Islam Claire Woodward, 2002 Islam Background Bibliography

Recovering the Female Voice in Islamic Scripture Georgina L. Jardim, 2016-04-08 Protest is an activity not associated with the pious and collectively minded but more often seen as an activity of the liberal and rebellious Judaism Christianity and Islam are commonly understood as paragons of submission and obedience following Abraham's example Yet the scriptures of all three faiths are founded in the prophets protesting wrongs in the social order The Qur'an claims that men and women and the relations between them are a sign from God The question is to what extent are women silenced in the text and do they share with men in shaping the prophetic scriptures This book finds that far from silencing women the Qur'an affirms the female voice as protester for justice and as questioner of Theology In this reading of the female role in divine revelation in the Islamic text Georgina Jardim returns to the scriptures of the Judeo-Christian counterpart of the Abrahamic faiths to investigate whether the Bible may claim women as brokers of revelation The result is an enriched understanding of divine communication in the Abrahamic scriptures and a commonplace for reasoning about the female voice as speaker in the Word of God

Toward a Healthier Contextualization among Muslims Wonjoo Hwang, 2019-01-23 Various ministry approaches have been utilized in Muslim nations in the past in order to lead lost souls into God's Kingdom One noticeable trend in recent years in the ministry is an increasing emphasis on contextualization While the evangelical missiological community searches for more effective contextualization models some ad hoc proposals have complicated the issue One representative case is the Insider Movement among Muslims whose advocates contend that Muslim followers of Isa Jesus can remain within their own Islamic socio religious community while continuing in Islamic religious practices What is urgently needed in the contemporary discussion on contextualization is to develop a comprehensive analytical framework based on a sound biblical theological foundation for evaluating any missiological model After reviewing the historical development of Muslim evangelism models this study provides such an analytical framework for developing a healthier contextualization model among Muslims and applies this framework to the Insider Movement by critically evaluating the biblical interpretations and missiological reasonings of the Insider Movement advocates The writer calls for a healthier contextualization model among Muslims that is biblically authentic and culturally relevant American Book Publishing Record, 2002
