distinctive as a work of systematic theology in that it comes out of a Reformed Baptist stable this is especially relevant for the sections on the church worship and the sacraments Bayes seeks to lay the biblical foundation for each doctrinal subject using an exegetical approach rather than merely citing prooftexts For each doctrine he also outlines the teaching of the early Christian creeds and the confessions of faith dating from the Reformation period as well as referring to a small selection of modern statements of faith from different countries Debates and interpretations of the various doctrines from different points in church history are summarized and at the end of the exposition of every doctrinal theme there is a section that emphasizes its practical application This ensures that the book is not merely abstract and academic but has real down to earth value for Christian life and ministry

Metafiction and Myth in the Novels of Peter Ackroyd Susana Onega Jaén, 1999 Providing detailed analysis of the recurrent structural and thematic traits in Peter Ackroyd's first nine novels this work sets out to show how they grow out of the tension created by two apparently contradictory tendencies These are on the one hand the metafictional tendency to blur the boundaries between story telling and history to enhance the linguistic component of writing and to underline the constructedness of the world created in a way that aligns Ackroyd with other postmodernist writers of historiographic metafiction and on the other the attempt to achieve mythical closure expressed for example in Ackroyd's fictional treatment of London as a mystic centre of power This mythical element evinces the influence of high modernists such as Ezra Pound and T S Eliot and links Ackroyd's work to transition to postmodern writers such as Lawrence Durrell Maureen Duffy Doris Lessing and John Fowles

Century Path, 1908 Christian Faith (Two-Volume Set) Friedrich Schleiermacher, 2016-09-01 Christian Faith is one of the most important works of Christian theology ever written The author known as the father of theological liberalism correlates the entirety of Christian doctrine to the human experience of and consciousness of God A work of exhaustive scholarship written in deep sympathy with the ministry of congregations and church bodies Christian Faith has inspired admiration and debate from all quarters of the Christian family since its first publication in 1821 This is the first full translation of Schleiermacher's Christian Faith since 1928 and the first English language critical edition ever Edited by top Schleiermacher scholars this edition includes extensive notes that detail changes Schleiermacher made to the text and explain references that may be unfamiliar to contemporary readers Employing shorter sentences and more careful tracking of vocabulary the editors have crafted a translation that is significantly easier to read and follow Anyone who wishes to understand theology in the modern period will find this an indispensable resource
