My Hope Is Built Lorna Brown, 2018-11-14 You stand at the altar and repeat the wonderful words of the marriage vows As you exit the church a congregation of loved ones and friends send up cheers of congratulations But now the marriage has fallen apart here you are separated perhaps even divorced And instead of applause you hear the sound of your tears and the footsteps of fear You feel hurt broken empty abandoned The shame of failing is so overwhelming that for a while you do an Oscar-winning job of faking for the loved ones even the congregation that all is well All the while the enemy is grabbing at your self-esteem and grabbing at your hope But with God there is no faking it He sees and knows it all even the thoughts and feelings you would like to pretend you don't have The congregation may no longer be cheering for you but God is Rather than letting you spiral into hopelessness he cheers you on to hope again He heals he fills up the empty places in your heart and he comforts He restores hope No one rebuilds hope like God Why art thou cast down O my soul and why art thou disquieted within me hope thou in God for I shall yet praise him who is the health of my countenance and my God Psalms 42:11 KJV This book includes poetry devotionals and encouragement to strengthen you as you partner with God in rebuilding your hope Tears fears and jeers he hears them all and responds with cheer

Conradie, 2005-05-18 Hope for the Earth explores the viability of an eschatological approach to an ecological theology spirituality and praxis in the South African context The basic intuition of such an eschatological approach is that an environmental praxis can only be empowered on the basis of an adequate understanding of Christian hope. Despair in the face of environmental destruction will inevitably lead to a spirit of resignation. Where then can a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth be found? The author proposes a road map for eschatology based on the observation that eschatology has traditionally responded to three aspects of the human predicament: namely 1 the evil effects of sin 2 the problem of finitude and transience and 3 the limitations of human power and knowledge in space. Part A This analysis is used to fathom the depths of despair as a result of environmental destruction. Part B The Biblical roots and subsequent history of Christian eschatology are discussed briefly. Part C Recent contributions in Christian eschatology, ecological theology, cosmology and South African expressions of hope are explored in depth in search of a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth itself. Part D The eschatological road map is used to develop a vision of hope for the earth on the basis of a theology of life amidst death and destruction, life beyond death and eternal life in the presence of God. Part E Finally the implications of this vision for an ecological ethos, spirituality and praxis in the South African context are indicated. Part F
