Sherriel Rush,1977 American Book Publishing Record ,1970 Critical Studies in Organization and Bureaucracy Frank Fischer,Carmen Sirianni,1994 Contemporary scholarship and classic essays focus on the continuing crises in bureaucratic organizations and managerial authority Rethinking and innovation in private public and nonprofit organizations emerge from case studies on schools multicultural and feminist organizations private corporations environmental planning and regulation alternative services and attempts to reinvent government Author note Frank Fischer teaches Political Science and Public Administration at Rutgers University and has published several books including Technocracy and the Politics of Expertise and The Argumentative Turn in Policy Analysis and Planning Carmen Sirianni teaches Sociology at Brandeis University and is co editor of the Labor and Social Change series at Temple University Press His books include Worker Participation and the Politics of Reform Temple and Working Time in Transition Temple The Praeger Handbook of Urban Education Philip M. Anderson,Kecia Hayes,Joe Kincheloe,Karel Rose,2006-03-30 Maintaining that urban teaching and learning is characterized by many contradictions this work proposes that there is a wide range of social cultural psychological and pedagogical knowledge urban educators must possess in order to engage in effective and transformative practice It is necessary for those teaching in urban schools to be scholar practitioners rather than bureaucrats who can only follow rather than analyze understand and create Ten major sections cover the myriad issues of urban education as it exists today The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 Work Orientation and Job Performance Douglas E. Mitchell,Flora Ida Ortiz,Tedi K. Mitchell,1987-01-01 With critical attention focused on education and the teaching profession itself under close scrutiny by federal state and local officials and governing boards a heightened sense of the need to attract and retain good teachers has surfaced as a national priority Based on data collected on elementary school teachers principals and central office administrators in a large unified school district the authors draw upon cultural rather than economic or psychological concepts to reveal and explain how educators become oriented to their work responsibilities The book presents a comprehensive description of the rewards and incentives provided for teachers It also describes the roles of principals and links the principal s work to classroom performance and teaching effectiveness Throughout this fascinating account the authors describe and reflect upon the ways in which teaching is controlled by a system of beliefs and meanings that specify the overall purposes of schooling and establish norms for social relationships with students and colleagues Choice Richard K.
