Reality Of Aid 1995:

The Oxford Handbook of French Politics Robert Elgie, Emiliano Grossman, Amy G. Mazur, 2016-11-24 The Oxford Handbook of French Politics provides a comprehensive and comparative overview of the French political system through the lens of political science The Handbook is organized into three parts the first part identifies foundational concepts for the French case including chapters on republicanism and social welfare the second part focuses on thematic large scale processes such identity governance and globalization while the third part examines a wide range of issues relating to substantive politics and policy among which are chapters on political representation political culture social movements economic policy gender policy and defense and security policy The volume brings together established and emerging scholars and seeks to examine the French political system from a comparative perspective The contributors provide a state of the art review both of the comparative scholarly literature and the study of the French case making The Oxford Handbook of French Politics an invaluable resource for anyone interested in the foundations of contemporary political life in France

Soldiers to the Rescue Humanitarian Lessons from Rwanda Guillot Philippe, Minear Larry, 1996-07-18 Democracy and Development R.C. Bhardwaj, K. Vijayakrishnan, 2018-10-26 Published in 1998 The question of whether democracy and development are allies or adversaries has long been debated and with the triumph of the democratic spirit worldwide the relationship between democracy and development has once again come to attract much attention globally The collapse of the Soviet Union and the developments in Eastern Europe led to considerable rethinking in political circles on the efficacy of the economic policies pursued in those countries and the long term viability of political systems prevalent there Elsewhere several newly industrialized countries are striving to consolidate their gains though there are differing perceptions of whether their politics conform to the classical framework of democracy or not In a remarkable turn around some other countries have initiated measures for economic reforms and structural adjustment setting aside their earlier approaches towards economic management In short the last decades of this millennium have witnessed meaningful efforts worldwide on forging a new partnership between democracy and development In February 1996 the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association jointly organized a conference entitled Parliamentary Democracy and Development Allies or Adversaries with the Wilton Park an international agency of the British Commonwealth and Foreign Office in Wilton House West Sussex United Kingdom The week long conference brought together parliamentarians diplomats administrators political scientists economists and specialists from all over the world The participants shared their views and experiences on diverse aspects of the main theme This publication presents an essentially parliamentary perspective on the correlation between democracy and development based on the discussions at the Wilton Park conference and in the light of current thinking on the subject matter Responding to Human Rights Violations, 1946-1999 Katarina Tomaševski, 2021-10-05 This volume maps out the response of states to human rights violations It covers the period 1946 1999 and offers a complete and unmatched record for this period Its starting point is that such responses are not established and accepted state practice Traditional if unwritten norms of states behaviour developed through centuries of silence and inaction the prevalent reaction to human rights violations by another state remains the absence of any response Furthermore this book probes into evidence of active and passive complicity by reviewing aid to countries in which violations have been taking place and diplomatic initiatives undertaken to shield violators from public opprobrium Since international law is generated through state practice the book highlights the ongoing tussle between the pre 1946 heritage of silence and inaction and the 1946 1999 haphazard pattern of responses to violations Global Migrants, Global Refugees Aristide R. Zolberg, Peter M. Benda, 2001 Includes statistics

Striking a Balance Alan Fowler, 2013-10-11 At a time of rapid global change development NGOs are having to scale up their impact diversify their activities respond to long term crises and improve their performance on all fronts Striking a Balance offers both analysis and a practical guide to how NGOs can fulfil these demanding expectations Written for all those involved with NGO work the book describes the objectives of sustainable people centred development and the process required to achieve it focusing on the five factors which determine effectiveness suitable organisational design competent leadership and human resources appropriate external relationships mobilisation of high quality finance and the measurement of performance coupled to learning for leverage In each are the book explains the capacities needed and how they can be assessed and improved Effectiveness calls for NGOs which retain their non profit values establish the right type of Professionalism manage dilemmas and balance choices to continually reflect the priorities rights and needs of those who give them legitimacy people who are poor and marginalised This book provides a reference of current and future practices which will help NGOs to do so

Future Positive Michael Edwards, 2013-06-17 An optimistic assessment of the prospects for a new international order acting as a counter blast to global pessimism The text explains how the international system operates the pressures it faces and the changes it must undergo and offers concrete ideas to re frame international relations foreign aid and humanitarian intervention without using jargon or simplistic judgements

Perspectives on European Development Cooperation Olav Stokke, Paul Hoebink, 2012-10-12 Events of the past twenty years including the Cold War and the War on Terror have meant that the environments of international development co operation have changed extensively with dramatic consequences for development policies and North South relations in general Perspectives on European Development Cooperation takes stock of such changes describing and analyzing the new European development agenda including the role of the European Union Essays by prominent authorities in the field examine the development policies of individual donor countries and focus on the principles and objectives governing aid strategies and the performances of these policies This book will be of interest to students of development studies and those involved in determining development policy The European Union and Developing Countries C. Cosgrove-Sacks, 1999-05-17 This book examines the ways in which EU policies towards developing countries are changing in response to the new challenges of globalization and the end of the Cold War It analyses the patchwork of relationships between the fifteen Member States and more than 140 countries throughout Africa Asia Latin America and the Mediterranean Global Competition and EU Environmental Policy Jonathan Golub,1998-03-19 Global Competition and EU Environmental Policy is the first book to examine the relationship between economic competitiveness and environmental protection in European Union policy A wide range of international case studies addresses key agreements and policies including those dealing with ozone layer protection pesticide exports shipping climate Strategies of Public Engagement David Gillies,1997 Given declining budgets and flagging political support the environment for international co operation in Canada and other industrial democracies has become exceptionally challenging A collection of essays by experts in the field Strategies of Public Engagement explores ways in which Canadian development organizations and non governmental organizations NGOs can strengthen political and public support Futurevision Howard F. Didsbury, Jr.,1996 Futurevision represents a new stage in the evolution of near term research and speculation into the world of tomorrow This volume which brings together twenty five leading experts in a variety of social and scientific areas attempts to foresee likely harmful or undesirable results of advances in scientific and technological ingenuity In developing an early warning system designed to elicit prudent reflection and timely action futurism has now entered the mainstream of social thought The volume is divided into eight categories the future of work education management sustainability projections about the future decline or revitalization medical ethics and the global scene as such Among the major issues taken up are the threat of persistent technological unemployment in high tech societies approaches to teaching about the future new forms of specialization and speculation virtual learning in simulated contexts planning models in business and industry that permit rapid shifts changes in the economy that result from a move from a product to a service based economy patterns of innovation in agriculture using less space to feed more people and the general analysis of forecasting and predicting future events with present methodologies Futurevision aims to recast the basic fault lines of current social scientific and technological analysis The volume emphasizes long term perspectives future relevant research and thinking weapons analysis and warfare population and planetary exploration examining what constitutes significant knowledge in this new environment and the broad area of learning and caring in meaningful contexts There is a new seriousness in future research that will be appealing to students and teachers and researchers of sociology psychology and economics especially those working with current data and qualitative research techniques Policy Coherence in Development Co-operation Jacques Forster,Olav Schram Stokke,2013-09-13 In the 1990s a shared conviction emerged among aid donors that their policies should be more coherent The drive towards increased policy coherence came as a response to a state of policy incoherence The shifting grounds of policy coherence in development co operation are outlined in this volume Stakeholders Ian Smillie,2013-11-05 This unique study from the OECD Development Centre presents a comprehensive review by independent experts of the relationships and division of responsibility between the 22 member governments of the OECD Development Assistance Committee DAC and NGOs from these donor countries working in international development Additional chapters cover the roles of the European Union and the World Bank Among other themes the book looks at two very significant issues First at the way in which an overemphasis on evaluation may be leading NGOs to focus purely on measuring their output thus choosing activities which are easily accountable Second it examines the important impacts of the evolution in the funding relationship between governments and NGOs from matching grants to contracts where NGOs must increasingly compete for contracts

The News Media, Civil War, and Humanitarian Action Larry Minear, Colin Scott, Thomas George Weiss, 1996 This brief volume looks at institutional interactions between the news media both print and electronic on the one hand and government policymakers and humanitarian agencies on the other Case studies from Liberia northern Iraq Somalia the former Yugoslavia Haiti and Rwanda distill some of the experiences gained from calamities that have elicited widely varying coverage and responses Acknowledging that the three sets of actors have differing agendas limitations and constituencies the book nevertheless identifies a common interest in improving the quality of interactions for the benefit of victims from About the book

International Development Assistance Olav Stokke, 2019-03-08 This book provides a comprehensive search for the basic political drivers of international development cooperation based on the policy and performance of the OECD countries from the early 1960s to the present The author focuses on the stated and implemented policies of the four so called frontrunners and the Western hegemon scrutinizing the changing trends in the justifications objectives and guidelines set for the policy and their evolving performance vis vis the international ODA target Through extensive research the work examines predominant world views societal value systems and foreign policy traditions in order to find the policy drivers that vary nation to nation and how development assistance has evolved globally

Development and Disorder Mike Mason, 1997 A contemporary history of the Third World that explains why most of these countries failed to develop in ways which benefit the majority of their populations
