Critical Conversations Tom Gilson,2016-02-27 Christian parents need to be prepared to answer the myriad challenges teens might hear in today s increasingly pro homosexual culture Why shouldn t gays get married Who says gay sex is wrong Does the Bible actually say there s anything wrong with homosexuality Don t you care that kids are being bullied just for being themselves To start the discussion Gilson provides a brief history of the issues beginning with the sexual revolution of the 1960s He explains how and why cultural attitudes have reversed on this subject in such a short timespan leaving Christians scrambling for answers This is perhaps the most complicated and contentious issue Christians face in today s culture Most churches are poorly equipped to handle it parents are even less prepared The good news is that parents need not have pat answers ready before they dive into conversations with their teens and preteens on this difficult topic Learning together parents struggling through these issues alongside their kids and leading them to biblical answers has relational benefits Answers are important though so manageable nontechnical answers to common questions surrounding this issue are provided as well as a guide to further resources

Faith Isn't Blind Patrick Ford,2016-02-17 Popular culture constantly bombards us with the idea that modern scientific knowledge has rendered Christianity obsolete The common conception is that those who believe in God do so through blind faitha faith that is devoid of proof and in contrast with scientific knowledge However despite this perception there are multiple independent scholarly arguments that point toward the existence of a Christian God including the weakness of naturalism as an explanation for our world the congruency of God and modern science including evolution the cosmological argument and the beginning of the universe the intelligent design of our universe the existence of an objective moral law the secular sources that confirm the life and events of Jesus Christ the credibility of the New Testament and the historical evidence for the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ While belief in God is not an academic conclusion God did not leave us without any indications of his existence These independent arguments build a cumulative case that leads to the logical conclusion that God really does exist and therefore Faith Isn't Blind
