

Short Philosophy of Education Examples

My teaching philosophy is centered around seeing the whole student and allowing the student to use their whole self to direct their own learning. As a secondary teacher, I also believe strongly in exposing all students to the same core content of my subject so that they have equal opportunities for careers and other experiences dependent upon that content in the future.

Reason And Values New Essays In Philosophy Of Education:

Reason and Values John Peter Portelli, Sharon Bailin, 1993-01-01 Reason and Education H. Siegel, 2012-12-06 Israel Scheffler is the pre eminent philosopher of education in the English speaking world today This volume collects seventeen original invited papers on Scheffler s philosophy of education by scholars from around the world The papers address the wide range of topics that Scheffler s work in philosophy of education has addressed including the aims of education cognition and emotion teaching the language of education science education moral education religious education and human potential Each paper is followed by a response from Scheffler himself The collection is essential reading for anyone concerned with contemporary scholarship in philosophy of education or with the place of this singularly important author in it Inquiry: A New Paradigm for Critical Thinking Mark Battersby, Sharon Bailin, 2018-12-05 This volume reflects the development and theoretical foundation of a new paradigm for critical thinking based on inquiry The field of critical thinking as manifested in the Informal Logic movement developed primarily as a response to the inadequacies of formalism to represent actual argumentative practice and to provide useful argumentative skills to students Because of this the primary focus of the field has been on informal arguments rather than formal reasoning Yet the formalist history of the field is still evident in its emphasis with respect to both theory and pedagogy on the structure and evaluation of individual de contextualized arguments It is our view that such a view of critical thinking is excessively narrow and limited failing to provide an understanding of argumentation as largely a matter of comparative evaluation of a variety of contending positions and arguments with the goal of reaching a reasoned judgment on an issue As a consequence traditional critical thinking instruction is problematic in failing to provide the reasoning skills that students need in order to accomplish this goal Instead the goal of critical thinking instruction has been seen largely as a defensive one of learning to not fall prey to invalid inadequate or fallacious arguments Philosophy of Education Philosophy of Education Society (U.S.), 1997

Two Minds about Liberalism Dwight R. Boyd,2015-12-22 Integrating scholarly essays and personal reflections Becoming of Two Minds chronicles a unique philosophical odyssey a developmental journey of coming to recognize the inadequacy of liberalism in the face of some egregious social problems such as racism while also appreciating its strengths A Personal Prologue describing the main intellectual influences on the author locates the origins of the journey and functions as a backdrop for its interpretation Fifteen chronologically organized essays divided into three parts identify significant positions of contrast between the two minds establishing the direction of the journey and indications of change Essays in Part I reflect early allegiance to liberalism and explore its core ideas as they should be interpreted to guide moral education Those in Part II express disaffection with that allegiance taking a distinctly critical stance toward liberalism Part III then consists of essays that represent attempts to come to terms with the becoming of two minds exemplified in the tension between the ideas about liberalism expressed in Parts I and II A Personal Preface also introduces each of the fifteen essays These Prefaces address questions such as why the problem of the essay was chosen why it was approached in a particular way and what place the essay assumes in the direction the author s journey takes Journal of Thought ,2004 Educating Reason Harvey Siegel,2013-09-27 First Published in 1988 The critical thinking movement is increasingly important in the philosophy of education Beginning from the generally accepted view that children should be taught to reason not simply to repeat what they have been told it tries to establish whether it is in fact possible to teach children a set of skills which add up to thinking Siegel here examines three major conceptions of critical thinking and then puts forward his own definition of the critical thinker as one who is appropriately moved by reasons He argues that critical thinking is a fundamental educational ideal and defends the ideal against charges of indoctrination Chapters on science education and minimum competency testing highlight its practical implications for education policy and curriculum This book should be of interest to lecturers and students of education and philosophy International Books in Print, 1995 Barbara Hopkinson,[Anonymus AC01401231],1995 Conceptual Foundations of Antitrust Oliver Black,2005-11-03 This is a philosophical study of concepts that lie at the foundation of antitrust a body of law and policy designed to promote or protect economic competition Topics covered are the nature of competition the relation between competition and welfare the distinction between per se rules and rules of reason agreements concerted practices and the spectrum from independent action to collusion Although there are many legal and economic books on antitrust this is the first book devoted to the philosophical scrutiny of the concepts that underpin it No prior knowledge of philosophy is presupposed The book is primarily directed at students theorists and practitioners of antitrust but will also be useful to lawyers economists philosophers political scientists and others who have an interest in the discipline God and the Grounding of Morality Kai Nielsen,1997-10-17 These essays make a single central claim that human beings can still make sense of their lives and still have a humane morality even if their worldview is utterly secular and even if they have lost the last vestige of belief in God Even in a self consciously Godless world life can be fully meaningful Nielsen contends Philosophy of Education John Percival Powell,1974
