culmination of a lifetime's interest in Herbert Victoria Moul is Lecturer in Latin Literature and Language at Kings College London She is author of Jonson Horace and the Classical Tradition 2010 and editor of Neo Latin Literature 2014 Social Patterns in Australian Literature T. Inglis Moore, 2023-07-28 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1971 Victorian Poetry Isobel Armstrong, 2019-01-30 In Victorian Poetry Poetry Poetics and Politics Isobel Armstrong rescued Victorian poetry from its longstanding sepia image as a moralised form of romantic verse and unearthed its often subversive critique of nineteenth century culture and politics In this uniquely comprehensive and theoretically astute new edition Armstrong provides an entirely new preface that notes the key advances in the criticism of Victorian poetry since her classic work was first published in 1993 A new chapter on the alternative fin de siècle sees Armstrong discuss Michael Field Rudyard Kipling Alice Meynell and a selection of Hardy lyrics The extensive bibliography acts as a key resource for students and scholars alike British Social Realism in the Arts since 1940 D. Tucker, 2011-07-01 This is the first book of its kind to look across disciplines at this vital aspect of British art literature and culture It brings the various intertwined histories of social realism into historical perspective and argues that this sometimes marginalized genre is still an important reference point for creativity in Britain Aesthetics and World Politics R. Bleiker,2009-08-28 This book presents one of the first systematic assessments of aesthetic insights into world politics It examines the nature of aesthetic approaches and outlines how they differ from traditional analysis of politics The book explores the potential and limits of aesthetics through a series of case studies on language and poetics The Art of the Caveman John Mc Donagh,2016-09-23 The first monograph on the poetry of Paul Durcan this book deals thematically with the dominant concerns evident from his first solo collection O Westport in the Light of Asia Minor published in 1975 up to and including The Days of Surprise published in 2015 His work is marked by an unnerving emotional honesty and a recurring desire to undermine the pomposity of an Ireland struggling under the weight of inherited inconsistencies One of the central arguments here is that Durcan has captured more than any other poet of his generation the complexities and contradictions inherent in Ireland s emergence from the early difficult decades of independence The complex relationship between the public and private in his poetry is also explored as well as the poet s unflinching examination of his deepest personal relationships Sino-Japanese Reflections Joshua A. Fogel,Matthew Fraleigh,2022-05-09 Sino Japanese Reflections offers ten richly detailed case studies that examine various forms of cultural and literary interaction between Japanese and Chinese intellectuals from the late Ming to the early twentieth century The authors consider efforts by early modern scholars on each side of the Yellow Sea to understand the language and culture of the other to draw upon received texts and forms and to contribute to shared literary practices Whereas literary and cultural flow within the Sinosphere is sometimes imagined to be an entirely unidirectional process of textual dissemination from China to the periphery the contributions to this volume reveal a more complex picture highlighting how literary and cultural engagement was always an opportunity for creative adaptation and negotiation Examining materials such as Chinese translations of Japanese vernacular poetry Japanese engagements with Chinese supernatural stories adaptations of Japanese historical tales into vernacular Chinese Sinitic poetry composed in Japan and Japanese Sinology the volume brings together recent work by literary scholars and intellectual historians of multiple generations all of whom have a strong comparative interest in Sino Japanese studies Panorama of the Classical World Nigel Spivey,Michael Squire,2011-03 This imaginative approach to the era in which Western civilization was born is a thorough and thoroughly accessible synthesis of the Greek Roman and Etruscan worlds spanning the period from Late Geometric Greece in around 700 b c to the rule of Constantine in the early 4th century a d The authors incorporate important developments in recent scholarship including ideas of gender war and pacifism imperialism and dissent political propaganda economy cultural identity racism hygiene and diet and public and private uses of space The book highlights the modern relevance of classical antiquity from its influence on contemporary politics to the representation of the female body in Western art and concludes by charting the history of classical civilization

The extensive reference section includes biographies an introduction to classical mythology a glossary of technical terms and vase shapes as well as a timeline map bibliography and index
