Faith with Reason Paul Helm, 2000 Paul Helm presents a new study of the nature of religious faith investigating what makes it reasonable Religious belief needs to meet and sustain philosophical scrutiny just as any other type of belief does nothing about religion purchases immunity from this But at the same time religious epistemology must also respect the contours of religion the distinctiveness of the subject matter of religious belief Helm looks sympathetically at two currently prominent ways of defending the rationality of religious belief Reformed epistemology and the cumulative case for theism He argues that the reasonableness of faith depends not only on beliefs about the world but also on beliefs about oneself for instance about what one wants about one's hopes and fears and on what one is willing to trust Helm goes on to look at the relations between belief and trust and between faith and virtue and concludes with an exploration of one particular type of belief about oneself the belief that one is oneself a believer This is a book for anyone interested in the basis of religious faith

The Reasoning of Unreason John Roberts, 2018-08-23 The twenty first century so far has seen the global rise of authoritarian populism systematic racism and dogmatic metaphysics Even though these events demonstrate the growth of an age of unreason in this original and compelling book John Roberts resists the assumption that such thinking displays an unthinking irrationality or loss of reason instead he asserts that an important feature of modern reactionary politics is that it offers a supposedly convincing integration of the particular and the universal This move is defined by what Roberts calls the reasoning of unreason and has deep roots in the

Sermons: Chiefly on the Theory of Religious Belief Blessed John Henry Newman, Aeterna Press, FEW charges have been more frequently urged by unbelievers against Revealed Religion than that it is hostile to the advance of philosophy and science That it has discouraged the cultivation of literature can never with any plausibility be maintained since it is evident that the studies connected with the history and interpretation of the Scriptures have more than any others led to inquiries into the languages writings and events of ancient times Christianity has always been a learned religion it came into the world as the offspring of an elder system to which it was indebted for much which it contained and which its professors were obliged continually to consult The Pagan philosopher on enrolling himself a member of the Christian Church was invited nay required to betake himself to a line of study almost unknown to the schools of Greece The Jewish books were even written in a language which he did not understand and opened to his view an account of manners and customs very different from those with which he was familiar Aeterna Press Sermons Chiefly on the Theory of Belief James Shergold Boone, 1860

Kraynak, 2008-01-01 This collection of essays honoring Werner J Dannhauser addresses the timeless issue _lately become very timely_ of the rivalry between reason and religion especially as both relate to politics The essays _by such scholars as Francis Fukuyama Walter Berns Jeremy Rabkin and Ralph Lerner_ range widely over Western intellectual history from classical philosophy and ancient Israel to the medieval period and the Renaissance to Nietzsche and contemporary neoconservative thought Reason, Faith and Authority in Christianity Alfred Magill Randolph, 1902 Belief in God Charles Gore, 1922 University Magazine, 1903 Reason, Faith, And Purpose: The Ultimate Gamble John R Fanchi, 2021-11-24 Reason Faith and Purpose The Ultimate Gamble is a guide for believers and inquiring skeptics This book summarizes the scientific view of the origins of the universe and life and analyzes the question of the existence of god from philosophical religious and scientific perspectives The material is presented in two parts Part I presents the secular scientific view of the origin and evolution of the physical universe and life Part II introduces other perspectives that are representative of ideas historically prevalent around the world The material in Reason Faith and Purpose is designed to provide insight into the choice each of us must make in this life the ultimate gamble Existential Reasons for Belief in God Clifford Williams, 2020-03-18 Lived faith involves doctrines evidences and rational coherence but it includes much more Philosopher Clifford Williams puts forth an argument as to why certain needs desires and emotions have a legitimate place in drawing people into faith in God Addressing the strongest objections to these types of grounds for faith he shows how the personal and experiential aspects of belief play an important part in coming to faith and in remaining a believing person
