Contemporary Irish Poetry and the Canon Kenneth

Keating, 2017-03-27 This book makes an important intervention into debates about influence and contemporary Irish poetry Supported throughout by incisive reflections upon allusion word choice and formal structure Keating brings to the discussion a range of new and lesser known voices which decisively complicate and illuminate its pronounced concerns with inheritance history and the Irish poetic canon Steven Matthews Professor of English Literature University of Reading UK and author of Irish Poetry Politics History Negotiation and Yeats As Precursor This book is about the way that contemporary Irish poetry is dominated and shaped by criticism It argues that critical practices tend to construct reductive singular and static understandings of poetic texts identities careers and maps of the development of modern Irish poetry This study challenges the attempt present within such criticism to arrest stabilize and diffuse the threat multiple alternative histories and understandings of texts would pose to the formation of any singular pyramidal canon Offered here are detailed close readings of the recent work of some of the most established and high profile Irish poets such as Paul Muldoon and Medbh McGuckian along with emerging poets to foreground an alternative critical methodology which undermines the traditional canonical pursuit of singular meaning and definition through embracing the troubling indeterminacy and multiplicity to be found within contemporary Irish poetry

Poetry and Its Others Jahan

Ramazani, 2022-12-22 What is poetry Often it is understood as a largely self enclosed verbal system suspended from any mutual interaction with alien discourse in the words of Mikhail Bakhtin But in Poetry and Its Others Jahan Ramazani reveals modern and contemporary poetry's animated dialogue with other genres and discourses Poetry generates rich new possibilities he argues by absorbing and contending with its near verbal relatives Exploring poetry's vibrant exchanges with other forms of writing Ramazani shows how poetry assimilates features of prose fiction but differentiates itself from novelistic realism metabolizes aspects of theory and philosophy but refuses their abstract procedures and recognizes itself in the verbal precision of the law even as it separates itself from the law's rationalism. But poetry's most frequent interlocutors he demonstrates are news, prayer and song. Poets such as William Carlos Williams and W. H. Auden refashioned poetry to absorb the news while expanding its contexts. T. S. Eliot and Charles Wright drew on the intimacy of prayer though resisting its limits and Paul Muldoon, Rae Armantrout and Patience Agbabi have played with and against song lyrics and techniques. Encompassing a cultural and stylistic range of writing unsurpassed by other studies of poetry, Poetry and Its Others shows that we understand what poetry is by examining its interplay with what it is not.

Ageing Masculinities in Irish Literature and Visual Culture Michaela Schrage-Früh, Tony Tracy, 2022-07-14. This book engages with ageing masculinities in Irish literature and visual culture including fiction, drama, poetry, painting and documentary. Exploring the shifting representations of older men from the early twentieth century to the present, the contributors analyse how a broad range of literary and visual texts construct, reinscribe or challenge perceptions of older age. In doing so, they trace a shift from depictions of authority figures often symbolising patriarchal dominance and oppression to more nuanced, complex and heterogeneous explorations of older men's embodied subjectivities and vulnerabilities. Exploring artists and writers such as Seán Keating, J. M. Synge, Teresa Deevy, Marina Carr, Seamus Heaney, Paul Muldoon, Derek Mahon, Kate O'Brien, John Banville, Colm Tóibín, Bernard MacLaverty, Mike McCormack, Anne Griffin and Claire Keegan, the chapters in this book attend to the symbolic as well as social significance of older men in Irish cultural expression.

Disobedience Alice Notley, 2001-10-01. Alice Notley has earned a reputation as one of the most challenging and engaging radical female poets at work today. Her last collection, Mysteries of Small Houses, was a finalist for both the Pulitzer Prize in poetry and the Los Angeles Times Book Prize. Structured as a long series of interconnected poems in which one of the main elements is an ongoing dialogue with a seedy detective, Disobedience sets out to explore the visible as well as the unconscious. These poems, composed during a fifteen-month period, also deal with being a woman in France with turning fifty and with being a poet and thus seemingly despised or at least ignored.
