Rebel Without a Crew, Or, How a 23-year-old Filmmaker with [dollars]7,000 Became a Hollywood Player Robert Rodriguez, 1996 In the world of American independent film making no one has landed on the cinema map with more explosive force than Robert Rodriguez did with El Mariachi And he did so with only one camera no crew and a budget largely raised by subjecting himself to medical experimentation Written in an exceptionally witty and straight shooting style this book will render conventional film school programmes obsolete Exploding the conventional wisdom that you need at least a million dollars to make a feature film Rodriguez clearly demonstrates the countless ways to do for free what the pros spend thousands on without a second thought Rodriguez also offers an insider's view of the amazing courtship he enjoyed with Hollywood He presents an entertaining tour of the Hollywood deal making machine as he navigates his way through studio meetings pitch sessions and power lunches with the biggest names in the industry Candidly divulging the tactics and tempting lures the warring studios used to win him over he admits that he barely escaped with his movie and his soul intact Rebel Without a Crew is both one man's remarkable story and an essential guide for anyone who has a celluloid story to tell and the dreams and determination to see it through The Portable Film School

D. B. Gilles, 2025-06-25 The Portable Film School is a private tutorial from an instructor at one of the nation's most prestigious film schools D B Gilles explains the fundamental skills and techniques of screenwriting and making a short film arming you with the two calling cards you'll need to break into Hollywood without having spent the tuition or a minute in a classroom

Video Production Techniques Donald L. Diefenbach, 2009-03-04 Video Production Techniques begins with the basic skills of video production so students experience writing shooting and editing right away It then moves to short form projects and in depth explorations of lighting and sound concluding with an exploration of documentaries news and other nonfiction forms The final section is dedicated to advanced applications including the process of creating long form projects the elements of directing and strategies for effective marketing and distribution The book concludes with a chapter exploring professional opportunities in production and options for further study The book includes a Companion DVD with original demonstrations clips from professional works and interviews with film and video professionals Key Features includes

DVD beneficial for the independent learner unique integration of theory and production techniques covers all the basics for writing shooting and editing videos Companion Website with materials for students and instructors www.videoproductiontechniques.com Reviews The modest title of this book doesn't begin to reflect the ambitious scope of its design From heady aesthetic theories to an explanation of the LLP form Video Production Techniques provides one stop shopping for theory production and business Students of media criticism and the media industry would benefit from this book as much as students of production After twenty five years of teaching I learned a lot from reading it Robert Thompson Director Bleier Center for Television and Popular Culture and Syracuse University In the ever evolving business of television and film it's nice to know that there is a source so accurately assembled so dense with dynamic information and at the end of the day easy and enjoyable to read Donald Diefenbach has put together an invaluable guide that I'm sure will be the bible for both young and experienced filmmakers alike Brett Weitz Vice President Fox21 division of 20th Century Fox Television I've been reading books that tell you how to make movies since the 1960s and this is far and away the best I've encountered It covers every aspect of the film and video making process in a fresh authoritative readable and clear fashion It doesn't forget the art of film while teaching the craft of it Ken Hanke Film Critic Author of Ken Russell's Films Charlie Chan at the Movies and A Critical Guide to Horror Film Series La India María Seraina Rohrer, 2017-12-20 La India María a humble and stubborn indigenous Mexican woman is one of the most popular characters of the Mexican stage television and film Created and portrayed by María Elena Velasco La India María has delighted audiences since the late 1960s with slapstick humor that slyly critiques discrimination and the powerful At the same time however many critics have derided the iconic figure as a racist depiction of a negative stereotype and dismissed the India María films as exploitation cinema unworthy of serious attention By contrast La India María builds a convincing case for María Elena Velasco as an artist whose work as a director and producer rare for women in Mexican cinema has been widely and unjustly overlooked Drawing on extensive interviews with Velasco her family and film industry professionals as well as on archival research Seraina Rohrer offers the first full account of Velasco's life her portrayal of La India María in vaudeville television and sixteen feature film comedies including Ni de aquí ni de allá Neither here nor there and her controversial reception in Mexico and the United States Rohrer traces the films financing production and distribution as well as censorship practices of the period and compares them to other Mexploitation films produced at the same time Adding a new chapter to the history of a much understudied period of Mexican cinema commonly referred to as la crisis this pioneering research enriches our appreciation of Mexploitation films

Cult Films Allan Havis, 2007-12-14 Cult Films Taboo and Transgression looks at nine decades of cult films history within American culture By highlighting three films per decade including a brief summary of the decade's identity and sensibility the book investigates the quality ironies and spirit of cult film evolution The twenty seven films selected for this study are analyzed for story content and in their respective transgressions regarding social aesthetic and political codes Characteristic of this book is the notion that many exciting genres make up cult films including horror sci fi fantasy film noir and black comedy Further the book reaches out to several foreign film directors over the decades in order to view cult films as an intentional art form Political and ideological controversies are covered arresting back story details that lend perspective on a film fill out the analysis and the historic framework for many film titles The book by emphasizing the condensed survey over decades and by choosing outstanding titles differs from other general studies on cult films

Chicano Images Christine List, 2013-12-04 Providing textual analysis of 12 feature films written and directed by filmmakers who explore aspects of the Chicano cultural movement this book discusses films including Cheech and Chong's Still Smokin 1983 El Norte 1985 and Break of Dawn 1988 The text analyzes the portrayal of Chicano or Mexican American identity in films by chicanos Part historiography part film analysis part ethnography this book offers a compelling story of how Chicanos challenge subvert and create their own popular portrayals of Chicanismo Historical stereotypical images in Hollywood films are discussed alongside contemporary images portrayed by Hollywood studios and independent Chicano filmmakers The author examines the way in which newer films construct new representations of Chicano culture and present a greater variety of images of Chicanos for mainstream audiences Originally published in 1996 this authoritative volume provides a full history of the Chicano cultural movement beginning in the 1960s as well as information on the development of Mexican American film production

Indonesian Cinema after the New Order Thomas Barker, 2019-09-16 In Indonesian Cinema after the New Order Going Mainstream Thomas Barker presents the first systematic and most comprehensive history of contemporary Indonesian cinema The book focuses on a 20 year period of great upheaval from modest indie beginnings through mainstream appeal to international recognition More than a simple narrative Barker contributes to cultural studies and sociological research by defining the three stages of an industry moving from state administration through needing to succeed in local pop culture specifically succeeding with Indonesian youth to remain financially viable until it finally realizes international recognition as an art form This going mainstream paradigm reaches far beyond film history and forms a methodology for understanding the market in which all cultural industries operate where the citizen consumer not the state becomes sovereign Indonesia presents a particularly interesting case because going mainstream has increasingly meant catering to the demands of new Islamic piety movements It has also meant working with a new Ministry of Tourism and Creative Economy established in 2011 Rather than a simplified creative world many hoped for Indonesian filmmaking now navigates a new complex of challenges different to those faced before 1998 Barker sees this industry as a microcosm of the entire country democratic yet burdened by authoritarian legacies creative yet culturally contested international yet domestically shaped This is a significant piece of scholarly contribution informed by an extensive range of interviews with industry insiders This volume is particularly welcome given the dearth of English language publications on Indonesian cinema in the last two decades I have no doubt that the book will be extensively used in any future work on national cinema not just in Indonesia but Southeast Asia more widely Krishna Sen University of Western Australia Indonesian Cinema after the New Order is a marvelously entertaining and important contribution to the study of Indonesian cinema youth culture and media worlds in a global context In fact I would consider it the best book I have seen on the subject of the Indonesian film industry Mary Steedly Harvard University Contemporary Indonesian Film Katinka van Heeren, 2012-01-01 This highly informative book explores the world of Post Soeharto Indonesian audio visual media in the exiting era of Reform From a multidisciplinary approach it considers a wide variety of issues such as mainstream and alternative film practices ceremonial and independent film festivals film piracy history and horror documentary television soaps and Islamic films as well as censorship from the state and street Through the perspective of discourses on and practices of film production distribution and exhibition this book gives a detailed insight into current issues of Indonesia s social and political situation where Islam secular realities and ghosts on and off screen mingle or clash Robert Rodriguez Zachary Ingle, 2012-03-09 A collection of interviews with Robert Rodriguez that discuss his life and filmmaking career Technological Issues in Broadcast Education Gerard Donnelly, Joseph R. Blaney Ph.D., 2003-10-30 The broadcasting industry s ongoing transition to digital technology raises significant questions for higher education ones relating to appropriate curriculum design the teacher student relationship legal issues media convergence and funding This new collection of essays offers guidance to faculty administrators and scholars alike offering innovative ideas on ways in which programs can excel in each area In so doing Technological Issues in Broadcast Education illuminates the educational settings that have been created and enhanced by the emergence of new broadcast related technologies as well as the impact of these technologies on the missions of broadcasting programs Subjects covered in the volume include the digital revolution curriculum revisions online learning gender considerations learning beyond the classroom and international models of broadcasting curricula At the same time that emphasis is placed on the challenges posed by new technologies careful attention is given to the importance of educators continuing to emphasize the traditional academic skills of writing interpersonal communication and analysis In this way editors Jerry Donnelly and Joseph R Blaney offer offers a unique roadmap to educators charged with shaping broadcasting programs in light of new technology
